Stages Old-Fashioned Night

"Real Old Fashioned Girls With Hearts So True" was the theme of the regular meeting of Manzanita Chapter 172 OES, Friday evening, Feb. 6, in the IOOF Hall. Worthy Matron Helen McCornack and Worthy Patron Allan Betach presiding, had decreed it to be Old Fashioned Night. Members and visitors were entertained with a Grand Parade of old dresses, shawls, blouses, skirts, hosiery and purses worn in the good old day. Prizes were given to Georgianna Clark, who wore a beautiful black lace shawl, 80 years old, which had belonged to her grandmother; and to Mildred Luft, who was demure in a black dress and gave a reading of the "Gay Nineties" era. Loreen McCollum presented the Mello-ettes from Merrill, Carol Wynant, Betty Owens, Betty Hodges and Marjory Waldrup; a quartet that could very well compete with any male barber-shop quartet. The Chapter room was gayly decorated with lace Valentines and greenery by Edith Barleen. Leslie Bass, Past Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon was welcomed in the East as an honored guest and given the Grand Honors. He spoke of Eastern Star work as given from the old ritual in the days gone by and how entertaining it is when given by a Chapter today. Following the business meeting, delicious refreshments were served by Ruth Weimar, Madge McLaren, Larry and Naomi French. The dining room was bright and cheerful with an old fashioned checkered tablecloth, pussy willow, mock-quince and trees made festive with red hearts. In the contest of members' baby pictures—the grand finale—Madge McLaren was awarded the prize as the most attractive baby, with every one singing "Oh You Must Have Been A Beautiful Baby".
