Allied Bomb Kills Allies

SEOUL (U) - Three American soldiers were killed and five wounded when an Allied warplane accidentally dropped its bombs behind U. N. lines, it was learned.

Air Force and Navy officers refused to discuss the incident, but the Far East Command in Tokyo said it had started an investigation.

An American officer of the unit hit said he understands one fighter-bomber pilot had trouble with his bomb release mechanism while flying toward the Chinese lines on the Western Front.

The explosives dropped on the administrative section of a front-line battalion. The section was about 2 1/2 miles behind the lines.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force indicated Marine Panther jets were responsible. The Marines have been making their own investigation.

Bomb Death Held Accident

WALLA WALLA (U) - The death of a state penitentiary official in a bomb explosion at the prison was accidental, a coroner's jury held Wednesday night.

The official, business manager Albert Gruber, died Monday of injuries received a week earlier when a home-made bomb found in one of the prison cells exploded as he was examining it.

The jury said Amado Cadena and "confederates" were the probable makers of the bomb.

Prosecutor Murray Teggart said charges will not be filed at present.

Albany TV Work Slated

ALBANY, Ore. (U) - Work on a coaxial network to distribute television programs here will start about April 1, an official of the corporation sponsoring the project said Wednesday.

Stanley Wheeler, manager of radio station KWLL and president of the Albany Television Distributing Corp., said a 50-foot antenna would be erected atop the six-story Albany Hotel to receive programs from KPTV, Portland. Cables would be mounted on existing power and telephone poles.

Residents of this city can receive KPTV now only by installing 50 to 75 foot antennas costing $100 to $150 and even then the reception is poor.

An ordinance granting the corporation a franchise was passed on first reading Wednesday. The ordinance set a maximum installation charge of $150 for residents and $200 for business houses. Maximum service charges are $3.50 and $8.

Cougars Invade Backyards

OREGON CITY (U) - State hunters were asked to come here to track down two cougars a housewife said she saw in back yards Wednesday night.

Mrs. Irene Dionne said she heard a whimpering in the yard and investigating, saw the cougars. She sent her son, Vernon, to get help from the neighbors.

The neighbors fired two shots at the animals, but missed. Police, who were called, found tracks but lost them in the brush. The police, in turn, asked for the hunters.

Flinging Well Finally Capped

HOBBS, N. M. (U) - A wild gas well near here was capped yesterday after 14 days of blasting forth a stream of highly inflammable natural gas.

Cost of the operation in capping the well was estimated at $200,000 not counting value of the gas which was escaping at a rate of 130 million cubic feet a day.

The well choked to a stop after four giant pumps started blasting heavy drilling mud down into the escaping gas stream.

Sometimes You Can't Win

HAYWARD, Calif. (U) - The city of Hayward refused to revive an old Anglo-Saxon custom with a new twist - imprisonment for debt - at the debtor's request.

John Q. Silva, 65-year-old farmer, stormed into the Alameda County sheriff's substation yesterday.

"I want to go to jail because I can't pay my bills," he told Sgt. Bert Harrison. "Bills, bills, bills. I can't pay them. Lock me up."

He produced a paper bag stuffed with due notes. Most were for back taxes. One was a $1,200 sewer assessment.

The sergeant weighed the matter and shook his head. It wouldn't be legal, he said.

Outraged, Silva started a scuffle in which two windows were broken. Deputies obliged Silva then, jailing him for malicious mischief.

But when the case came before Municipal Judge Lester Foley a few hours later, the court sent Silva home.

"It's poor psychology to jail a man who wants to go to jail," the judge said. "And what's the use of fining a man with so many bills?"

Sacred Heart Notebook

BY MARY EGAN

The momentous thrills and chills that come each year during the tournament are back again, to keep every student in every county school on edge until the final gun sounds Saturday night determining the county championship. As well can be expected, Academy students are entering right into the spirit of things with high hopes that they will go all the way. The first game for the Trojans was slated for this afternoon against the Bonanza Antlers. All games this year, including the finals, will be played on the Henley court.

Three successive rallies, today, tomorrow, and Saturday, will be held to spur on the spirit of the Trojans and fans.

Students were dismissed at noon today and also tomorrow to allow everyone to see the afternoon games. So -

Good luck to the Trojans of SHA. We'll be cheering you on, all the way!

Man Takes Life Over Old Grave

ST. LOUIS (U) - A despondent 55-year-old man brought fresh flowers to the grave of his childhood sweetheart here yesterday, then apparently shot himself as he knelt at her resting place.

The man, August G. Cramer of Quincy, Ill., died of a head wound a short time after he was found slumped over the grave.

He was identified by Mrs. Edward Boyens of St. Louis. She told police Cramer left St. Louis after the death of her sister, Della Decker, 64, in May, 1951. She said the couple had been childhood sweethearts but never had married.

In Cramer's clothing police found a note which read:

"When I lost Dell I lost everything I cared for. I can't carry on any longer without Dell."

Piano Player Thanks Writer

WASHINGTON (U) - Remember Paul Hume, the music critic who got that letter after he panned Margaret Truman's singing?

He got another one. From the same author.

This one commented on an article in which Hume said President Eisenhower's piano-playing predecessor had contributed more to the development of music in Washington than any other president.

The letter, published today on Page 1 of the Washington Post (Hume's employer), was dated Feb. 16 and went in part:

"Dear Mr. Hume:

"The article which you wrote on my contribution to the music lovers of the nation has just been called to my attention. I appreciate it very highly....

"Sincerely yours,
 "Harry Truman."

JAIL TERM

PORTLAND (U) - Daniel Julius Olson, 51, convicted of manslaughter by abortion, Tuesday was sentenced to five years and fined $1,000.

Allies Spot Red Shipment

WASHINGTON (U) - A second Finnish tanker, loaded with jet fuel for Communist warplanes, has been spotted in the Mediterranean by Western security agents.

But American officials believe the ship's operators may have changed their minds about hauling its highly strategic cargo to Communist China.

The ship, named "Neste," is reported carrying 5,000 tons of aviation jet fuel picked up at the Romanian oil port of Constanta on the Black Sea.

The vessel is reportedly chartered by the same company which tried to move another tanker, the "Wilma," from Romania with 7,000 tons of jet fuel bound for Communist China. The Wilma, defying a United Nations ban on such shipments, is now anchored about 20 miles off Singapore, carefully watched by Western security agents.

Officials who told a reporter of the second tanker said Thursday there is a report the Communists have decided to divert the "Neste" to Gdynia, a Polish Black Sea port, because of fear that Allied governments may find some way to stop it and confiscate the cargo.

Store Sees 19c Milk

PORTLAND (U) - If a Portland chain store could buy milk at a wholesaler's discount it could retail milk at 19 cents a quart and still make a profit, a State Milk Marketing Administration hearing was told Wednesday.

Walter Spencer, a merchandiser for Fred Meyer, Inc., said that milk distributors now sell milk to other distributors at a 15 per cent discount from the wholesale price of 20 cents a quart fixed by the state.

He said if Fred Meyer and other large volume retailers could buy at this discount milk could be retailed at 19 cents. The 1 1/2 cent mark-up possible would permit a profit, he said.

Spencer denied that his firm wanted to use milk as a loss leader.

Science Hasn't Got All Answers

DENVER (U) - An 8-year-old boy, who has been a patient at Children's Hospital because of brain inflammation, appeared at a medical clinic of the Colorado Medical Society yesterday.

The presiding doctor asked the boy to leave his wheelchair and walk. The boy obeyed but held his hands tight against his waist.

"Can't you move your hands, son?" asked the doctor.

"No," said the boy.

"Do your hands hurt?"

"No."

"Will you try and move them for me?"

"No," said the boy. "I've got to hold up my pajama pants."

War Films Go Over Well

HOLLYWOOD (U) - You'd think that soldiers would like only girl-filled musicals and other escapist movies. But they enjoy war pictures too.

That's the word from Capt. Paul Hopkins of Berkeley, Calif., a Korea veteran and currently technical adviser on Columbia's "Mission Over Korea."

"Of course, we raise Cain with the mistakes in war pictures," explained the Army officer. "But we like them anyway."

He mentioned that John Wayne's "The Sands of Iwo Jima" was one of the most popular war epics. "One Minute to Zero," the Robert Mitchum film, was also well liked despite the many bloopers it contained.

"When most men go into combat," Capt. Hopkins explained, "their only knowledge of warfare has been from what they've seen in the movies. That's why the Army wants war pictures to be done as accurately as possible."

For example, the "Mission Over Korea" script had a couple of Army men killing nine guerrillas.

Soviet Planes Get Warning

TOKYO (U) - A Foreign Office spokesman today warned that Soviet planes which invade Japan's territory can expect more gunfire from U. S. interceptors.

Two American jets and two Russian propeller-driven craft tangled over Northern Japan Monday. One Red plane was riddled with machine-gun bullets in a brief aerial duel and was smoking when it sped back to the Russian Kuriles with its comrade.

Mitsuo Tanaka, the spokesman, told a news conference the incident "is indicative of the treatment other planes will get if they come over."

"When any foreign country invades Japanese territory," he said, "and we feel it is against our national security, we will ask the U. S. Air Force to assist us in the same way it did."

Tanaka said his government is satisfied with a report on the incident received through the American Embassy.

"We got a notice," he said, "from U. S. authorities that Soviet-type planes shot first and the Americans responded. The Japanese government believes it is true."

Madam Enters Vice Trial

NEW YORK (U) - A 28-year-old alleged call house madam was due on the witness stand today to tell what she knows about case society vice.

"I can't remember any names," said red-haired Erica Steel in advance of her appearance at the trial of oleomargarine heir Minoi (Mickey) Jelke III.

The ex-dancer made this comment yesterday as she left another courtroom room with a rich milk coat tucked over one arm.

The state claims she is the madam in the case against Jelke, 23, who is accused of inducing three young women into prostitution and of living off the earnings of one.

She was in Special Sessions Court to be sentenced on her guilty plea to running a public nuisance - a plea she entered after being accused of operating a bawdy house. Sentencing was postponed until March 15.

Meanwhile, a onetime movie bit player was testifying in the Jelke trial.

Richard Short, 39, an admitted procurer, testified of his checkered life and of relationships with Jelke.

The state claims he co-operated with Jelke in allegedly promoting a prostitution career for 23-year-old Pat Thompson, Short's fourth wife. Short has pleaded guilty.

Short testified he was with Miss Thompson when he first met Jelke in 1952. He conceded spending time in jail.

Defense Atty. Sam Segal summed up Short's testimony this way for newsmen: "He didn't earn any money. He hasn't done a stitch of work for years since he got out on parole."

Arts And Letters Admit Members

NEW YORK (U) - Ten new members have been admitted to the National Institute of Arts and Letters.

They are painter, Louis Bouche, writer Rachel L. Carson, critic Mary M. Colum, painter John F. Polesinco, sculptor Leo Friedlander, poet Rolfe Humphries, historian Marquis James, theologian Reinhold Niebuhr, composer Wallingford Riegger and sculptor William Zorach.

The institute's membership is limited to 250 persons deemed outstanding in the fields of arts and letters.

Traffic Death

PORTLAND (U) - Portland's ninth traffic death of 1953 was recorded Wednesday with the death in a hospital of John H. Lewis, 72. He was hit by a car Feb. 10 while walking across a street.

Suicide Takes Life With Blank

DENVER (U) - A carnival sideshow operator shot himself to death yesterday with a gun and a blank cartridge.

Oliver B. Roweth, 67, was found dead at the home of relatives.

Medical Examiner Steve Tucker said Roweth placed the muzzle of a 1905 Army colt .45, loaded with six blank shells, in his mouth and fired.

Tucker said Roweth apparently died of bleeding when his cheeks were blown away, or from concussion or shock.

Roweth had been despondent over ill health.

SNOWBOUND

CASPER, Wyo. (U) - A small bus with seven persons aboard reported missing since Wednesday evening as the worst blizzard of the winter raked Wyoming was found early Thursday, snowbound at a filling station 20 miles from here. None of the passengers suffered ill effects from the layover.
