Refuge May Be Abandoned

SALEM (AP) — The Senate Game Committee Thursday recommended passage of a bill by Sen. Paul Geddes, Roseburg, to abandon the Columbia White Tail Deer Refuge in Douglas County.

The refuge was created 12 years ago to protect a diminishing herd of the deer. Game Commission officials said the animals have not adapted themselves and are of poor quality, few of them weighing more than 80 pounds.

The committee rejected a bill by Sen. Ben Day, Gold Hill, to open the Rogue River above Bybee Bridge to boat fishing by persons 80 years of age or more during the fall months.

The Game Commission objected to the bill because it would require additional policing, and said any angling at that time of the year would disturb the spawning cycle.

LONG'S

New is the time for all good girls to come to the aid of their figures... with the long, narrow line in skirts the IMPORTANT silhouette of the year, no damsel can AFFORD bumps and bulges... just STRETCHING will help... stretch HARD with your arms high above your head... feel the FULL from your hip bones to your arm pits, hold your tummy in, your derrière "taut" and stretch and bend... you'll love the looks of you in just a few short days...

Claw-like nails, like the harem skirt have been out, so, these many years. No more should a true lady wear a Theda Bara dagger "trim." A recent survey of critical males, clinches the fact that the gal with the clawed hand runs way down the line of popularity with her more conservative "nails." The perfect manicure, leaves the nails slightly oval, or slightly rounded, just "clearing" the fingertips.
