REFLECTIONS FROM

DAN CUPID—just got out of the way in time to make room for the EASTER BUNNY—Valentine decorations will barely be put away—when Easter baskets will fill the down town windows—April 5th—this year—is the date of the "Easter Parade to Church."

"A VALENTINE—for BALENTINE—didn't occur to me while writing the outlines for Lyasa Barentine's party at the Yacht Club—it was a combination Valentine and birthday party—and smart make-up man Jim Coon thought of the obvious title.

ROTANA CLUB—Members are proud of the success of their Feb. 13 card party and are grateful to those who attended and otherwise helped—the Federal Housing Project donated the use of the club rooms—and the girls mentioned special thanks for that—High score was won by N. F. (Frank) Book—low, Mrs. Ernest Hedlund—guest prize, Dora Stone—and a Valentine table decoration was won by Mrs. Willis Berry.

NICE TO BE—in Nice on the French Riviera—for 2 miles away in Villefranche—especially for a 6 months stay—Mrs. E. D. (Edna) Jonsson—for many years in KF—now living in Portland has joined her daughter Barbara and family in France—Her spouse Commander Stewart Nelson has been stationed there with the navy since early fall—and their 2 girls are very much at home in French schools—and Barbara is already much at home in the language—Her mother arrived in France shortly after the Christmas holidays—which she spent in Indianapolis with other girl and family—Mary Lou and Bill Hopper—and 3 youngsters.

HUSBANDS—who belong to the Klamath Yacht Club—are getting the Sunday dinner habit—the small-fry feel at home—and maw and paw can relax—Swiss steak or chicken and noodles this week—with strawberry shortcake for the grand finale—Call the club and tell Mike or Beulah "how many".

SYLVIA HILLIS—recently alerted her parents Lillian and George Hillis—that she had pledged Chi Omega at the U of Arizona—(for a freshman—Good!)—belongs to the Rodeo Club—and is carayzee about the whole setup.

Warner Selected As Soloist

Melvin Warner, formerly a member of the KUHS band, orchestra, and a cappella choir, is one of three students selected by audition to appear as orchestra soloists with the Oakland Symphony Or- chestra at its annual Youth Concert on Sunday, March 1.

Melvin will play Mendel's Con- certo No. 1 in Bb major. He was a pupil of LaMar Jensen, KUHS band director, who started him on the oboe.

He is the son of Mrs. R. H. King- don of this city and is now a junior at Oakland High School.
