Few Ask Tax Return Aid

The Klamath Falls office of the Bureau of Internal Revenue reports it isn't having as much business as it could be having without interference with the conveniences of the public.

Local agent-in-charge Clinton Harvey said today it is possible to handle many more persons who desire help with income tax returns than has been. He said there are four persons available to provide assistance.

"And as yet," Harvey said, "no one has had to wait very long to receive help".

Income tax returns are due March 16 this year, because the traditional March 15 date comes on a Sunday.

R. S. Granquist, director of Internal Revenue, said all Oregon offices outside of Portland, including Klamath Falls, offices, are to remain open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on March 7 and March 14, both Saturdays.

And on Monday, March 16, the offices will remain open until midnight to receive tax returns.

Granquist expressed concern that only 20 per cent of the expected number of individual refund returns have been filed to date. The earlier the refundable returns are filed, he said, the earlier the refunds can be made by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Jury Acquits Doomed Man

NEW YORK (AP) — Vincent Pugh, 39-year-old tuberculosis victim whose attorney says he has only a year to live, was acquitted last night of two murder charges in the shooting of his wife and stepdaughter July 17.

An all-male Bronx County Court jury returned the verdict after deliberating 3 hours and 15 minutes.

The defense had called 56 witnesses during the six-week trial to prove that Pugh, a war veteran, was temporarily insane at the time of the shooting.

Pugh, a chauffeur, was held after the fatal shooting of his wife, Eleanor, 37, and her daughter, Mrs. Jane Curley Whalen, 22, in their Bronx apartment. The shooting followed an argument during which, Pugh testified, his wife taunted him by suggesting he was not the father of their 8-year-old son, Vincent Jr.

The boy, who was home at the time of the shooting and ran outdoors calling neighbors, was in the courtroom when the jury freed his father. Pugh hugged the boy, whom he had not seen since the slaying.

Spectators in the courtroom cheered the verdict. Defense Atty. Bernard R. Lauren was mobbed by men who pounded him on the back and women who smothered him with kisses.

Lauren said in his summation that treatment of Pugh's illness had not been successful and that his client expects to die within a year.

Pix Get Girl In a Fix

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — Hollywood model Inga Borg has been placed on probation for two years after being given a 30-day suspended sentence yesterday on conviction of lewd and lascivious conduct.

"She is a victim of one of the oldest routines in Hollywood—the casting couch routine," said Superior Judge Robert Gardner. "I think she did it because she was promised a lot, and which many people do a lot to obtain."

In her trial she testified that she posed willingly for photographer Richard A. Mitman, 34, with whom she was convicted, because he threatened her with violence.

The charges against Miss Borg, whose real name is Ingeborg Schnitcler, were based on 72 nude pictures taken in a Laguna Beach hotel last Sept. 20.

Mitman has been committed to the Norwalk State Hospital for 90 days observation.

Man Humors Occupation

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A young man approached Otto Shaffer, assistant manager of a loan company, and asked yesterday about getting a loan.

"What is your occupation?" asked Shaffer.

"I stick up places," replied the young man, exhibiting a gun.

Shaffer handed over $204 without collateral or argument.

Turks, Greeks Join Defenses

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Turkey, Greece and Yugoslavia have reached complete agreement on defense arrangements against possible Communist aggression in the Balkans in talks here, informed Turkish sources said today.

No communique was issued after the week-long discussions ended last night but the sources said: "Complete accord has been reached concerning defense arrangements to be made jointly by the three nations."

A treaty of friendship among the three, now being drafted in Athens, Greece, is expected to be signed here early next month. Indications are that any formal military agreement will be separate from the friendship pact and will follow later.

PERFECT SHINERS — Two and one half year old Tommy Forsberg of Worcester, Mass., seems mighty proud of two black eyes which earned him $25 dollars from artist Norman Rockwell. Rockwell chose Tommy's shiners to illustrate a forth coming national magazine cover. The shiners were the result of a fall downstairs.

PERON WELCOMED

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Chile's capital hung out the welcome sign for President Juan D. Peron of Argentina Friday as the neighboring chief of state crossed the Andes for a seven-day official visit to Chilean President Carlos Ibanez.

Jelke Ready To Testify

NEW YORK (AP) — Minot F. (Mickey) Jelke says he is ready to testify at his trial on vice charges, but the margarine heir's attorneys say they have not decided whether to call him.

Newsmen asked Jelke if he would take the stand. The 23-year-old scion of a socially registered family replied:

"It wouldn't be like going to a New Year's party. But if it's necessary, I'll do it."

The state rested its case against Jelke Friday with the testimony of blonde Pat Thompson, one of the three young women whom Jelke allegedly induced into prostitution.

General Sessions Court Judge Francis L. Valente, who closed the prosecution's presentation to the public and press, adjourned the trial until Tuesday.

Valente reportedly is willing to open the trial when the defense starts presenting testimony, but he has refused to commit himself. His order barring the public specifically applied only to the state's case. Five New York newspapers and two news services are contesting the order in the appellate division of the State Supreme Court.

In addition to the compulsory prostitution charge applying to the three women, Jelke also is charged with living off the earnings of one of the trio.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pioneer movie executive William Wallace Kerrigan, 73, twin brother of J. Warren Kerrigan, star of silent films, died yesterday.

CANVEY ISLAND, England (AP)—The White family came home this week and papa poured the sea water out of the television set.

This was the report of sandy haired Robert White, age 11, one of the thousands of refugees who have returned to what Britain called the Isle of Death."

Canvey Island, in the Thames estuary, was the home of 12,000 people when hurricane - driven tides struck it at 2 a.m. Sunday, Feb. 1. Angry waters surged over the 8,000 acre island, drowning at least 62 persons—along with 245 more elsewhere on England's eastern coast.

Ten thousand inhabitants of Canvey fled, leaving behind a ghost community isolated in a lake of murky, swirling waters.

Holding his cat, Susan, little Robert White cried when he got his first look at his once trim bungalow home.

"The three feet of water in the living room was nearly gone," he said, "but oh, what a mess was left. The furniture was ruined and had floated everywhere. The whole place was stinky and sloshy.

"Mom had just finished paying for the television set too and the first thing papa did was to empty the sea water out of it. But it was wrecked.

"There was a dead fish in the bath tub."
