WSCS CIRCLES

Members of the four daytime circles of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church met Thursday, Feb. 12, for dessert luncheon at the following homes: Esther—Mrs. William Withrow, 227 Jefferson; Mary—Mrs. Harry Fales, 5307 Bryant; Ruth—Mrs. Joe Abner, 6021 Harlan Drive; Martha—Mrs. George Blanas, 1026 Eldorado. The Valentine motif was used generally at the luncheon tables.

Mrs. Blanas, assisted by Mrs. Dexter Elliott and Mrs. George Vinos, entertained Martha Circle most delightfully at 12 o'clock luncheon; and the entire was prepared after an old family recipe of Greek origin. The luncheon table was covered with a hand crocheted lace cloth and centered with a beautiful arrangement of pink water lilies. Fifteen guests were present.

Mrs. A. W. Cowman was in charge of devotions and the program for Esther Circle. Program subject was "Accent on Liberty". Also featured was a poem "Speak Father of Our Land." Ten members and two guests were present.

Mrs. G. W. Glichrist lead devotions for Mary Circle and Mrs. Harry Fales was program chairman. Eleven attended the meeting. Mrs. Earl Redman and Mrs. Rhoda Brown were in charge of devotions and program, respectively for Ruth Circle. Twelve members were present.

Mrs. Lawrence Phelps was in charge of devotions for Martha Circle and 16 were in attendance. Mrs. Joe Bramhall, president of the WSCS, was a guest.

Routine business was conducted and plans were discussed in each circle for the pre-Easter bazaar. Work was started on various articles to be sold at the bazaar.

PLAYERS CLUB

Members and guests of Players Club were entertained Wednesday evening Feb. 18 in the Library Club rooms by Mrs. John W. Merryman, Mrs. L. D. Leslie, Mrs. Dave Totton, and Mrs. Sid Elliot.

Refreshments were served at eight o'clock from a beautifully decorated table centered with spring flowers. Mrs. Troy Cook, the president, conducted the short business meeting.

Following the meeting cards were in play with high in bridge awarded to Mrs. H. L. Robertson, and high in pinochle to Mrs. F. O. Foster.

The next meeting is the annual dinner party to be held at the Yacht Club March 4 with the cocktail hour from seven to eight and dinner at eight o'clock.
