KF Student To Handle Ticket Sale

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis (Special)—Robert Schleferstein of Klamath Falls was recently appointed chairman of ticket sales of the 1953 Agriculture banquet at Oregon State College March 11.
Approximately 235 students, faculty members and alumni are expected for this annual gathering.
The banquet is for the purpose of renewing old acquaintances and meeting new men in the field of agriculture.
Schleferstein, senior in agriculture, is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
H. B. Schleferstein, 4619 Balsam
Dr., Klamath Falls.

Cake Silent On Alaska

PORTLAND (A)—Ralph Cake, who returned Monday from conferences with Alaskan legislators, said he will not make a recommendation on the Alaskan government.
Cake, former Oregon Republican national committeeman and an El-senhower presidential campaign advisor, said he had made the trip to Juneau at the request of Secretary of the Interior Douglas Mc-Coy.

He had been asked to get information and check on several persons who have been mentioned for the job, he said.
McKay, after he has the information will make a recommendation to President Eisenhower, who in turn will appoint the new governor, Cake said.

He declined to give the names of persons discussed or to confirm or deny reports that Republican members of the Legislature had taken a preferential vote.

TALKS RESUME
PORTLAND (A)—Contract negotiations, broken off two weeks ago, were resumed here Tuesday afternoon. The union groups and the CIO Woodworkers.
The union's demands for a six-hour day, a $1.80 daily pay increase and other benefits were rejected in the earlier talks.

PUBLISHER ROBBED — C.
W. Parcher, editor and publisher of the Glendale News-Press, shows how one of four gunmen who held up the swank Casa de Manana hotel at La Jolla, Calif., gagged him. When Parcher protested one robber threatened to slug him. Three hotel employees were bound and gagged with foursome who escaped with $86,000 in gems and cash from the hotel safe.

Fire Damages Roof of House

Fire early yesterday afternoon damaged the roof of the K. E.
Bjorklund residence, 4240 Shasta Way. Suburban firemen made no estimate of the damage at the time.
At 8:45 last evening, city firemen were called to the C. E. Gount home, 1018 Martin, where an oil stove had flooded. The firemen reported no damage.

Great Northern To Hold Fire School

Great Northern Railway employees will undergo a fire extinguishing indoctrination Wednesday at 9 a.m. at the company's roundhouse and shops, company officials announced this morning.
About 50 employees are expected to participate in the demonstration, which involves the setting of oil fires and use of fire fighting equipment.

KF Students Make Band

Four KUHS students have been named to the Oregon All-State Band which is to convene next month in Portland for specialized training under Capt. Arthur Haynes.
The honored four are Jean Ol-ver, Clarinet; Diane Dennis, bas-soon; Peggy Grimm, bass clarinet and Robert Ebinger, alto clarinet.
This is in addition to the students selected for the All-Northwest Band orchestra and chorus which meets in Bellingham, Wash., March 18-21 in connection with the biennial convention of the Northwest Music Educator's Association.
The All-Staters meet March 16-18, according to Andrew Loney Jr., supervisor of music in Klamath Falls city schools.
