

Midstate Electric Co-op Goes Into Operation For Deschutes, Klamath Areas

By VIRGINIA TAYLOR
CHEMULT — About five years ago, several interested persons in the Chemult, Crescent and LaPine area began a cooperative motion to establish a Co-op to take care of this sparsely populated area of Deschutes and North Klamath Counties. This included the communities of Crescent Lake, Paunina and Mowich, Beaver Marsh and Diamond Lake Junction.

Many of these communities have been severely handicapped in the past due to the lack of reasonable power rates. Businesses could not make profit the way they should have, pumps to pump water were too expensive to operate, proper lighting in private homes was at a minimum.

However, many future purchasers paid their initial fee of five dollars and promised to buy electricity if and when it could be obtained. By this form of local ownership many persons became more interested in their communities and took it upon themselves to write to various senators and representatives in Washington D.C. to do everything possible to promote the aid of R.E.A. in this matter. After considerable red tape, innumerable letters, long distance calls and house to house visiting the Co-op became a growing thing. The proper steps were taken to obtain right of ways, materials and a crew to build the line from Redmond as far South as Diamond Lake Junction. This proved terrifically difficult, due to lava formations where poles were to be set, rough terrain, and early snows in 1951 and 1952.

At 1:45 p.m. Feb. 7, 1953, the actual operation of the line to Chemult was official. For a period from December, 1951 to this date a temporary setup of two diesel plants 120 K.W. had been in use to supply the local needs. However the rates for the operation of these were high. Before the new setup the price per k.w. was from twenty cents tapering off at seven cents a k.w. The new rate schedule is as follows:

Rate Schedule, Home and Farm Rate: 1st 50 KWH, $.07; 2nd 50 KWH, $.06; Next 100 KWH, $.03; Next 300 KWH, $.02; Over 300 KWH, $.01. Minimum charge, farm and home, $5.00; Village and town, $2.00.

Commercial and Industrial Rate: 1st 150 KWH, $.07; Next 350 KWH, $.03½; Next 1000 KWH, $.01½; Next 13,500 KWH, $.008; Over 15,000 KWH, $.006. Demand charge of $1.30 per KW for all demand in excess of 1st 10 KW Village and town same rate as Farm and Home.

Summer Cabins, Minimum, $24 annual payable $2 monthly. The coop plans to read all meters the 25th of each month. The office is in LaPine, Oregon.

Personnel at present are: George W. Larimer, Manager; Patsy Gholson, Cashier-clerk; Margaret Gudat, bookkeeper-clerk; Darrell Ferne, material clerk; Robert Wright, lineman; Claude Steele, lineman; Glen Anderson, ground-man.

Board of Directors: Roy M. Larson, president, LaPine; Kenneth McKenna, vice-president, Crescent; Helen McCabe, Secretary-treasurer, LaPine; D. D. Solburg, director, LaPine; G. O. Bourne, director, Chemult; G. W. Oxburn, director, Crescent; Dave Adrian, director, LaPine; John Zbinden, director, Diamond Lake; Waldorn Parker, director, LaPine.

A cooperative is a private enterprise owned and controlled democratically by the people in need of a particular service, for the purpose of providing such service to themselves. Already the communities of Crescent Lake, Fort Rock, Silver Lake and Paisley are looking forward to benefiting from this cooperative in the near future. An annual meeting of the Midstate cooperative will be held in March. A nominating committee will submit a list of nominees in their next news letter which is published once a month and the election will take place at the annual meeting to be announced later. The Newsletter is called "Midstate Electric Highlights."

Even now, the Southern Pacific Depot here in Chemult is using the old Coleman lamps. Due to the coming of cheaper power many businesses have invested in new lamps, better pumps, and many plans in building by the little homeowner is anticipated, as well as modernization of home equipment, plus a buying spree on electric appliances heretofore too prohibitive to operate by the average family.

Solons May Bow To Womanhood

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The West Virginia Senate may make a courtesy bow to womanhood and invite wives to sit with the senators for one day.

Action on the bipartisan proposal by Democrat Ward Wylie and Republican E. Ray Reed was put over for a day. Their resolution took a cue from the Scriptures—"We know too well what the Creator said after he found man. 'It is not good that the man should be alone,' and so he made woman." They want the wives to sit with their husbands at the March 5 session.

Haywood Rites Draw Crowd

TAYLORVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Allan Haywood, executive vice president of the CIO, was buried here yesterday after one of the largest funerals services ever held in this coal-mining town of 9,000 residents. Many of the nation's labor leaders attended the services at the First Presbyterian Church. CIO Executive Board members, headed by President Walter Reuther, were pallbearers.

Haywood, 64, died Saturday of a heart attack at Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

TRADE TREATY
CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—A trade treaty between Egypt and Soviet-controlled East Germany will be drafted in final form Saturday, a responsible Egyptian source says. The value of goods to be exchanged was not disclosed.

CHESTER A. CAPON (above) state president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, is to come here from Portland Sunday, for a visit with Local Aerie No. 2090. It is to be a special meeting with a large number of candidates to be initiated.

New Child In School

NEW YORK (AP)—Like any other anxious father-to-be, Bertram Fendrick paced the corridor—but with a difference.

The corridor was in a Manhattan public school and Fendrick's wife Sandra, a 21-year-old first-grade teacher, was giving birth to a five-pound boy in an adjacent room.

Fendrick is a fifth-grade teacher in the same school.

Mrs. Fendrick left her own class to become a mother yesterday after telling her young charges: "Be good. There is something I must do."

Library Tea Bit Spirited

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cocktail, which you can find just about anywhere in Washington, has made its way into the Library of Congress.

The occasion was a "literary tea" held in the staid library yesterday to launch a new book, "The Wonderful World of Books," edited by Alfred Steffurud.

The book, containing about 75 articles on what and how to read, is a nonprofit venture sponsored by a number of organizations, including the American Book Publishers Council, Inc., and the American Library Association.

Steffurud, editor of the yearbook of the Department of Agriculture, shook hands with several hundred persons at the reception. Cocktails and bourbon were served, but no Scotch.

CHILDREN ESCAPE

PAVULLO, Italy (AP)—Three hundred children escaped injury yesterday when half the roof of the Pavullo elementary school collapsed under the weight of tons of snow.
