

Klamath Falls Library Club
Benefit Bridge and Tea February 21

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

UNDER "THE MAT" . . . Mrs. Robert Thompson, shown at the left in the John F. Kennedy creation made for Hedda Hopper and given by her to Mrs. Thompson to auction at the last Library Club meeting. To her right, Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. Charles F. Adams, Mrs. Adolph Zambly, Mrs. C.J. Cox, Mrs. Larkin and Mrs. P. D. Meade.

COLORFUL CHINESE COSTUMES . . . were worn by the attractive young ladies of the Library Club Benefit and Tea, Feb. 21, in the Willard Hotel Banquet Room which was transformed into an enchanted oriental picture with lanterns, peonies, cherry blossoms, wisteria etc. From the left, below, Carolyn Boyd, Susan Peck, Sally Burke, Gail Nerzeth and Nancy Clark.

ORIENTAL WAS THE THEME . . . and Mrs. Ronald Carter, left, and Mrs. Richard Hessig pose in front of the beautifully decorated stage. The backdrop of Mt. Fujiyama was painted by Mrs. C. K. Wells, who planned the stage setting. She was assisted by Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Hessig.

THE TEA TABLE . . . was before a richly picturesque background of peacock feathers and exotic flowers on an ornamental screen. Mrs. Marvin Nerzeth, chairman of the Children's Care Benefit Fund (for which the tea was given), serves Mrs. Fred Hoagland, president of the club.

PART OF . . . the large crowd of enthusiastic women who patronized the Klamath Falls Library Benefit Bridge and Tea, an annual pre-spring social event.
