MERRILL-O'CONNOR WEDDING IN ST. AUGUSTINE'S CHURCH

A small but important wedding ceremony, only, was that of Ruth Ellen Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Merrill, 1949 Main, and family, to Edmund Barry O'Connor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cashman, Merrill.

The popular couple exchanged vows at 10 o'clock in St. Augustine's Catholic Church, Merrill, after a pioneer member of her father's family, John Phelan officiated.

Mrs. William Ganong Jr., (Betty) was matron of honor for her sister, Thomas Lacy, lifelong friend of the bridegroom, was best man; and ushers were James Merrill, brother of the bride; and Daniel Barry, cousin of the bridegroom.

Two large baskets of pink and white snapdragons and candlelight from tapers in tall candelabra were used at the altar. The lovely bride wore a white lace ballerina length dress, white slippers and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Matron of honor wore a toast lace dress, also ballerina length and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mrs. Merrill, charming mother of the bride wore a pink and white shantung suit with rose accessories; and her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Cashman chose a navy blue silk to wear to her son's wedding; her accessories were white; and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Soloist, Eleda De Bortola, Chiloquin, sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus," accompanied at the organ by Ursula Bond, who played the Lohengrin Wedding March.

The reception was in the parish hall, and Mrs. J. L. Olson poured. Mrs. H. M. Parkhurst cut the cake. Both are aunts of the bride from Portland.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barry, now of Ashland, grandparents of the bridegroom, who were pioneers in Merrill; and Mr. and Mrs. John Barry, Medford.

After a wedding trip to Southern California, the couple is now living on their homestead at Newell. Ruth is a graduate of KUHS and Oregon State College, and is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. She taught at Bonanza High School for two years.

Barry attended U. C. Agricultural College at Davis and spent three years in the service overseas. He is a farmer and stockman.

LIBRARY CLUB ANNUAL BENEFIT ATTRACTS CAPACITY ATTENDANCE

A large gathering of community minded women enjoyed the annual benefit card and tea party given by the Klamath Falls Library Club Saturday, Feb. 21.

An Oriental theme of colorful lanterns, parasols, wisteria, cherry blossoms, and peacock feathers was used as a setting for the party. A huge scene of Mount Fujiyama painted by Mrs. C. K. Wells, assisted by Mrs. R. Hessig and Mrs. Ronald Carter, formed the background of the stage. A mannequin dressed in typical Chinese costume sat by a large cherry tree in full blossom. Two Chinese pagodas made by Mrs. Margaret Lamb of Portland stood at either side of the stage. Gail Nerseeth, Susan Peak, Carolyn Boyd, Nancy Clark and Billie Burke in Chinese dress assisted about the room. "Tea Party—All Who Come Welcome" written in Chinese on the tallies by Mrs. Henry Wong and silk screened at OTI were planned by Mrs. C. K. Wells.

The Barber Shop Chorus entertained with several numbers and as an encore they sang and dedicated a Chinese song to the club. Mrs. Robert A. Thompson awarded the prizes and as a surprise the Library Club presented her with Hedda Hopper's hat which she had worn when she reviewed the book "Under My Hat" by Hedda Hopper.

Mrs. Fred Hoagland, President, and Mrs. Marvin Nerseeth, Children's Case Benefit chairman, poured during the tea hour. Tea committee members were: Mrs. George Roberts, chairman; Mrs. E. O. Jackson, Mrs. George Blanas, Mrs. Gus Vlahos, Mrs. H. Madole and Mrs. Fred Hoagland. Card committee were Mrs. Calvin Lamb, chairman, Mrs. Charles Wells, Mrs. Richard Hessig, Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mrs. G. W. Nelson, Mrs. Jack Schulze, Mrs. Dale Tepper and Mrs. John Ashley.

Next Library Club meeting will be March 9 in the Little Theater at the High School. The dramatic department of KUHS, directed by Mrs. B. B. Blomquist will present a play.
