

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jester Celebrate 57th Wedding Anniversary With Family

Longtime residents of Klamath County, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Jester, now living in Ashland, celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary, Sunday, Feb. 22 with a family dinner in Ashland. They were married Feb. 26, 1896 in Omaha, Neb.

AAUW Meeting

The Klamath Falls Branch of the American Association of University Women met for their February luncheon meeting in the Pelican Parlor Room, Saturday, Feb. 21 at 12:45 p.m.

The general theme of this meeting was "Fellowship, Our Investment in Intelligence" with Mrs. Percy Murray acting as General Chairman. Each member was given a paper explaining how we participate in and help support the National, International, and Oregon State Fellowship Program. The National organization of AAUW sponsors fifty-four graduate students from twenty countries to study in the United States and this year will spend $123,000 for this purpose. Four of these foreign students are currently studying at Pacific Coast universities.

Mrs. J. B. Bishop was in charge of decorations and appetizers. Used beautifully dressed dolls and flags of many nations on each of the luncheon tables and about the room.

Musical entertainment was presented by Mrs. B. A. Muehlen. She played two piano solos: Improvisation by MacDowell and Impromptu in Ab by A. Schubert.

Mrs. William L. Wales Jr. announced that the Annual Senior Tea for Klamath County High School girl graduates will be given at the home of Mrs. Loren Palmer on May 9 with Mrs. Charles F. Johnson and Mrs. Richard Newman as co-chairmen.

Mrs. O. K. Puckett reported on plans for the AAUW Oregon State Convention which will convene here April 23, 24 and 25, and urged that all members plan to attend.

Mrs. C. B. Larkin announced that the Ashland Conference for Young Adults will be held again this year on the S.O.C.E. campus on March 28.

Mrs. Ralph Stearns and Mrs. Lloyd Boble were program co-chairmen and Mrs. Stearns introduced Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks as special guests. Hicks gave an interesting talk on their recent eight month's tour through Europe and the Middle East. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks traveled some 44,000 miles and visited twenty-two countries before returning to Klamath Falls.
