MALIN GARDEN CLUB MEETING

The Malin Garden Club held its first meeting, since winter vacation, Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 25 at the home of Mrs. Alden Loveness. Co-hostess was Mrs. Loyal Loveness.

Members answered roll call by naming their favorite garden flower. Mrs. Loyal Loveness presided at the meeting, due to the absence of the club president Mrs. Jerry Rainus.

Mrs. Frank Paygr, new program planning chairman, asked for suggestions from the members for the next year's program which starts in June.

Several community projects were discussed but no decision reached although many were of the opinion that some project connected with the Malin Community Park would be fine. The matter will be taken up again at the March meeting.

The Flower Instruction School, which is to be held in Klamath Falls in April was discussed and names listed of those desiring to take the three day course. Dates were read also for the International Garden Show in San Francisco in April and the Garden Tour to Hawaii in May.

Mrs. J. Walter Browning was in charge of the day's program and her subject was "Planning and planting for continuous bloom," which she gave in a delightful poetic manner. Adding interest to her talk was a Scrap Book Scramble, in which a Scrap Book was passed around to twelve of the members who then read excerpts for each month of the year.

Members and guests present were Mrs. Merle Looney, Mrs. Carlo Cornett, Mrs. Harvey Clugston, Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, Mrs. Phil Blohm, Mrs. Frank Paygr, Mrs. Ruddy Kunz, Mrs. Clara Scott, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Bob Dietrick, Mrs. J. W. Browning, Mrs. William C. Dalton, Mrs. Bob Byrne, Mrs. Walter Stastny, Mrs. Loyal Loveness, Mrs. Teresa McComb, Mrs. Joe Halousek, Mrs. Wayne Fink, Mrs. Edwin Stastny and Mrs. H. F. Taut.

After the meeting, refreshments were served and everyone enjoyed viewing the Loveness' beautiful new home, which is built on a high hill overlooking the Malin farming country.

Due to the instruction schools being held in April on the regular meeting date, the April meeting will be held on the 21st, at the home of Mrs. Chester Stonecypher.

AT THE RECEPTION . . . for their wedding guests, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Carl Anderson share the first bite of their huge elaborately decorated cake.

NELSON-ANDERSON NUPTIAL VOWS EXCHANGED ON VALENTINE'S DAY

Klamath Lutheran Church was the scene of a Valentine wedding, Feb. 14, when Eileen Caroline Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Axel F. Nelson, 803 Delta, became the bride of Gordon Carl Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Anderson, Portland.

Pastor Irvin Tweet read the 7 p.m. service before an altar decorated with large arrangements of white snapdragons and stock with red hearts of satin and chenille, illuminated with candlelight.

The bride was a striking picture in a gown of white satin and a long close fitting sleeves of the lace, scalloped sweetheart neckline also of lace; and a full skirt with a court train. And overskirt of lace was "tea-apron" length in front and continued in a longer tapered line to a scalloped point to the lower part of the train.

Her finger tip veil of white net was held with a scalloped crown trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent beads. She carried a stunning Valentine bouquet, heart shaped of lace-edged white satin centered with red roses and pierced with a red chenille arrow.

Maid of honor, Mary Lou Joplin wore a gown of soft green, styled with floor length full skirt of set over satin and with a brief bolero topping the fitted bodice.

The three bridesmaids wore dresses styled exactly as the maid of honor's except for color. Mrs. Allen Klus wore gold; Mrs. Ardean Nelson, soft blue; and Mrs. Virgil Nelson wore soft pink. All carried identical bouquets patterned after the bride's; made to match their dresses. All wore hairbanks of flowers to match their frocks.

Pretty little flower girl, cousin of the bride, Judy Nelson, wore an orchid net over satin floor length dress with matching small heart centered with orchid and white carnations, and a heart shaped bonnet framed her face.

Richard Gilchrist was best man; and ushers were Allen Klus, Ardean Nelson and Virgil Nelson.

Mrs. Nelson wore a dark green suit with brown accessories, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, bridegroom's parents were unable to attend their son's wedding.

The reception was in the church parlors. Joyce Edborg, cousin of the bride, poured coffee; Mrs. Bill Hulton served punch; Mrs. Harvey Martin, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Hubert Vanderhoff cut the cake. Mrs. Axel Jacobson, Mrs. A.

HOBBY SHOW

A hobby show was enjoyed by those attending this month's Parent-Patrons meeting held Tuesday evening at the Malin Grade School Gymnasium.

Hobbies were displayed by both adults and children and included exhibits of ceramics, water and oil paintings, crocheting, dolls, stones, leather tooling, guns, coins, matches, lapidary, arrowheads and conservation maps made by the Junior high students. The show was in charge of Charles Dobry and proved to be quite a success.

A short musical program was presented by Gloria Nandie, who sang "Wee Hughie" and "The Wild Rider." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Eileen Herringshaw.

The sixth grade won room count and refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

MANZANITA CHAPTER 172

Manzanita Chapter 172, OES, honored George Washington at the regular meeting Friday evening, Feb. 20 in the 1007 Hall with Worthy Matron Helen McCormack and Worthy Patron Allen Betsch presiding.

Claris Williams, Worthy Patron of Aloha Chapter 61, OES was escorted to the East and received a hearty welcome.

The hall was appropriately decorated by Worthy Matron Helen McCormack with mock cherry blossoms and one tree bearing the ripened cherries around which a clever addenda was centered providing that "Life is Just a Bowl of Cherries."

Lois Queck, associate Matron and Mother Advisor for the Order of Rainbow for Girls of Klamath Falls introduced Carrie Lee Van Housen, a talented Rainbow Girl, who entertained with a piano solo.

Delicious cherry pies were served after the meeting by the refreshment committee. Mary Jane Shaw, Kathleen Ward, Thelma Creswell and Jean Pucke. The table was decorated with figurines of George Washington and Martha Washington, and a cherry gumdrop tree. The traditional hatchets were in evidence in the decorations about the dining room.

SOJOURNERS

Sojourners, Wednesday afternoon was guest day at the regular Sojourners meeting and brought out many members, their guests and new residents in the city. An enjoyable luncheon was held in the Ponderosa Room of the Willard Hotel followed by a short business meeting. The meeting was then turned over to the hostesses, Mrs. Robert Wood and Mrs. J. M. Heiner, and the afternoon was spent playing bridge, pinocle and canasta. Twelve tables of cards were in play and prizes for high scores were awarded Mrs. H. L. Robertson for bridge, Mrs. Francis Sobber for pinocle and Mrs. Betty for canasta.

Guests included Mary Schmidt, Esther Kay, Ruby Henson, Dagna Raskwood, Mrs. Leola Stever, Vera Jones, Betty Lancaster, Lois McGourty, Mrs. Ralph Schoubert, Mrs. Vesta Creasey, Mrs. Raymond Digger, Mrs. Andrew Loney, Mrs. Francis Sobber, Mrs. Emma Long, Mrs. Troy Cook, Helene Merryman, Mrs. Clint Harvey, Mrs. Charles Tasker, Mrs. Dick Maguire and Mrs. Bertha Moss.

Next meeting will be the afternoon of Wednesday, March 11.

MERRILL HOME EXTENSION UNIT

MERRILL — Chairman Ruby Mitchell presided at a short business meeting of Merrill Home Extension Unit on Feb. 13. The members present took part in planning the program for the coming year.

A check for $10.00 was received from the Potato Festival committee as a prize for the Merrill Unit's display at the exhibits last Fall. Immediately after the business meeting, Ruby Mitchell, project leader, instructed the members in the use of basic tools, such as hammer, saw, screwdriver, etc., and then assisted the members in making their step shelves. Ten shelves were completed.

Members present included Mrs. Warren Fruits, Mrs. Wilbur Haskins, Mrs. Milton Loper, Mrs. Wendell Moore, Mrs. Randall Pope, Mrs. Virgil Rexford, Mrs. Earl Russell, Mrs. M. E. Mitchell, Mrs. Verna Haskins, and Mrs. Leonard Will.

MEMBERS OF THEIR FAMILIES ONLY . . . witnessed the recent exchange of marriage vows uniting Carolyn Ruth Young and Verne Sidney Fleet in the Bethany, Presbyterian Church, Seattle.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell W. Young, Seattle. Her father is the managing director on the Seattle Times.

Verne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Fleet, 1026 Jefferson. The wedding for the young couple was in the Washington Athletic Club.

Both attended Washington State College. Verne will report to the United States Navy.
