Fort Klamath

By MYRTLE WIKER

Mr. and Mrs. William Zumbun have returned home after having visited since mid-December with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, in Porterville, Calif. They attended the Red Bluff show and range bull sale held Feb. 5-7, in which they had two range bulls entered. However, the animals were not sold and were brought back here to the Zumbun ranch, and will be again offered for sale at a future Klamath Falls stock sale.

Al Lewis was released Thursday, Feb. 19, from Klamath Valley hospital in Klamath Falls, where he had undergone surgery the previous Tuesday, another in a series of operations for a leg injury sustained some three years ago in a logging woods accident. Mrs. Lewis has been visiting relatives at Portland and is expected back this coming week.

Edward (Bud) Strong returned Thursday, Feb. 19, from a two-weeks' trip to California points, including Sacramento and San Francisco. He had planned originally to spend the remaining two weeks of his vacation time on a trip north to see his grandmother in Alberta, Canada, but decided to cancel the journey, due to a severe cold contracted while in California.

A. M. Denio, Lakeview, district manager of the West Coast Telephone Co., was a visitor here Friday in connection with business of his company.

Friends here were saddened to hear of the serious illness last Thursday of William K. (Bill) Dyche, and of his subsequent passing at 4 a.m. Friday morning. Bill Dyche was a familiar figure in Fort Klamath during the six year woods operations of the Algoma Lumber Company in his vicinity and he made many friends while here as logging superintendent for the now-extinct Algoma Company. Long time Fort Klamath residents are his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Dyche and son Jim, the latter being due home soon following discharge from two years of service with a paratroop unit of the U. S. Army. To the bereaved widow and members of the family, sympathy is extended by friends who held in high esteem the late Mr. Dyche.

Just recently Mr. and Mrs. Dyche were brought up from their home in Klamath Falls by his brother Tom, and intended to stay for a week's visit; however, Dyche, who had been a sufferer from diabetes and a crippling back injury, for some time past, complained of not feeling well and after staying overnight at his brother's home and his wife were taken back home the next day.

Confined to bed all week with a severe attack of flu, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Looney was no sooner able to be up Saturday than her son George (her assistant at her general merchandise store) came down with it. Win and Dollie Brewster are both able to be around again after being ill with flu, as are members of the Lloyd Nicholson family, to mention some of those recently and currently afflicted with the illness. Chicken pox is evidently under control now, as no new cases have been reported since Mrs. William Brewer and daughter, Darla, contracted the ailment, from which they have now recovered.

Life is full of surprises. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards were the recipients of an amazing bit of news this week when advised by their son-in-law, Kenneth Morris, of Prineville, that he and his wife (the former Ruth Edwards) had become parents of a baby daughter born at 4:15 a.m. Friday, Feb. 20, at Albany, Ore. News that they were again grandfather and step-grandmother came as a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, who had not anticipated a blessed event from the direction in which it came—for daughter Ruth has been married for a matter of some 20 years with nary a chick or child. The news came also as a surprise to longtime friends of the couple here. It is no novelty to Mr. and Mrs. Edwards to become grandparents, as both have grandchildren and Mr. Edwards is in fact a great-grandfather.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas and son Paul spent the Washington birthday weekend on a trip made by pickup to Corning, Calif., where they were to take possession of and bring back with them a valuable piece of antique furniture, an ancient piano, which will be added to Mrs. Thomas' cherished collection of antique furniture at the Thomas home north of here.

BRIDE-ELECT LOUISE PATTERSON . . . was guest of honor at a shower Feb. 24, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Marion Grant, 1705 Eldorado. Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Tom Rose were co-hostesses. Pretty bride-to-be is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patterson, Baker and her fiancé is Dean Hagen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hagen, 3245 Boardman. The wedding date is set for March 8, in the Klamath Lutheran Church.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Bride-elect Louise Patterson was guest of honor at a lovely shower, Feb. 24, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Marion Grant, 1705 Eldorado. Mrs. Tom Rose was co-hostess for the Tuesday evening event.

Louise is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patterson, Baker; and her fiancé, Dean Hagen, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hagen, 3245 Boardman.

The wedding is scheduled for March 8, in the Klamath Lutheran Church. The vivacious guest of honor and Mrs. Duncan McGillivray.

MERRILL LADIES AID

MERRILL—Mrs. Delia Hodges, Mrs. R. M. Wilson, and Mrs. R. E. West were the hostesses for the Feb. 18, meeting of the Presbyterian Church Ladies Aid, at the home of the former.

A $10 donation was made to the Red Cross during the routine business session. A work day will be held Feb. 26, in the church parlors, 2 p.m.

At this time all members are asked to bring their scissors, and assist in making comforters, which will be sold at the rummage sale next fall.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Mrs. Warren Fruits, Mrs. J. L. Haskins, Mrs. Wilbur Haskins, Mrs. Verna Haskins, Mrs. Frank Haskins, Mrs. Dollie Hunnicutt, Mrs. W. P. Jinnette, Mrs. Pete McNeil, Mrs. Miles Moore, Mrs. George Offield, Mrs. Bernice Wilson, and Mrs. R. A. Smith.

Next meeting will be March 18, at the home of Mrs. Bowman; co-hostess, Mrs. Dollie Hunnicutt.

Visitor at the Ben Herrick home last week was Mrs. Edith Clements of Portland. She has been on a trip through the south and mid-west and is on her way home.

Carl Lindberg left Feb. 13 for an extended visit in Pine City, Minn. Before he returns he plans to purchase a new car in Detroit.

The VFW Auxiliary held a regular meeting Feb. 4 with Barbara McKoen, senior vice president in charge. Routine business was discussed and refreshments were served by Joan Trotman and Glena Walker. Others present were Mary Lou Swisher, Katy Merriees, Millie Fotheringham, Ida May Fleck, Marjorie Waldrip, Betty Hodges, Patty Duncan, Betty Wagner, Dean Marks, Grace Walker, and Virginia Liskey.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Trotman, Roger and Velma, drove to Salem over the weekend to visit Mrs. Trotman's mother, Mrs. Emma Fread, and other relatives. Mrs. Roland West was also a passenger and attended a state board meeting of BPW clubs in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Loper left Friday for Olympia, Wash., where they will see their son, Luther, on leave from the USN at Bellingham. They will also visit with Lily Loper in nurses' training there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waldrip of Yuma, Ariz., are visiting friends here. They are former residents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Van Cleave have gone to Moses Lake, Wash., to start construction of their ranch home. They will return here later on business.

Members of the Now or Never Club enjoyed a potluck luncheon and get-together at the Paschall Hodges home last week. Mrs. Tommy Cole, recently returned from the Hawaiian Islands, was a visitor. Her small daughter, Kathy, entertained with a hula dance. Present were Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. Max Harterode, Melissa and Ethel Blake, Gertrude Turner, Mrs. O. J. Harris, Mrs. Don Harris, Mrs. Hugh Falvey, Mrs. William Falvey and Mrs. Dale Walker.

Mrs. Jack Wynant, Mrs. Bruce Owens, Mrs. James Hodges and Mrs. Sherman Waldrip, who comprise the Merrill Ladies Barber-shop Quartet, sang at a benefit show in Alturas Feb. 14. The Klamath Falls Barber-shop chorus, with John Houston as emcee, put on the entire program. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Humphrey and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stewart were other Merrill residents attending.

The 46th annual Firemen's ball held Saturday evening Feb. 21, was enjoyed by a large crowd who danced to the fine music of Morgan and McDonald's orchestra. This is the only fund-raising event of the year and all proceeds go toward purchasing new equipment.

A MIDSUMMER WEDDING . . . is planned by Bernice Micks, whose engagement to Harry Howard, sports director at radio station KIEM, Eureka. She is the daughter of Joseph Micks, Malin; and Mrs. G. J. A. Drawelow, The Dalles; and is now physical education instructor in Eureka Junior High School.

Her fiancé is the son of Tom Howard, Ashshta, Idaho. He is a graduate of the University of Idaho, with a degree in journalism, and is affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon and Sigma Delta Chi fraternities. Prior to joining the KIEM staff he served three years in the navy as a radar technician; and was sports director of KRLC, Lewiston, Idaho.

Bernice is a graduate of St. Helen's Hall, Portland, and attended Oregon State. She is a member of Delta Lambda Beta and Pi Beta Phi sororities.
