

CHANGE NEW YORK (AP)—The weariness of the green-on-many New York City mailboxes is giving way to silver aluminum-painted ones to help letter writers find the boxes in the dark.

Music Brings Back Early Day Echo WASHINGTON (AP)—When the flash on Premier Stalin's death reached radio station WOME last night, the playing of a recorded version of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony had just been started. Instead of interrupting the program, scheduled long in advance, the announcer read the bulletin over the music. The first four notes of Beethoven's Fifth are three shorts and a long (...), the same as the Morse code pattern for "V." In World War II, they were widely used by resistance forces in Europe as a symbol for victory.

Drum Defender Group Victor

CAMP DRUM, N. Y. (AP)—Defender troops have beaten off for the second time—aggressor forces using make-believe atomic artillery in winter war games here. The 82nd Airborne Division's 500th Regimental Combat Team was awarded the victory yesterday after completion of the second three-day tactical problem in Exercise Snow Storm. The losers—the 278th Regimental Combat Team from Ft. Devens, Mass.—were routed last week by the 82nd Division's 325th Combat Team in the opening problem. The 278th, pressing an "invasion" from Canada, exploded a simulated atomic shell that inflicted uncounted "casualties" on counterattacking defender troops. Despite the explosion, the defenders captured high ground and sealed off the aggressor troops' escape route. Some 82nd troops who have completed winter training headed yesterday for their base at Ft. Bragg, N. C. A convoy of 2,882 men of the 325th Combat Team left in 502 vehicles.

County Speech Festival Under Way; Henley Plays Host To Groups Today

CHILCOQUIN—The annual "B" school county speech festivals are under way. Henley plays host to the junior high group today and next Tuesday the senior high students speak at Merrill. Chilcoquin is the defending champion for the junior high section and shares that honor with Bonanza in the senior high division. Chilcoquin has had an exceptionally large turnout this year, both of students and in coaches. Joseph Mercer, Principal and upper-class English teacher, James Huff, English teacher, and Mrs. Frank Bell are all coaching. Mrs. Frank Bell is selecting students to compete for junior high school English teachers. Margaret Molitor and Mary Dacey are coaching. Representing the upper 3 grades in impromptu speaking will be Bill Vaden and in extemporaneous, Carrol Wilson. Trying out for humorous are Janice Kendall and Donna Hobbs, both 4 point winners in humorous from past years; for oratory are Kay Heglund and Jackie Schroeder, each of whom has compiled her own material and written her own speech. Those in the poetry interpretation section are Susan Ravizza, Frieda Kirk, Sharon Parazo, Louise Gauthier and Sue Seasholtz. Kay Heglund and Margaret Lee Greaser are competing in story telling. Betty Porter and Twila Knishipine in after-dinner speaking. Those working in the radio section are Jerold Oates, Donald Anderson, David Kircher and Ronald Leggett. In panel discussion are Gene Greiner, Sharon Parazo, and David Kircher. The special speech from Chilcoquin this year will be to introduce the story telling. Trying out are Glen Hecock, Linda Pope, Susan Ravizza, Jackie Schroeder, Frieda Kirk, Sharon Parazo, Sharon Zedine, Margaret Greaser, and Donna Hobbs. Tryouts will be completed today for the county contest en-

Replaying Stage Flickers Gives

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Do actors who re-create their stage roles have an unfair advantage in Oscar races? Vivien Leigh thinks so. The famed English actress last year won her second Academy Award—for playing Blanche DuBois in "A Streetcar Named Desire."

Phony Wire Charge Filed

SEATTLE (AP)—A furniture salesman accused of sending a false telegram in connection with the Wilson brothers hanging Jan 2 was indicted by a federal grand jury Thursday on charges of impersonating a federal officer. Thomas E. Thomas, 43, Seattle, was named in the indictment. The government charged Thomas sent a telegram signed "Warren D. Magnuson" to the Washington State prison the night Utah and Turnham Wilson were to hang for the 1960 slaying of Jo Ann Dewey near Vancouver, Wash. The telegram arrived too late to save the brothers and caused a flurry of excitement until it was discovered to be a hoax. Prison officials said they assumed at first the wire was sent by Washington Sen. Warren G. Magnuson.

Most Wanted Man Captured

BOSTON (AP)—Percie Miller, 31, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted fugitives, was arraigned before a U. S. commissioner today following his capture last night in Somersworth, N. H. Miller had been sought since 1948, when the FBI said he was in a guard's head and led a flight from a Vaneoy County, N. C. prison camp. Four carloads of FBI agents, accompanied by local policemen, took Miller into custody after he surrounded a Somersworth, N. H., address where Miller was living with an unidentified girl friend. Miller offered no resistance when FBI agents broke into the house. The girl was not held. The FBI put Miller on its list of 10 most wanted men only Wednesday and hundreds of posters were distributed asking for information about his whereabouts. Local police said Miller had changed his appearance so much by having his hair dyed that it would have been hard to recognize him from the FBI posters.

OFB Board Member Collapses, Dies

SALEM (AP)—A. L. McClintock, 76, Pendleton, board member of the Oregon Farm Bureau, collapsed and died at a Salem hotel Thursday night. McClintock had arrived in Salem a few hours earlier in preparation for a meeting of Farm Bureau officials with legislators Friday. McClintock represented Umatilla, Grant and Morrow Counties on the Farm Bureau board. Charles C. Edwards, Marion County deputy coroner, said he was not certain whether an autopsy would be held. He said a seizure apparently was to blame for the death.
