

Shrine Club Crab Feed

and Dance
January 28

MR. AND MRS. GASS MURDOCK, left, with Leland Shrine Eugene Favall, Mrs. Favall and a "beep" of Coos Bay crab, part of the wide assortment of food.

URGE MASON, left, has Clarence Ward a little optical as to "what's happening" to the Olympia oyster stew.

PAUL HILTON and his charming wife, as they arrived at the Armory last Saturday night for the "plush" crab feed.

CUSTOM BUILT SHIRTS . . . caused much comment; three are modeled above. "Stew" Balsiger in a gay striped one, made by his wife; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller in a couple of beauties hand embroidered by Mrs. Miller.

"AW COME ON . . . ONE MORE BITE!" . . . Gus Vlahos urges Mrs. Ray Beeber, with Mrs. Vlahos and Ray Beeber looking on.

"HOW ARE HERE, CHARLIE" . . . says Don Hanley to Charles W. Thomas.

"IT'S NOT EITHER MY FOURTH HELPING!" . . . Mrs. Bruce Walsh looks on as she's teased by her husband, left, and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Walsh.
