SOROPTIMIST CLUB ENTERTAINS NORTHWEST REGIONAL GOVERNOR

Northwest Regional Governor of Soroptimist Clubs, Lily Quarnberg, was guest of honor at a dinner given by the local club in the Pelican Cafe Party Room Wednesday night. The tables were gay with St. Patrick's decorations.

Two solos were sung by Pete Armen accompanied by Eloise McIntyre.

Mrs. Quarnberg gave a most interesting talk which was an inspiration to all members. She spoke of the growth of Soroptimist Clubs and the service they are giving to their various communities and their countries.

The regular business meeting was also held and the members were asked to help with the Americanization program Thursday at the Court House to welcome the new citizens.

A letter was read from the sister club at Brighton Hove, England, thanking the club for their Christmas gifts.

Juanita O'Hair spoke of the coming drive to raise money for the cancer fund and asked the members to participate in the chain of coffee parties to be given for this cause.

It was voted to send $25 to the Holland Federation of Soroptimist Clubs to be used to help flood victims.

An invitation was extended to members to attend the spring conference of Venture Clubs in Vancouver, B.C., April 12.

Mary Vandenberg and Josephine Reginald, members of the Venture Club, were guests of the evening.

Ruth Adams entertained at a breakfast party Thursday morning for Mrs. Quarnberg who was her houseguest while here. Members of the club were the invited guests.

Those attending were Kathy's little brother, Larry; Linda Buekoup, Cheryl and Susan Baldwin, Rose Marie Molling, Susan Weddie, Tony DiUlio, Dennis Potter, Dennis Echlin, Renny Gauthier, Donna Kircher, Janet Hall, Jimmy Lynn Doak and Steven Huff. From Klamath Agency were Allan Mezger and Molly and Bobby Wilcox.

Invited but unable to attend due to illness or being out of town, were Phyllis Bickers, Sandra Taylor, Charles Spicer, Karen Huff, Denise Deffenbacher, Candace Freid, and Micki Jo Wolff.

Mothers who came to watch all the fun were Mrs. Bob Mezger, Mrs. Earl Wilcox, Mrs. Elly Echlin, and Mrs. Ray Baldwin.
