Several local people attended the potluck dinner and afternoon meeting at the New Pine Creek Church, Sunday. They reported a good crowd in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bradley were dinner guests Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cornett of Prineville, were visiting last weekend with their son and daughter-in-law and family at the Elgin Cornett ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vernon have been sick for several days, when the flu bug struck at their home. Mrs. Clara Baxter has been helping out each forenoon while Betty is out feeding the stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McGuffin (recent newlyweds) of Arbuckle, Calif., arrived Saturday evening to visit over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McGuffin. Clifford and his bride, the former Miss Jean Roberts, of Arbuckle were united in marriage Friday in Woodland. They planned to return home the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woods of Lakeview were also visiting at the McGuffin home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Merle O'Neill to Klamath Falls Monday of last week.

The Rev. and Mrs. Lewis York and son of Lakeview, and the Rev. Paul J. Lambert of Kansas were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cogburn Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Powell of Tulare were calling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Harzog Saturday.

There was only a small group who turned out to vote at the school election Friday; however it was unanimously carried to give the local schoolhouse to Lake County to use at the fairgrounds.

Mrs. Helen Lindeum and Mrs. Helen Bradley made a trip to Klamath Falls Thursday where they attended the Sororist Club, returning home that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle O'Neill visited Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Buck in the Vernon district, and were also dinner guests.

Little Nancy Richardson, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson, has been visiting with her grandparents for several days. She accompanied her uncle Edward home Friday as he and several other boys from Lakeview attended the parliamentary game at Bend. The Lakeview team won first and is planning to compete at the state game in Corvallis next month.

The Rev. and Mrs. Lewis York and son and the Rev. Paul J. Lambert, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bailey of Davis, Calif., visited old friends at

Library Club To See KUHS Play At Little Theater

The Klamath Falls Library Club will meet in the Little Theater at the High School Monday, March 9 at 2 p.m. A cast from the KUHS Dramatic Department directed by Mrs. B. B. Blomquist will present the play "The Day of the Road." The Rev. DeWayne L. Proett will sing two numbers before the play and one number following the play. Tea will be served in the Little Theater at the close of the program.

All members and guests are welcome to attend this meeting.

Chiloquin

By DARLENE WOLFF

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Polts returned recently from a month's motor vacation spent in the southwestern part of the U.S. and south of the border. They traveled down the west coast of Mexico about 300 miles and then crossed the peninsula to return to the states. They had planned to continue on to Texas but severe dust storms which raged for a week changed their plans and they chose a more westerly route. Polts is again on the job for Bonneville Administration, living in Chiloquin but working out of the Klamath Falls office.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hobbs spent last weekend in Eugene visiting with his brother and family, the Everett Hobbs. Mrs. Hobbs went up after school Friday and was joined by her husband Saturday. They reported terribly slick roads for the weekend chosen for their visit.

A new substitute for the local faculty was put on the record this week. Mrs. Paul Herron will be available, in addition to Mrs. Melvin Ray and Mrs. Gerald Wolff. Monday, all three substitutes were called, as Mrs. Henry Spicer, Mrs. Lea Hoback and Mrs. A. A. Montgomery were all on the sick list. Mrs. Herron is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, where she has also done graduate work and some teaching. Locally she is den mother for a group of Cub Scouts and teachers study groups for both the Chiloquin and Port Klamath Methodist women's societies.

Elida DeBortoli, who sang as a soloist when the Barbershop chorus from Klamath Falls presented a benefit performance in Alturas, has been asked to sing at a banquet in Klamath Falls during the month of March and received an invitation from the Barbershoppers to attend the Afterglow at the Willard Hotel, which will follow their parade of quartets at the Pelican Theater on April 11. Miss DeBortoli sang last week at a wedding in Merrill and manages to keep busy most of her hours away from the telephone company with her music. She studied at the University of Oregon.

The High School had a very unusual performer last week when Snow Allen, who had spent 15 years in the Illinois State prison told the students about his experiences there and of the debt he knows now that we all owe to society. An elderly man, Allen proved to be a capable speaker. He was sponsored by the National School Assemblies. The next scheduled program by the NSA will be Tuesday, March 10, when Franklin K. Biery, an organist, gives a recital.

Mrs. William Blair of Kennick, Wash., was a houseguest of her sister, a brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bickers, at their Modoc Point ranch last week. Mrs. Bickers went with her sister to Grants, Pass and spent two days visiting there at the home of her niece, Mrs. Blair's daughter.

Mrs. Dwight Kircher will be hostess this Thursday at the March meeting of Home Extension, from 10:30-2:30. Extension Agent at Large, Louise Hannah, will speak on "Understanding Yourself." Everyone invited.

The State Farm Bureau secretary Alma Schroeder, of Salem met with the county and center Farm Bureau secretaries, and Mrs. Hardy, also of Salem, met with several ladies from different centers. Mrs. Hardy is the state president of the women's auxiliary of the Farm Bureau. A most interesting discussion was held, and a lovely dinner served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Neill and family had at their Sunday evening dinner guests the following friends: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph "Pat" Patrice and sons of Lakeview, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kelso and girls of this district.

Mrs. Helen Bradley, local piano and accordion teacher, held an accordion band practice at the home of Mrs. Raymond Fisher Saturday afternoon for all the participating pupils.

MR. AND MRS. MARVIN NEWELL married Jan. 18 in a pretty informal ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Esther G. Newell on the Lakeview Highway. The bride is the former Betty Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander, Midland.

Fireplace is Background For Pretty Wedding at Newell Home

In a pretty, informal ceremony, Sunday, Jan. 18, Betty Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander of Midland, became the bride of Marvin Newell. Marvin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Esther Newell of the Lakeview Highway.

The double-ring service was read at 2 p.m. by the Rev. Galen Onstad before the fireplace in the living room of the Newell home. Pink and white snapdragons and lighted white tapers in candelabra formed an attractive background for the wedding party.

For her wedding the bride chose a white knit frock with white hat and accessories. She carried an arrangement of pink rosebuds in a frill of pink net.

Eva Alexander, sister of the bride was her only attendant. Her tan suit was worn with navy accessories and she carried an arrangement of pink and white carnations.

Best man was Dean Wells. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Alexander chose a rose afternoon dress with brown accessories and a gardenia for her shoulder.

Mrs. Newell wore a tan afternoon dress, brown accessories and gardenias.

A small reception for the thirty guests followed the ceremony. Pouring at the coffee urn was Olga Strunk. Marian Newell, sister of the bridegroom served the pretty two-tiered white cake after the bride and bridegroom cut the first piece.

For traveling, the bride wore her wedding suit with a lavender orchid at her shoulder.

The bridegroom has been recently discharged from the infantry after spending 11 months in Korea. Mr. and Mrs. Newell are graduates of the Henley high school. They will live in Poe Valley where Mr. Newell will farm.

Putting into practice part of the training of Camp Fire Girls Incorporated, the "Chesekmay" (all friends) group of 4th graders at Mills school, under the leadership of Mrs. H. J. Kelley, gave a potluck supper, (food prepared by the girls) at the home of Mrs. Gail Osborn, Feb. 23.

The regular business meeting followed the supper, and the proper procedure of conducting a "social" event finished off the evening.

Group members present were: Joylene Georges, Barbara Austin, Joyce Dotson, Susan Gedney, Gayle Osborn, Diane Hill, Judy Rae Gregory, Letha Brown, Danna Alexander, Carolyn Osborn (Blue Bird) and Marcia Kelley (Mascot).

Fort Rock

By ROBERTA MCGEE

Monday afternoon, March 2, Fort Rock was a busy place, while the county road crew moved in bag and baggage with their equipment. It was a happy sight indeed, as the roads here are really in bad shape, with miniature fox holes and washouts.

The Saturday night dance was very well attended. Besides Butch's Gown playing for the dance there were guest musicians who played during the evening.

There will be another dance March 31. Butch's Gown will furnish the music again that night.

Ralph Webber hurt his hand last week while helping Charles Joyce with his well drilling at the D. I. McGee Excavation. He crushed his thumb and is receiving medical treatment. Ralph will be home from work for about three more weeks.

The mill started up again Monday, after being down for over a week with well and pond troubles. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wilson, parents of Delbert Wilson, returned to their home at Newberg this weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wilson were here at the Poplar Ranch for about three months helping Bud Parks feed while Delbert worked in the mill.

Roger Miles was on the sick list last week with flu and tonsil troubles.

Bob Morehouse arrived Saturday, Feb. 28, to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse. Bob made the trip alone as little Bobbie Lee and Tommy were on the sick list. Bob returned to Glen Dale, Ore., Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morehouse were in Lakeview Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Sam Morehouse's son, Kenyon Morehouse of Medford, is here and will help out on the Roy Morehouse ranch.

Guy Merritt moved his trailer house back to Summer Lake last Sunday.

Mrs. Dudley E. Long left Feb. 26 for Beaumont, Calif., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown, and will stay until her father is feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGee were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kellum in Klamath Falls Feb. 23.

Burton Brown and Dudley Long have returned from Portland with a new LTL Mack lumber truck.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT JOHNSON announce the engagement of their attractive daughter, to James E. (Jim) Carter, son of Dr. and Mrs. Carter, 5128 S. 6th. Jim is in the U.S. Navy, Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif., as a dental. No date has been set for the wedding.

Chemult

By VIRGINIA TAYLOR

Moving to Delta, Calif., the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gowing. Gowing has been employed as signal maintainer for the Southern Pacific in Chemult the past five years. Robert Hands of Klamath Falls is relieving him until the job is permanently filled.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bell were recent visitors in Chemult. They are now living in Los Vegas, Nev. and were former Chemultites. Bell was the past owner and operator of The Midway.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jessup and children motored to the Bay area over the past three day holiday and visited with Mrs. Jessup's father, George H. Talbot of San Leandro, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. George Talbot Jr. of Alameda. Mrs. Jessup also visited her high school chum, Mrs. Gwen Knopes and children and Mrs. Heslie Melton of Oakland.

Undergoing minor surgery, Friday, Feb. 27, were Sharon and Pat O'Brien. They were hospitalized overnight and returned home Saturday. Both had tonsillectomies.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Darnell, owner and operator of the Singing Pines Motel, are vacationing in Walla Walla, Wash. Mr. Darnell
