

NEWS

Joseph Stalin, M. Malenkov, Khrushchev today to mean the "new forces," but foreign policy is in the VELVET by's words, this kind of peace: three men, living in the same way, within the same of others, THE SLAVE, peace does mind to offer world that still wearest approach empire left by Mongol empire Khan—which graphic boundaries with what we now behind the Iron Russia and her came to the end as Stalin did. empire in the statesman — who was an able administrator. He affairs of the Mon- the death of overed the barbaric easterners, and saved and states and and science from archives and when he was ac-

minister of corruption was found to con-

and a few mus-

of time—

of Jenghis, one came on the scene.

of the old sav-

created an empire

over much of what

Mongol empire of

of skulls were ular fancies. After city and putting its sword, he built a much time admir-

he died, he left be-but horror, ruin and aries.

you see, can NEVER

long as despots rule

munism, as founded perfection by Stalin,

when the empire of unism (which is the lineal descendant

empire of Jenghis

ing its pilot, what shall we say?

over Cromwell to his good:

trust in God, my boys,

YOUR POWDER

sure of this:

to have peace, we

EPARED to fight for lesson for us in the nghis Khan and his

They never extended

er what we now call pe.

was because Western strong enough that are to tackle it.

Case

Worker

old casual worker is

Lake County Jail at two charges result-

admitted intimacies

to stepdaughters, aged identified by State Pord Glenn Fisher, who

and around Lakeview

years.

charged on one count

and on the other with to the delinquency of a preliminary hearing

ew Justice Court and

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

Stalin Joins Lenin In Moscow Tomb

By EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW (AP) — They laid the body of Joseph Stalin beside Lenin in Monday.

So now the two great figures of the Russian Revolution — of the 10 days that shook the world — lie side by side in the big marble tomb in old Red Square.

Chou En-Lai, the Chinese premier and foreign minister, and party and state leaders from Eastern European and other countries were there, too.

And the Moscow diplomatic corps was there representing their governments or the leaders of their governments.

I stand shivering in Red Square beside the tomb.

The troops in long gray overcoats stand motionless on the cold cobblestones.

A 75-piece band is just before the tomb. It is silent.

Thousand of civilians looking toward the tomb of the dead leader are in the square.

Another 10,000 people are in the stands where I am standing — stamping, stamping, stamping to keep our feet from freezing.

RAW, GUSTY

The temperature is down to 12 degrees. It is raw and gusty.

It is difficult to say exactly how many people are in Red Square, but it seems impossible to squeeze in even one more. Count them by the tens of thousands.

It is 10:38 a.m. Moscow time. Long black cars roll out of the Kremlin and head toward the Hall of Columns.

Everything is still, very silent. The great, gilded clock on the Spassky Towers chimes every 45 minutes. At its first note, a military guard before the tomb

Beginning at the beginning, here is the way Stalin's funeral went. Georgi Malenkov and other top men of the party and government gathered early at the Hall of Columns where the dead leader's body has been lying in state since Friday.

Chou En-Lai, the Chinese premier and foreign minister, and party and state leaders from Eastern European and other countries were there, too.

And the Moscow diplomatic corps was there representing their governments or the leaders of their governments.

I stand shivering in Red Square beside the tomb.

The troops in long gray overcoats stand motionless on the cold cobblestones.

A 75-piece band is just before the tomb. It is silent.

Thousand of civilians looking toward the tomb of the dead leader are in the square.

Another 10,000 people are in the stands where I am standing — stamping, stamping, stamping to keep our feet from freezing.

RAW, GUSTY

The temperature is down to 12 degrees. It is raw and gusty.

It is difficult to say exactly how many people are in Red Square, but it seems impossible to squeeze in even one more. Count them by the tens of thousands.

It is 10:38 a.m. Moscow time. Long black cars roll out of the Kremlin and head toward the Hall of Columns.

Everything is still, very silent. The great, gilded clock on the Spassky Towers chimes every 45 minutes. At its first note, a military guard before the tomb

Beginning at the beginning, here is the way Stalin's funeral went. Georgi Malenkov and other top men of the party and government gathered early at the Hall of Columns where the dead leader's body has been lying in state since Friday.

Chou En-Lai, the Chinese premier and foreign minister, and party and state leaders from Eastern European and other countries were there, too.

-BULLETIN- FIRE, EXPLOSIONS

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — Wind-fanned flames roared along the Wilmington waterfront Monday and ate their way toward the city's business district.

Firemen concentrated on halting the fire's spread as explosions rocked this port city of 45,000. First estimates indicated the damage would run into millions of dollars.

Firemen concentrated on halting the fire's spread as explosions rocked this port city of 45,000. First estimates indicated the damage would run into millions of dollars.

Dulles Sees Death Aiding Peace Hope

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said Monday the death of Stalin had increased the world's chance for peace.

Dulles, in his first news conference at the U. N. since becoming Secretary of State, said Stalin's death, however, would not bring any changes in U. S. policy.

He said the U. S. would continue to follow the course it has in the cold war, but that, with Stalin dead, that course would have more chance of success.

He told a group of correspondents representing countries from all over the world that Stalin had put a damper on man's aspirations for peace.

Stalin, he said, was a man who would have the prestige to do so as an effective.

Dulles said the death of Stalin had removed a very serious obstacle to the realization of the peaceful aims set forth in the U. N. charter and those countries supporting these aims could now achieve success and greater realization of U. N. aims. These views were given in response to questions.

Another 10,000 people are in the stands where I am standing — stamping, stamping, stamping to keep our feet from freezing.

RAW, GUSTY

The temperature is down to 12 degrees. It is raw and gusty.

It is difficult to say exactly how many people are in Red Square, but it seems impossible to squeeze in even one more. Count them by the tens of thousands.

It is 10:38 a.m. Moscow time. Long black cars roll out of the Kremlin and head toward the Hall of Columns.

Everything is still, very silent. The great, gilded clock on the Spassky Towers chimes every 45 minutes. At its first note, a military guard before the tomb

Beginning at the beginning, here is the way Stalin's funeral went. Georgi Malenkov and other top men of the party and government gathered early at the Hall of Columns where the dead leader's body has been lying in state since Friday.

Chou En-Lai, the Chinese premier and foreign minister, and party and state leaders from Eastern European and other countries were there, too.

And the Moscow diplomatic corps was there representing their governments or the leaders of their governments.

I stand shivering in Red Square beside the tomb.

The troops in long gray overcoats stand motionless on the cold cobblestones.

A 75-piece band is just before the tomb. It is silent.

Thousand of civilians looking toward the tomb of the dead leader are in the square.

Another 10,000 people are in the stands where I am standing — stamping, stamping, stamping to keep our feet from freezing.

RAW, GUSTY

The temperature is down to 12 degrees. It is raw and gusty.

It is difficult to say exactly how many people are in Red Square, but it seems impossible to squeeze in even one more. Count them by the tens of thousands.

It is 10:38 a.m. Moscow time. Long black cars roll out of the Kremlin and head toward the Hall of Columns.

Everything is still, very silent. The great, gilded clock on the Spassky Towers chimes every 45 minutes. At its first note, a military guard before the tomb

Beginning at the beginning, here is the way Stalin's funeral went. Georgi Malenkov and other top men of the party and government gathered early at the Hall of Columns where the dead leader's body has been lying in state since Friday.

Chou En-Lai, the Chinese premier and foreign minister, and party and state leaders from Eastern European and other countries were there, too.

And the Moscow diplomatic corps was there representing their governments or the leaders of their governments.

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

CHILQUIN YELL-GIRLS whoop it up after the Panthers won the Dist. 5-B cage title and a trip to the state tournament with a win over Jacksonville Saturday night. Left to right, the girls are Susie Ravizza and Donna Hobbs. (Story in sports section).

Sex Slayer Strikes In New York

SPRING VALLEY, N. Y. (AP) — Searching parties combed the leafy, wooded grounds of a children's school here Monday hunting clues in the sex killing of two little girls, 5 and 8 years old.

The youngsters' bodies were found late Sunday in the snow-blanketed, woodland area behind the huge institution for underprivileged children.

"The situation looks very bad," said Ramapo Police Chief Abe Stern. "We haven't found anything yet. This was definitely the deed of a sex maniac."

One girl had been stabbed; the other had received a savage blow at the back of the head. A doctor said there was evidence that both had been the victims of sex attacks.

NO ESCAPES

Authorities checked a number of state mental institutions in the general area, but there was no report that any inmate had escaped.

The slain children were Marjorie Boudreau, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boudreau, of Staten Island, New York City, and Esther Nagay, 5, whose father, Brown Nagay, is a plumber and lives in the Bronx. He is a widower.

Nagay, at his home, was overcome by grief, neighbors said. Newsmen he had sent Esther to the school—The Lakeside School, maintained and operated by The Edwin Gould Foundation for Children—because he feared she would be injured while playing in the city's streets.

Staten Island police notified Deane, a bulldozer operator, and his wife, Police said the Boudreaus had several children and that Boudreau currently is free in State prison on a charge of threatening the wife with a rifle last Feb. 23.

Marjorie and Esther were reported last seen after a number of small playmates, not identified, who said she was playing with the girls on the playground.

When Marjorie and Esther failed to return after a half hour, teachers and the older boys at the school organized a searching party and started into the woods around the institution.

BLOODHOUNDS

Ramapo Township police, state police, and firemen, aided by bloodhounds, later joined the hunt.

About 5:30 p.m. Marjorie's body was found by students in the woods just off a side road. The spot is about a half mile from the school.

Marjorie's skull was fractured. Police said she apparently had been struck with a rock.

Six hours later, volunteer firemen came upon Esther's body about 300 yards in the woods from the spot where Marjorie was found. Esther had been stabbed in the back. No weapon was found.

Dr. M. J. Moses, Rockland County coroner, who examined the two bodies, said early today he found evidence of sodomy in both cases.

Ramapo Township Police Chief Abe Stern said an autopsy would be performed today at Rockland State Hospital.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

AN EX-NATIONAL OFFICER

and state officers gathered at the Willard Hotel (upper) to attend the 39th annual state conference of the Oregon State Society, Daughters of the American Revolution here this week. (I to r standing) Mrs. Wayne Dawson, state regent; Mrs. Howard P. Arnest, ex-national vice president general; Mrs. Claude G. Stotts, (seated rear) state recording secretary; Mrs. Allan E. McLean, state regent and Mrs. Albert H. Powers, state first vice regent. Left, Mrs. William Dawson Foster, Eulalona Chapter, Klamath Falls, conference chairman and Mrs. Allan E. McLean, state regent.

When Marjorie and Esther failed to return after a half hour, teachers and the older boys at the school organized a searching party and started into the woods around the institution.

BLOODHOUNDS

Ramapo Township police, state police, and firemen, aided by bloodhounds, later joined the hunt.

About 5:30 p.m. Marjorie's body was found by students in the woods just off a side road. The spot is about a half mile from the school.

Marjorie's skull was fractured. Police said she apparently had been struck with a rock.

Six hours later, volunteer firemen came upon Esther's body about 300 yards in the woods from the spot where Marjorie was found. Esther had been stabbed in the back. No weapon was found.

Dr. M. J. Moses, Rockland County coroner, who examined the two bodies, said early today he found evidence of sodomy in both cases.

Ramapo Township Police Chief Abe Stern said an autopsy would be performed today at Rockland State Hospital.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.

Spring Valley is in Rockland County about 25 miles north of New York City.