

Walrath To Head KF VFW

Godfrey Set For B'Cast

Bottle Used In Slugging

Keith Walrath was elected commander of VFW Post 1383 at the meeting held the evening of March 19. Other officers named were R. J. Jones, senior vice commander; James C. Collier, junior vice commander; J. N. Brochtrup, quartermaster; B. F. Henke, post advocate; A. J. Killoch, chaplain; P. J. Jones, surgeon, and Frank Cochran, trustee for three year term.

Installation of the new officers will be held at a joint installation of the Post and Auxiliary officers, Thursday evening, April 2, in VFW Hall. Supper, served by the ladies of the Auxiliary, will precede the business meeting.

No reservations are necessary for the annual post crew feed for members and guests to be held Saturday, March 28, 9 to 10 p.m., in VFW Hall. Dancing will follow.

During the program, listeners will hear a simulated full-scale continental "attack" by Air Force planes, sweeping down from the Arctic Circle and following probable enemy routes. Reporters and microphones will be on board for the "bomb runs" over key "target" cities and in ground installations in Canada and the U. S.

To help drive home to America a dramatic, informative report on preparations and needs for handling atomic disaster, one of CBS Radio's top personalities, Arthur Godfrey, will narrate the full hour broadcast "Bomb Target—USA" tonight at 8:30 over KFLW.

The program, which is a special presentation of CBS Radio's Department of Public Affairs, will feature Godfrey as narrator and anchor man on the many and intricate switches scheduled for crucial points throughout the nation.

One of the highlights of the program will be a "first," a network broadcast from a top secret "brain center-control point," which is being held in readiness as Emergency Headquarters in the event of a real enemy attack.

Lester W. Peterson, 48, was treated at Klamath Valley Hospital Saturday night for head cuts after he was reportedly struck by a wine bottle swung by Earl Shambou, 66.

Both are residents of the Avalon Rooms, where the fight took place. Shambou told City Police Peterson came up to his room and threatened to whip him. He said he knew he was no match for the younger man, so picked up a wine bottle and clouted Peterson on the head.

Peterson suffered a cut on the back of his head and another one on his temple. He was taken to the hospital by Kaler's ambulance, he hospital by Kaler's ambulance, and was released yesterday.

Shambou was arrested on a drunk charge, but City Police said this morning Peterson would not press charges.
