9158 SIZES 12—20
by Marian Martin

Take the freshest cotton you can find, ice with frosting of white—you have fashion's newest recipe for flattery. And oh, how cool and happy you'll look on those warm days coming up. The bodice is brief; the waist — a cinch; the skirt—a graceful flare.

Pattern 9158: Misses' Sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16 takes 3⅞ yards 36-inch; ½ yard contrast.

This easy-to-use pattern gives perfect fit. Complete, illustrated Sew Chart shows you every step.

Send thirty-five cents in coins for this pattern—add 5 cents for each pattern if you wish 1st-class mailing. Send to Marian Martin, care of Herald and News, Pattern Dept., P.O. Box 6740, Chicago 80, Ill. Print your name, address zone, size, style number.

QUEEN'S PIPER — Alexander Roderick MacDonald, of Kettins, Scotland, dresses in his full regalia of the Royal Stuart tartan, when he plays the bagpipes for Queen Elizabeth II. He plays for her on the grounds of Buckingham Palace every morning, and also at royal banquets. MacDonald's medals attest to his more than 20 years of service in the British Army.

Demos To Talk Fund Raising

WASHINGTON (P) — The Democratic National Committee's Executive Committee will discuss fund-raising and organization at a two-day meeting beginning here March 31.

Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell also is to report on reorganization of the national group, effected since the November election.

Mitchell said he had appointed three national committee members as members-at-large of the executive committee — Mrs. Lillian Burton, Oregon; James Smith, Alabama, and Paul Butler, Indiana.

HOSTESS

WASHINGTON (P)—Mrs. Robert A. Taft, who might have been first lady if the political winds had blown differently, is hostess today at a big party in honor of Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Sen. Taft will be on hand to greet the President, Mrs. Eisenhower and other guests.

It is the first major entertainment by the Tafts since Mrs. Taft suffered a stroke about three years ago, from which she has not yet fully recovered.

67 Klamath Project Lease Tracts Lets For Season

The Bureau of Reclamation today announced award of agricultural leases on 67 tracts of public land on the Klamath project for the balance of 1953 (one farming season), based on bids opened March 18.

There were 118 bidders, and nearly all of them exercised their privilege of bidding on three lots. Each bidder was limited to receiving only one lot, and the awards were made on the basis of the maximum dollar return to the government.

Total rentals for the some 8,100 acres of land was $272,417.27, an average of $4,065.93 per lot and of $36.37 an acre.

The following were the successful bidders:

Weeks Budget Figure Cut

NEW YORK (P) — The New York Times reported Wednesday that Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks has revised the Truman administration's budget estimate for his department downward by 169 million dollars.

The Times, in a story from Washington by Charles E. Egan, said most of the 15 per cent cut proposed by Weeks is at the expense of the Maritime and Civil Aeronautics Administrations.

Egan wrote that, according to information available Tuesday, Weeks revised the Truman budget downward in estimates submitted to a House of Representatives appropriations subcommittee behind closed doors last week.

The Times story carried these additional details:

A request for 231 millions by the Maritime Administration has been slashed by 80 millions. The CAA's request for 300 millions has been scaled down by 60 millions.

Public roads appropriations account for the bulk of the remaining 29 millions in reductions.

The maritime and aeronautics reductions, it was said, represent in most part the deferment to the 1955 fiscal year of appropriations for completion of airfields and maritime facilities that would not be spent during the fiscal year of 1954, beginning next June 30.

102-Year-Old To Give Bride Away

BELMONT, Mass. (P) — With a pretty girl 77 years his junior on his arm, Charles W. Thiery, 102-year-old bachelor, will walk down a church middle aisle in a wedding ceremony Saturday.

No, he is not going to be married.

The girl is his grandniece, Miss Joan Batchelder, and he will give her away in marriage at the Harvard-Epworth Church, Cambridge.

The girl's mother is widowed and her three brothers are away in the armed forces, so Thiery will do the honors.

Miss Batchelder will be the bride of Donald E. Keyt, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Keyt of Indianapolis, Ind.

Asked if he was nervous about the duty he is to perform, Thiery said: "I don't see why I should be. I used to be a military man."
