

Military, Economic Tent By French As Visit Capitol

Gene Mayer, director of top military planning in the Washington military establishment, carried out a mission of victory in his battle to secure approval of the proposed defense force in his talks with Secretary of State Dulles last January. The U. S. expected concrete and visible signs of such progress this spring.

Under the compromise, France agreed to state her conditions for approval as a part of her "instructions" to the proposed army leadership. Previously she had insisted that they be adopted as protocols to the European Defense Community Treaty, which she signed here last year along with West Germany, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Your National Guard, originally "militia," took its present name to honor Lafayette, French Garde Nationale chief.

Reuther In Lead For CIO Leader

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—It was a far cry from other days today when Walter Reuther and his three top aides in the CIO United Auto Workers faced only token opposition if any — in their bids for re-election.

As the auto workers international convention went into its fourth day the only question about the re-election of the four head men appeared to be whether the feeble Reuther opposition would put up a candidate to force a three-hour roll call and prevent their choice by acclamation.

The 45-year-old Reuther, now seeking his fifth term as president, was first elected here in 1946. His then-powerful opposition, however, won all the other three offices.

Consolidating his position, Reuther was able to carry his hand-picked slate of Emil Mazey for secretary-treasurer and Richard T. Gosser and John W. Livingston for vice presidents in with him in 1947. The same foursome then was re-elected at conventions in Milwaukee in 1949 and Cleveland in 1951.

The once strong anti-Reuther faction was led by R. J. Thomas, George F. Addes and Richard T.

Leonard. Thomas and Leonard now are on Reuther's CIO staff carryovers from the late President Philip Murray's administration and Addes is out of the labor movement.

Thomas held the presidency for seven years before Reuther defeated him.

Since their defeat, the Reuther opposition has been weak and disorganized, steadily declining in numbers.

The present opposition, concentrated largely in the big Local 600 at the Ford Dearborn plant, was expected to mobilize its strength for the election of regional directors later in the day.
