

Benson Cuts Farm Budget 10 Percent

WASHINGTON (U. S. Secretary Benson has plans to reduce Agriculture Department spending—except for farm price supports—about 10 per cent in the coming fiscal year and considerable more in the following year.

With White House approval, he laid before Congress Thursday a revised budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, trimming $131,400,000 from a budget of $1,324,400,000 recommended by former President Truman.

Benson indicated possible reductions of more than 200 million dollars in a budget to be submitted a year from now.

The new secretary said he expected opposition to his proposed reductions. But he said it is time, in view of the national debt and big defense spending, to reduce government activities wherever possible.

From the farmer standpoint, the most significant recommendation made by Benson was that the annual 200 million dollar agricultural conservation subsidy program be reduced to 140 million dollars beginning with the 1954 crop.

He said that under this program the government should make payments to farmers for permanent-type conservation practices and for initial applications of lime and fertilizers to lands involved in production adjustments recommended by the government.

This would eliminate payments to farmers for recurring annual conservation practices, such as re-application of lime and fertilizer.

Benson would reduce funds for rural electrification and telephone loans from 200 million dollars recommended by Truman to 145 million.

Other reductions from the Truman proposals included: Sugar program subsidies $50,000,000 instead of $84,700,000; research $77,197,000 instead of $79,505,000; flood prevention work seven million dollars instead of $15,500,000; soil conservation service $60,200,000 instead of $64,411,000; farmers home administration loans 150 million dollars instead of 190 million; farm production adjustment programs $6,300,000 instead of $8 million.

Lumbermen Warned On Future Cost

PORTLAND (U. S. Pacific Coast lumbermen in the U. S. must watch three danger spots, President Hillman Lueddemann of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association said here Thursday night.

These are high production costs, Canadian competition and a dwindling ocean-shipping business, Lueddemann said at the association's annual banquet.

The Portlander said the industry must watch its manufacturing costs closely and match the promotional activities for other building materials.

He said Canadian competitors have the advantages of paying lower wages and shipping at lower ocean rates than those available to U. S. shippers.

Lueddemann expressed worry over the future of water shipments of lumber. He said the coastwise trade is "already knocked out," and he feared there is "grave danger of complete disappearance" of intercoastal trade.

On the brighter side, he said the industry is learning to use more of the tree, is making better use of machinery, simplifying grading rules and increasing the practice of forest farming.

G. E. Karlen, Tacoma, was elected president; N. B. Giustina, Eugene, vice president for Oregon and R. M. Ingram, Aberdeen, vice president for Washington.

Officers re-elected were: W. B. Greeley, Seattle, vice president; H. V. Simpson, Portland, executive vice president; William A. Calkin, Vancouver, Wash., treasurer; and Harris E. Smith, Portland, secretary.

New directors elected were: D. A. Kurtz, Aloha, Wash.; J. D. Wierick, Dec. Ore.; Harold A. Miller, Forest Grove, Ore.; M. L. Hallmark, Roseburg, Ore.; E. W. Pease and A. A. Lausman, both Medford, Ore.

Nickel Plant To Go In At Riddle
WASHINGTON (U. S. — Rep. Ellsworth (R-Ore.) said Friday he has been advised development of a site for the Hanna Nickel Refining Co. plant near Riddle, Ore., will start in about two weeks.

The company proposes to spend about 26 million dollars to develop deposits of low-grade nickel ore at Nickel Mountain.

Ellsworth said company officials have informed him work on the railroad spur and land clearing will begin in about two weeks. Construction is expected to start in August with production planned for June, 1954.

The company will use a process developed by the Bureau of Mines electrometallurgical laboratory at Albany, Ore., Ellsworth said.

Fast Time Hours Asked By Group

PORTLAND (U. S. — A petition from city employees asked the City Council Thursday to set working hours up an hour when daylight saving time begins April 26.

The petition was signed by 315 employees, who noted that Mayor Fred Peterson earlier said he would not declare daylight saving time since state law prohibits it.

Councilmen said they also had received a number of letters from businessmen asking earlier hours to conform with daylight saving time cities.

Langset of Klamath Falls and E. T. "Doc" Hedlund of Portland talk station upon arrival of the Portland Chamber of Commerce excursion of Klamath Falls yesterday.

Angel Concert Set Tonight

Tonight, 8 p.m. in Mills auditorium, Wayne Angel will appear in a scholarship concert. A fine program of concert music will be presented by the young violinist, his accompanist, Aurora Underwood, University of Portland, pianist; the Musical Arts Symphonette under the direction of Andrew Loney Jr., and a string quartet.

Mrs. Underwood, member of the University staff, whose appearance here has been eagerly anticipated by music enthusiasts, will play three numbers.

Members of the string quartet, Mrs. Helene Hornby, Mrs. Margaret Jolly, Dennis Hanna and Walter P. Smith, well-known to Klamath Falls audiences will play the Beethoven Quartet, Opus 18 No. 4; (a) Allegro ma non troppo and (b) Scherzo.

A selection of numbers will be played by the local symphony orchestra, The Musical Arts Symphonette, which includes: Harry Borel, Concertmaster; Don McKenzie, Wilma Beaver, Helene Hornby, Kristian Gippo, Jewel Shannon, Florence Lampropoulos, Boo Enman, Walter P. Smith, Shirley Cox, Madge Chilcote, Margaret Jolly, LaMar K. Jensen, William Chilcote, Freeman Yount, Robert Chilcote, O. W.
