Events In Chiloquin

Braving the cold and snow, members of the Chiloquin Club met for their regular meeting on March 10. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Page.

The financial report for February was given by the treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page, and it was announced that until next winter, regular club meetings will be held twice monthly in future, on the first and third Fridays of each month.

In order that material for hand embroidered and crocheted work may be purchased and distributed among members for completion in time for the annual bazaar to be held in September, the following fancywork committee was named: Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. John Acomb and Mrs. Hansford T. Williams.

Welcomed as new members at this meeting were Mrs. Don Wimer and Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine, the latter and her husband having recently come from Stockton, Calif. to manage their newly acquired Wood River Motel here.

Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, local 4-H club leader, announced with pride that three of her 1952 cockery project members had won additional awards besides those won at both county and state 4-H fairs last year—Hope Holbrook, county extension agent, Klamath Falls, had written that Enid Williams had been adjudged 1952 winner in the 4-H news writing contest, and as an award had been given a 4-H club summer school scholarship.

Also, Janice Kendall and Marie Nicholson were each to receive $10 checks and paper plaques from John Sullivan of Safeway Stores, Inc., Klamath Falls, for their 4-H State Fair demonstration on angel food cake making, at which the team of two girls won championship blue ribbons. Mrs. Loosley is again this year busy with her 4-H girls, this time conducting a sewing project.

At the close of the business session, a word contest was held, with Mrs. Wilbur Hecock receiving the prize, after which a sale of wrapped white elephant packages netted a good sum for the club treasury.

The enjoyable and busy afternoon ended with a social hour, during which refreshments were served in the clubhouse dining room, the St. Patrick motif being used in table decor of shamrock, pinxets and tall green tapers in crystal holders. Other appointments and refreshments were also in keeping with the theme of old Erin.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley and Mrs. Joseph Halford, in addition to whom the following were in attendance:—a special guest of the hostesses, Mrs. William Zumbun; club members Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine, Mrs. Don Wimer, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. William Brewer and daughter Darla Dee, Mrs. Marvin Roeder, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hecock, Mrs. Earl M. Jackson, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, Mrs. Gene A. Page, Mrs. George Loosley and son, George Allen, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Viola Page, Mrs. Edith Moon, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, and Miss Diane Bechtel.

There will be a food sale, sponsored by the hospital guild, at the home of Mrs. Geneva Trujillo, on March 17. Refreshments will be served at the home of Mrs. Billie Pitaguh, on March 18.

"JUSTWEDS" . . . Mr. and Mrs. Carl Robert (Bob) Jarschke, cut their wedding cake. Bride is the former Gwan Graham, 3950 Homedale. Her husband is the son of Mrs. C. D. Matthews, Chelsea Addition. The Rev. Fields was officiating minister in the Bible Baptist Church for their 7 p.m. wedding, March 7.

A small family wedding, the bride was attended by her sister, Suzanne Graham, and Bob by his brother-in-law, Henry Tucker. The bridegroom reported back to San Diego March 16, where he is a navy airman. They will live in San Diego while he is stationed there.
