

Fort Klamath Club Throws Benefit For Red Cross

ice Kendall further aided the Red Cross drive by donating an angel food cake, decorated with red crosses, which was auctioned off twice, Gene Page buying the confection the last time. Janice and Marie Nicholson are the team of Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley's 1952 4-H club county and state fair champion angel food cake bakers and have won many prizes and honors for their achievement.

General chairman in charge of arrangements, program and other details was Mrs. Harold (Myrtle) Wimer, secretary manager of the business group as well as chairman of the local Red Cross membership drive; local business people on the committee were Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. William A. Page, George Loosley, Guss A. Page, J. Quincy Buell and Harold L. Wimer.

This committee wishes to thank all who helped in any way to make the affair such a big success, including all persons named above, and extends a special note of thanks and appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas for their courtesy and consideration in cancelling the usual Saturday night dance at the Bronco Room of their Old Fort Tavern here for the duration of the box social dancing.

To date, funds raised for the local Red Cross drive have not attained the $225 quota set for this small community, absence of many local cattlemen at this time of year and current unemployment among loggers in the vicinity being contributing factors in failure to reach the goal; however, Fort Klamath people have as usual responded very generously as far as possible, and in most instances, as stated heretofore, have even in reality donated twice to the worthy Red Cross cause.

As chairman of the drive here, I wish to express my appreciation and thanks for the loyal support and cooperation of the community in general and to my fellow members of the Fort Klamath Business Association in particular, to the group for so wholeheartedly sponsoring the benefit box social Saturday night, as a result of which a substantial sum has been added to the fund to be turned over soon to the Klamath County Chapter of the American Red Cross in Klamath Falls.

PLANNING FOR THE ANNUAL state convention of the American Association of University Women here last week were (l to r) Mrs. O. K. Puckett, convention chairman, Mrs. C. A. Fariss, Portland, state president and Mrs. William Wales Jr., president of the Klamath Falls chapter. The convention will be held here this month.

Solons Get 'Travelitis', Junket Spree Is Slated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spring is in the air, and a lot of Congressmen are getting ready to follow suit. The annual congressional junket season gets under way with a bang this week, aided and abetted by a 10-day Easter recess of the House.

The end of the week will find House members in or nearing such distant lands as India, Pakistan, France, Italy, Thailand, Formosa, Hong Kong, Indochina and Japan, to say nothing of Florida, Texas, Louisiana and Puerto Rico.

It's all on official business, of course, except the Florida excursion which will be a condensed spring-training season for congressional baseball players footing their own bills.

Expenses will be borne by the taxpayers, mostly through the House Contingent Fund, but the

Freak Accident Kills 2 Players

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP) — Two members of little Howard County Junior College's baseball team were killed and ten others injured Tuesday as the players improvised a foul line marker.

A long metal pole that was to serve as the marker accidentally toppled into electric power lines and 7,500 volts of electricity shot through it.

Gene Reynolds, 19, and Robert Brown, 18, a Negro, were killed. The injured were also hanging on to the pole, placing it into a shallow hole at the Big Spring baseball park.

foreign affairs groups operate largely on foreign money in the possession of the United States. Not so with the ballplayers. About 40 Republicans and Democrats, plus an estimated 100 wives and children will spend the Easter holidays at Daytona Beach Fla., unlimbering their muscles in preparation for the annual ball game between House Republicans and Democrats.

7 p.m., a Red Cross specialty luncheon number was presented by a group of young people, when two ex-soldiers, Glenn Hessecock and Wilson, carried in on a stretcher a wounded soldier, typist Boy Scout Wynn Hessecock, being accompanied by Pat Hessecock, dressed as a Red nurse. The four formed a line near the piano while a young girl, Janice and Kendall and Sharon Hessecock, to the muted accompaniment of Clifford Bargett's guitar selection "Rose of No Land," which was a popular song of World War I, written in honor of the Red Cross.

An encore, the four were joined by the two ex-soldier stretcher bearers in "My Buddy," after which the Kendall sisters delighted the audience with their harmonia "Side by Side."

In close of dancing, a coloratura of boxes and baskets auctioned off, the lunch consisting from Easter basket decorated shoe boxes, etc., and elaborately filled and refilled. Auctioneers were Gene and Harold Wimer, with William Zumbun acting as emcee. The affair was patronized by Fort Klamath residents in exception of Ernest H.
