FINE FOOD

Welsh rarebit needs little help, but here's an added touch that you will like. Arrange slices of grilled tomato and hard-cooked eggs, well seasoned, and over all a thin slice of cold ham, on slices of hot toast. Cover with hot Welsh rarebit and serve at once.

PERFECTLY GRAND

Sunday morning is waffles and sausage time. Serve the golden brown waffles with plenty of butter and this warm fruit topping. Combine 1½ cups of apricot whole fruit nectar with ½ cup honey and a dash of salt. Simmer them together about 15 minutes. It's wonderful on hot cakes or French toast, too.

Rhubarb Dish Attractive Appetizing

Rosy rhubarb and a fluffy custard mixture, baked in a cookie-lined baking dish, is an attractive and tasty appetizer. The custard mixture is a 3:1 blend of eggs and double rich evaporated milk, with a modicum of lemon juice and lemon rind for piquant flavor. The custard mixture is unusual in that the egg whites are beaten separately and folded in, resulting in a decidedly delicate texture. Lemon flavored wafers further accent the fruity flavor of this pudding. But vanilla wafers are good, too.

RHUBARB CUSTARD PUDDING
2 cups sliced rhubarb (about 1 pound)
2-3 cup sugar

3 eggs, separated
1-3 cup sugar
1½ tsp. grated lemon rind
1 tbsp. lemon juice
1 cup evaporated milk
Lemon or vanilla wafers
Wash rhubarb, but do not peel. Cut into 1½ inch slices. Add the 2-3 cup sugar and let stand 30 minutes to draw juice. Beat an 8 x 8 x 3 inch square or 1½ quart baking dish. Place a layer of lemon or vanilla wafers on bottom of baking dish, with extra wafers placed on top of first layer where needed to cover spaces between cookies. Stand additional wafers around edge of baking dish to make scalloped border. Beat egg yolks. Gradually add the 1-3 cup sugar and beat until mixture is light colored. Stir in lemon rind and juice. Gradually blend in milk. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Fold into milk mixture. Carefully spoon rhubarb and juice evenly over wafers in bottom of baking dish. Pour custard mixture over rhubarb. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees F.) until rhubarb is tender and top is lightly browned, about 30 to 35 minutes. Makes 5 to 6 servings.
