Presbyterians On Verge Of Goal
PORTLAND (AP) - Presbyterians will reach the 12 million dollar expansion goal they set this year, Dr. Hermann N. Morse, New York City, said here Thursday.
The moderator of the General Assembly, he said churches already have guaranteed $10,000,000, and the rest will be pledged before early summer.
The money is for construction of new churches and expansion of seminaries.

TICKETS FOR THE SHRINE dance were mailed yesterday to Shriners in the Klamath Basin for sale until dance-time, Apr. 18 at the Armory. This quintet of ticket-peddlers look optimistic. They are (l to r) A. G. Boyd, Don Smith, Mervyn Wilde, Gus Vlahos and Buzz Larkin. Proceeds of the dance go to the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, Portland. Baldy's Band furnishes the music.

Ridgway Sees Russia Threat
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED POWERS IN EUROPE (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway warned Thursday that Soviet Russia's threat against the Western Allies "has not diminished one iota."
NATO's supreme commander in Europe said nothing about the current peace moves in a speech at the second anniversary of SHAPE, his headquarters here near Paris, but he warned that Soviet Russia has "increased and continues to increase" her military capacity.
Then Ridgway made a strong appeal to the Western Allies to bring West German troops into the defense of the 4,000-mile West European Front.
"For the defense of this vast region," he said, "one significant contribution—the participation of Germany—is still as yet withheld."
"I would welcome this additional military potential, a Western German contribution would not only strengthen the whole edifice of Allied Command Europe, it would lighten proportionally the burden of the cost of this defense."
Ridgway, in effect, thus called on six West European Parliaments to ratify the highly controversial European Army Treaty, which would put some two million troops into one uniform and under one command. The treaty would bring West German troops into the West European defense buildup against possible Soviet aggression.
Only the West German lower house was so far approved the treaty. France, Belgium, Holland, Italy and Luxembourg have not done so.

Casualties Up On War Front
WASHINGTON (AP) - Announced U. S. battle casualties in Korea reached 131,928 Wednesday, an increase of 404 since last week.
This was a slightly larger increase than the past few weeks and apparently represented initial reports of the casualties in the renewed heavy fighting around "Old Baldy" and Bunker Hills.
The Defense Department's weekly summary based on notifications to families through last Friday showed:
New Total
Killed in Action 20,939
Wounded 97,888
Missing 13,001
Total 131,928

PROTEST
KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) - Foreign Minister Sir Zafrullah Khan disclosed Thursday that Pakistan has lodged protests with Communist China, charging that Chinese troops attempted several times to cross Pakistan's northern border in Hunza State.

Britain Sticks To Red Ban
LONDON (AP) - Britain's Conservative government served notice Thursday it will not ease its ban on exports of strategic goods behind the iron curtain despite recent dickerings by Communist China.
Peter Thorneycroft, president of the Board of Trade, told the House of Commons that "circumstances have not changed so dramatically as to warrant a substantial revision" in Britain's export controls.
