Swan Lake, in the lead, and Mac's Store are pulling away from the rest of the field in the Alley Katz Bowling League. Both posted 4-0 wins yesterday.

Mac's Store was high in team play with a 789 game and 2274 series. Swan Lake had a 771 game and 2238 series for runner-up scores.

Jerrie White and Vivian Wise of Mac's Store posted games of 188 and 189 to lead the rookies in the league. White's 188 was better than veterans Beth Griggs of the No. 1 team and Elora Bagley of the No. 3 team could do. Both had 172 games. Ila Douglas of Craig's had a 154 for third-high veteran game.

White was also high for series score with a 444 (lines of 124, 188 and 132). Vivian Collman of Swan Lake had a 421 with games of 126, 153 and 143. Bagley's 406 led the veterans with games of 154, and two 172's. Griggs was second with a 469, games of 163, 134 and 172.

There's small wonder Superior-Troy is running away with the title in the Ten Pinetts Bowling League. The league leaders posted another 4-0 win yesterday and captured most of the scoring honors and now hold a 12 and a half point lead over J. W. Kerns, the second-place team.

Superior-Troy had the top team scores with an 807 game and 2308 series. Kerns was second with 785 and 2230.

Donna Scott of Superior-Troy had the top line for rookies with 168; Mildred Eklund of Pelican Drive In had a 164.

Eklund caputred the series high with added lines of 152 and 131 for a 447. Pauline Keffer of Superior Troy was right behind with a 430 on games of 153, 135 and 143. Opal McDonald was the top veteran in the league with a 170 game and 442 series, adding games of 124 and 148.

Millie Sheehy of Pelican had a 169 game and Marge Tanner a 401 series for second-high scores among the veterans.

Injuries Rack Big Leaguers

By BEN PELEGAR
AP Sportswriter

Just one week from today a man in blue will bellow "Play ball!" in Cincinnati and Washington and the 1953 major league season will be open.

The first man to bat in the first inning of the first game will make a little bigger mark in baseball history than usual. Because, if present time schedules are carried out, that man will be Bill Bruton of the Milwaukee Braves. Bruton, a rookie outfielder, will be the first player to bat for Milwaukee in a major league game since 1901.

The Braves, moved from Boston to Milwaukee during the training season, will be the guests of the Cincinnati Reds for the single opening game on the National League schedule. In the American League the defending World Champion New York Yankees visit Washington, where Vice President Nixon will toss out the first ball. The National League should get away first since game time in Cincinnati is 30 minutes earlier than in Washington.

FULL SLATE

All 16 clubs are due for action a week from tomorrow. In the American League it will be Philadelphia at New York, Washington at Boston, Chicago at Cleveland and Detroit at St. Louis for a night game. In the National League St. Louis will be at Milwaukee, Cincinnati at Chicago, Pittsburgh at Brooklyn and New York at Philadelphia.

Washington suffered a serious setback yesterday when fleet-footed Gil Coan fractured his right ankle when he tried for a circus catch in an exhibition against Cincinnati at Charlotte, N. C. Coan had been banging the ball at a .275 clip this spring. Team officials said the outfielder probably would be sidelined two months.

The St. Louis Browns, who need all the players they can get, lost one of their best ones yesterday when catcher Clint Courtney went after a foul ball and broke the middle finger of his throwing hand. He will be out 10 days to two weeks.

HOSPITAL

The hospital lists of several of the other clubs also contain the names of men whom the managers would much prefer to have in the lineups.

Hank Sauer of the Chicago Cubs, the most valuable player in the National League last year, is out with a broken little finger. Roy Smalley, the Cubs' regular shortstop, will enter a Chicago hospital today for examination of a swollen ankle which has troubled him for two weeks.

The Brooklyn Dodgers are short two first basemen. Regular Gil Hodges has been in a New York hospital with swollen feet and is due to go back for further observation and examination tomorrow. Rookie Wayne Belardi will be sidelined another four to five weeks following an operation for bone chips on his arm.

One of the most mysterious of the spring ailments has been Mickey Mantle's rash. The young Yankee outfielder, currently at his home in Oklahoma, hasn't played a full game in more than two weeks. Whenever he exercised the rash would appear. Boils formed under his arms. Finally, Manager Casey Stengel tried some psychology and sent Mantle home to be with his wife, who is expecting her first baby. Then the club became disturbed when Mantle failed to return to the club in Atlanta yesterday as expected.

MUM ABOUT RASH

Mantle, at his home, said he would be back tomorrow when the Yankees play in Nashville. He said his wife was getting along fine but he declined to talk about the rash.

Without Mantle the Yankees were beaten yesterday by Atlanta of the Southern Association, 4-3. Whitey Ford worked seven innings for the Yankees, struck out eight, but walked four, gave up seven hits including a home run, and wild pitched three times.

Two home runs by Dee Fondy helped the Cubs edge the Browns, 9-8, at San Antonio, Tex. Cincinnati beat the Senators, 6-2, at Charlotte with Clarence Podbielan going the route for the Reds. Second baseman Davey Williams singled five times in a row for the New York Giants, who whipped Cleveland for the third day in a row, this time 7-2 at Austin, Tex.

DOUBLE

Dick Williams, subbing at first for the Dodgers, doubled off the wall in Nashville with two on base, to give Brooklyn a 3-1 decision over Milwaukee.

The Chicago White Sox whipped Dallas of the Texas League, 4-1; Philadelphia's Athletics defeated Montgomery of the South Atlantic League, 13-5; the Philadelphia Phillies whipped Birmingham of the Southern Association, 14-3; Pittsburgh turned back New Orleans of the Southern Association, 5-1, and the St. Louis Carinals edged Houston of the Texas League, 3-2.

Detroit, the only major league team left in Florida, defeated the Cincinnati "B" team, 13-8. The Tigers head north tomorrow.

Bruins Upset Red Wings

BOSTON (AP) — After providing the National Hockey League with one of its most startling playoff upsets, the Boston Bruins were in the Stanley Cup final round, for the first time since 1946, after eliminating the trophy-defending Detroit Red Wings.

Before 13,909 roaring admirers, the Bruins dethroned the Red Wings, NHL champions for the past five seasons, 4-2, Sunday night for their fourth victory in the six games played in the best-of-seven post-season competition.

Now Coach Lynn Patrick and his jubilant Boston stickmen will mark time until the now deadlocked Montreal Canadiens and Chicago Black Hawks play their seventh and final game in Montreal [illegible]day night.

Padres' Gorman Dies

Tragedy Ends Week Of Action in PCL

By The Associated Press

Death of a popular, hart-hitting ballplayer created a tragic finale for the first week of the Pacific Coast League season in which Seattle, Los Angeles and Hollywood tied for the lead.

Outfielder Herb Gorman, 27, of the San Diego Padres, was stricken with a heart attack in the sixth inning of the Hollywood-San Diego game Sunday and died before he reached a hospital.

Gorman started for the first time and seemed to be in fine fettle, having hit two doubles, driving in one run, before he was stricken. Hollywood won the game 4 - 2 but the managements called off the second game. Fans were advised of Gorman's death just after the game ended.

League President Clarence Rowland, who attended the game in San Diego, said Gorman "was an outstanding character and a credit to the game. He will be missed." Gorman, born in San Francisco, had played with Three Rivers, Spokane, Pueblo, Hollywood and San Diego, with a brief turn with the St. Louis Cardinals. He led the Western International league in hitting, with .351, while with Spokane in 1947.

His wife, the former Rosalie Bloom of Los Angeles, was in the stands at San Diego when he was stricken.

Hollywood won the series 5 - 2 from San Diego. Frank Kelleher was the hitting star of the game, getting his 209th PCL homer, with a mate aboard, in the third.

WINS SERIES

Seattle took the series from Oakland 5 - 3 and Los Angeles overpowered Portland by the same margin. Sacramento won its series with San Francisco 4-3.

It was a long day of baseball in Oakland as Seattle won the first game 15 - 12 in 10 innings and Oakland took what was supposed to be a seven - inning nightcap 5 - 3 in nine innings. In the first, Seattle was leading 12 - 2 until the sixth when Oakland's Bill Howerton homered with two on to tie it 12-12. George Schmees tripped for Seattle in the 10th, scoring two men and then Schmees came home on a wild pitch.

Sam Chapman's ninth inning homer with two aboard gave Oakland the nightcap victory.

14 HITS

Portland let go 14 hits to beat the Angeles 6 - 3 in the first game, with Charley Grant contributing a homer. Larry Ward held Los Angeles to eight hits. Grant and Granville Gladstone homered for the Beavers in the nightcap but the Angels, aided by Tod Davis' homer won it 3 - 2 in the ninth when Gene Baker singled with two away to score Fred Richards from second.

Sacramento rifled out 17 hits to beat San Francisco 13 - 4 in their opener, bombarding five Seals pitchers. The Seals' 5 - 4 nightcap victory went to Ted Shandor, rookie pitcher from Yakima, Wash., although he had to be rescued in the seventh by Bob Muncrief.

The clubs were idle Monday and begin their second week Tuesday with Oakland at Hollywood, Portland at Sacramento, Los Angeles at San Francisco and Seattle at San Diego.

6 Marks Fall In Relays

By The Associated Press

Oregon and Oregon State each won seven first places and Washington five and six new meet records were set in the third annual Willamette Relays Saturday.

Other first places scored, as 300 top Pacific Northwest athletes met in the first major Northwest college competition of the season at Salem, Ore., went as follows: Willamette three, and Lewis and Clark and Southern Oregon two each. No point totals were kept for the competing schools.

The new records were:

Three-quarter mile medley relay — Oregon's team of Ted Anderson, Bruce Springbett, Doug Clement and Jery Mock, 2 minutes, 35.1 seconds (old mark 2 minutes, 37.1 seconds, set by Oregon last year).

Novice division shotput — Jimmy Jones, Oregon, 45 feet, 11 inches (old mark 45 feet, 4 inches, set by Chet Noe in 1951). (Competition in the novice class restricted to athletes who have not won varsity track letters.)

Novice javelin — Jerry Church, Oregon State, 190 feet, 6 ½ inches (old mark 187 feet 4 ½ inches, set by Oregon State's Ralph Sutton in 1951).

Novice discus—Tom Blackstone Oregon State, 135 feet, 2 inches (old mark 124 feet, 7 ⅜ inches, set by Portland University's Ken Altenhofen in 1951).

Mile — Washington's team of Bob Hutchinson, Jack Burney, Don Meruert and Henry Banks, 3 minutes, 29.2 seconds (old mark 3 minutes, 32.7 seconds set by Oregon in 1951).

Broad Jump — Bob Chiede, Lewis and Clark, 22 feet, 5 ½ inches, (old mark 22 feet, 2 inches, set by Jerry McCafferty, Oregon State in 1951).

Washington's George Widenfelt was the lone double winner in the individual events, taking both the discus and senior high jump.

The senior men's javelin competition saw the major upset of the meet. Stan Neperud of Willamette made a toss of 195 feet, 10 inches, beating out a field that included Len Sutton of Oregon State, the 1952 Pacific Coast Conference titlist.

The invitational 100-yard dash was won by Merv Brock of Oregon State in 9.9 seconds, with Washington's Bob Hutchinson second, and Oregon's Jerry Mock third.

In the high school events, run at the same time the collegians were competing, five records were established.

Fred Hall of Prineville accounted for two of them by bettering his 1952 marks in the 100-yard dash and the 440-yard run. His 10.2 seconds in the century was .2 of a second better than the record he set last year. He shaved .7 of a second off his quarter mile mark of 52.6 seconds.

Other records:

Bud Lee, Scio, broadjumped 20 feet 2 inches to better the previous mark of 20 feet set by Bowerman of Beaverton two years ago.

Bill Kutler, Parkrose, threw the javelin 169 feet 2 ½ inches in the novice division to top the 1951 record of Cottage Grove's Arthur.

Larry Crouser, Gresham, threw the javelin 173 feet 2 inches in the senior division, adding more than four feet to the record set in 1951 by Coon of Salem's Sacred Heart.

An estimated 1,500 athletes from 65 schools competed.

Semipros In First Practice

Manager Hi Hatfield takes his first official look at prospects when the Klamath Falls Merchants hold their first practice session Tuesday, 5:30 p.m. at Recreation Park, for its fling in the new Oregon-California Border League, a four-team semi-professional baseball circuit.

Other teams are Lakeview, Alturas and Burns.

It will be the first semi-professional baseball for Klamath Falls for some five years.

The season opens May 17 with Klamath Falls hosting Lakeview and Alturas traveling to Burns.

Lakeview and Burns were members of the now-defunct Central Oregon League but decided to throw in with this new diamond family.

Bend and Prineville, also Central Oregon League members, joined another new circuit—the Juniper League, which will have Warm Springs, Madras, Mitchell and Redmond as other members.

Plans call for the two top teams in each league to meet at the end of the season in a championship playoff.

Hatfield plans tri-weekly sessions for the Klamath team—Tuesday, Thursday and 2 p.m. Sunday —until the league opens.

Owls Wallop Tule, 26-15

Oregon Tech walloped the Tulelake Homesteaders, a Northern California League semi-pro club, 26-15 Sunday on the losers' diamond.

Charles Carrow pitched four innings for the Owls but turned the mound over to Larry Jeter when he hurt his foot.

Tulelake scored seven runs on just two hits in the first inning when Oretech caught a severe case of bobbitis.

Irv Whitt homered for Oregon Tech in the sixth with the bases loaded. The Homesteaders come here for a return game next Sunday with a promise they'll have a "much improved" team.

'Trotters Win Two From Stars

CHICAGO (AP) —They loved 'em in Chicago—the Harlem Globetrotters and the College All-stars.

Fans packed and re-packed Chicago Stadium Sunday for afternoon and evening games in the cross-country basketball tour. The Harlem squad won both, 92-88 and 89-82.

The largest afternoon gate in city cage history, 16,998 turned out for the first game. In the evening, a crowd of 19,142 was on hand.

The victories were the sixth and seventh for the Globetrotters in the series. The college boys have won three.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The value of the American Derby was reduced from $50,000 to $25,000.

Vandals Win Fifth Straight

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — Idaho's Vandals won their fifth straight college baseball game of the season Saturday with a 6-2 victory over the Seattle University Chieftains. The loss was Seattle's first in four starts. Wayne Anderson drove in three runs on three hits and Dick Dodel pitched shutout ball after the second inning for the Vandals.

This Is Legalized Murder!

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball people are the funniest people of all. They devote a month of hard work to getting their players in shape down South and out West and then they light in and see if they can't make cripples out of them in a final silly fortnight.

We speak as a fugitive from the New York Giants-Cleveland Indians barnstorming special, having escaped through the clever ruse that we meant to attend a mythical heavyweight boxing match at Chicago. We felt at the time as though we had been beat over the head with a set of harness.

The Indians and the Giants, being bound by contract, still are knocking themselves out in one-night stands through the Deep South. Those still physically able will be playing at Alexandria, La., today and wondering why they didn't take up dentistry for a living. By the time they finally arrive back here this week end they will look and feel like escapees from a labor camp.

TORTURE

Nobody now living seems to know who first thought up these torture tours, or exactly why. There is, of course, some money in it, but you would be surprised to know the percentage of same that is eaten up in hotel bills and rail fares. If one key player is lost to a club, such as Monte Irvin's ankle break at Denver a year ago, then that team easily can lose more at the gate during the season than it realised from its journey through the bushes.

In Denver the other night a veteran pitcher told me, "I'm tired already. This doesn't make you feel like doing your best."

Perhaps that is a tipoff on why the scores between the Giants and Indians have been running into double figures almost daily since they broke camp in Arizona. The kids probably don't mind it. But, the oldsters become bone-weary.

NO SPARKLE

They are routed off the train early as a rule. Their eyes lack sparkle, for some time during the night they had lain awake while workmen repaired a wheel on their car. There is the scramble to the local hotel to change into play clothes, the trip to the park and the long game on a diamond usually so rough after having lain fallow for the winter that the athletes and their managers are nervous every minute.

Then the rush back to the hotel, another change, and off for dinner and the next stop. A few of the younger and hardier souls might play cards for a time in the club car, but most of them hit the sack in a hurry to rest their arnica-soaked limbs and dream of nights in a quiet bed.

Barber Wins Azalea Open

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—What a difference a week makes! Today little Jerry Barber was worrying about accomodations at Augusta, Ga., where he will compete in the Masters Golf Tournament, opening Thursday, after winning the $10,000 Azalea Open here yesterday for his first major victory.

A week ago the Illinois native who plays out of La Canada, Calif., near Pasadena, was in the dumps. He hadn't been able to break 300 in the Greensboro Open. The little man (5 feet 5, 140 pounds) had opened the Greensboro tournament with a fat 80, then showed his heart with a second round 69, only to drop far out of the money with a 74-77 the last day for 300.

The poor showing apparently had cost him a chance to qualify for the last open Masters position going to the uninvited pro with the best year's average. But he came up with a 4 under par 68 yesterday to tack on to earlier rounds of 71-65-72 for 276 and top money of $2,000. He had won $2,532 previously this year.

His finish left him one stroke ahead of three men—Johnny Palmer, Charlotte, N. C.; Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., and Doug Ford, Harrison, N. Y. Their 277 totals meant $1,066.66 each.

Next at 279, each getting $666.66, came Bo Wininger, Oklahoma City Okla.; Cary Middlecoff, Memphis, and Lloyd Mangrum, Niles, Ill.

Tommy Bolt, on top through three rounds, fell to a final 73 for 280 and tied with Lew Worsham, Oakmont, Pa., each winning $415.

McLane Gets Tank Triple

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Jimmy McLane, the sensation of the 1952 National AAU Indoor Swimming Championships, feels "like a fellow who slammed a home run with the bases loaded in the lucky seventh inning."

He says "it was great, but I was lucky to score a triple victory" in the three-day meet which ended Saturday night in Yale's pool.

Bob Kiphuth, coach of the 22-year-old Yale senior from Akron, O., and experts who saw the brilliant performance insist there was nothing lucky about it—but rather "talent and determination."

Anyway, by winning the 220 yard, 440 yard and 1,500 meters free-style races, McLane joined Jack Medica, Ford Konno and John Marshall in winning three national titles in one meet.

TODAY A YEAR AGO — Sammy Snead won the Masters Golf Tournament for the second year in a row, with a score of 286.

FIVE YEARS AGO — Middleweight Champion Rocky Graziano decisioned Sonny Horne in a 10-round nontitle bout at Washington.

SEEKS REPEAT — Ada Ash looks for her second straight win over Gerry Hunter when the lady wrestlers tangle in a rematch Wednesday night at the Armory. This bout will be the best two of three falls.

SPORTS in BRIEF

By The Associated Press
BASEBALL

CHARLOTTE, N. C. — Gil Coan, heavy - hitting Washington outfielder, fractured his right ankle and may be out of action two months.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Herb Gorman, 27 - year old San Diego outfielder, was fatally stricken with a heart attack in the sixth inning of game with Hollywood.

SAN DIEGO, Calif —Ted Beard, Hollywood outfielder, hit four consecutive home runs for a Pacific Coast League record.

SWIMMING

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Yale's Jimmy McLane won his third title and Reid Patterson of Georgia, who barely squeaked into the finals, took the 100 - yard free-style crown in the National AAU championships.

GOLF

WILMINGTON, N.C.—Jerry Barber, La Canada, Calif., won the $10,000 Azalea Open with 72-hole score of 276.

BEAUMONT, Tex. — Babe Zaharias won the tournament bearing her name with a 54-hole total of 217.

GENERAL

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Vic Seixas, Philadelphia, defeated Miami's Gardnar Mulloy, 6-3, 6-1, 4-6, 6-1 in the finals of the Good Neighbor Tennis Tournament.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Five records were shattered as Illinois' Big Ten champions captured the unofficial title in the Southern Relays.

WICHITA, Kas. —Hanes Hosiery, Winston - Salem, N. C., won its third straight National Women's AAU basketball title, defeating Wayland College Hutchson Flying Queens of Texas, 36-28.

RACING

SAN BRUNO, Calif. — Willie Schoemaker rode six winners and set a track record, pushing home Trusting ($4.00) in 1:41 over the mile and 70 yards of the feature $15,000 added California Handicap at Tanforan.

Shoemaker Has 101 Race Wins

SAN BRUNO, Calif (AP) — Wee Willie Shoemaker is riding winners at a record breaking clip at Tanforan Race Track.

Six victories Saturday zoomed Shoes' 1953 total to 101. That pace could smash Tony Despirito's 390 winners in one year, set in 1952.

Shoemaker himself shared the previous 388, for which he and Joe Culmone dead heated in 1950. Walter Miller set the 388 record in 1906.

Gals Clash In Rematch

Lady wrestlers return to the Armory Wednesday night — but this time it's a grudge match, at least as far as Gerry Hunter is concerned.

Ada Ash (Mrs. Al Szasz) whipped Gerry in a one-fall finish match last week but claims she was tricked when she had to battle the referee and Szasz after having dumped Ada out of the ring three times.

This time the bout will be the best two of three falls, good news to those who wanted a longer look at the girls last week, and those who didn't get to see the first bout.

Szasz faces Don Kindred, the Brown Bomber, in the 45-minute bout that follows the women's hassle.

Tor Yamato meets Bill Fletcher and Jack (Buck) Lipscomb squares off against Elmer Larsen, logger-wrestler in other bouts on the four-scrap program.
