

Griggs Holds Pin Lead

Pelicans Lose Two to Eugene

By RED HUND

Big Laron Griggs will know in just a few hours now whether he'll be fitted for the city bowling crown.

Griggs' 1835 Class A all-events score survived three shifts of bowling last night at Lucky Lanes in the annual City Bowling Championships that end this afternoon and tonight when three more squads of kieglers shoot for titles in the wind-up of the week-long pin meet.

Strongest threats to Griggs' score, based on series scores in team play, are Mel Robinson and Marion Grant.

Robinson goes into the doubles and singles play with a 625 score. He has a shrimpy eight handicap and will have to average slightly more than 605 to pass Griggs.

Grant is in a better position. With a 58 handicap, he goes into his last two tests with a 618 team series.

NEW LEADERS

New leaders took over last night in the Class B singles and Class A doubles.

Ted Bingham, rolling on the swing shift, had a sparkling 686 to take the lead in Class B singles. Lawrence Hipke's 654 fell to second place.

Bill Martin and Pete Green passed Andy Silani and Harry Bray for the Class A doubles lead by a comfortable margin. Martin and Gray notched a 1279 score, while Ki Carrier and Cliff Stiemler equaled the 1218 Silani and Bray posted the night before.

Staying intact under the battering were Erhardt Blund's 1923 Class B all-events score, Griggs' 678 Class A singles score and Blund and Hipke's Class B doubles 1277 count.

NEW HIGH

Al Woldt rolled a 249 single line from scratch to erase T. C. Griggs' 243 that held good since Monday night. Al Hakenwerth's 607 scratch series tied Robinson's tournament high three-game score.

Olino Rosterella, ex-city champion, didn't come close to repeating. Going into last night's action with a 626 team series, Rosterella had mediocre 508 doubles and 534 singles.

Bill Mills with a 607 team series, Fred Klink with 643 and Jim Crismann with 626 pose the strongest threats to Blund for the Class B all-events trophies in tonight's finale.

Bowlers currently in the money (on the prize list) are:

UO Frosh Klamath Foe Today

EUGENE—The Klamath Pelicans meet the University of Oregon Frosh this afternoon after dropping two games to the Eugene preps yesterday by 12-3 and 5-1 counts.

The Pelicans' three runs came in the fifth inning when Ron Whittaker walked Ronnie Conner, Fred Friedel and Gary Williams and Ing Montgomery singled to right, scoring two runs. Don Dexter's ground-out scored the third run.

Montgomery was the leading Klamath batter with two of the Pel's five hits.

Eugene got 13 hits off David D'Olive and Elvis Mitchell. Nine walks and four Klamath errors helped Eugene to its 12 runs.

Starting pitcher Whittaker gave up just three hits and struck out six in the five innings he worked. Whittaker also collected three hits along with Gene Stott, Rich Leavitt and Tom Bowen collected two each.

Klamath scored its lone run in the seventh inning of the second game when George Hanson led off with a single. Billy Hamblin was safe on an error, and Eliti singled to load the bases. Williams walked to force in the run but a pop-out and two outfield flies ended the threat.

The only other Pelican threat was in the second inning when Hanson tripled with one out, but was picked off on an unsuccessful squeeze bunt.

Eugene's four runs in the third inning were all scored without the benefit of a hit. Three walks, three errors, a balk, wild pitch and passed ball let in the four counters.

The other tally—in the sixth frame—came on two walks, ground out and passed ball. Hanson and Ron Owings hit twice each for Klamath.

Hanson went the distance in his first pitching chore for the Pelicans. He gave up just five hits. He fanned nine.

Line scores:

(First game):

Klamath — 000 030 0-3 5 4
Eugene — 131 250 4-12 13 3
D'Olive, Mitchell & Teacher.
Whittaker, Swanson & Bowen.
(Second game):

Klamath — 000 005 1-1 6 5
Eugene — 004 001 4-3 2 6
Hanson and Owings; J. Wicks and Cabbage.

Bevos Top Sacs In Overtime

By The Associated Press

Two weeks of play in the Pacific Coast League are coming to a close and Hollywood, Seattle and Los Angeles look like the real competitors.

Oakland has been a dismal disappointment. Picked as a pennant contender, the Oaks have shown almost nothing in the pitching line, and the team's hitting hasn't been good enough to offset the hurling deficit.

Two weeks don't make a season, by any means, but Hollywood and Seattle are tied for first place Saturday with Los Angeles a half game back. Oakland has won only three of 11 starts.

Hollywood thumped the Oaks again Friday night, 15-9, in a 27-hit farce that saw eight pitchers in action. Hollywood used five of them. Ted Beard collected five of Hollywood's runs and Oakland's Sam Chapman smashed four successive hits in the comedy that included eight errors.

Hollywood executed a double steal on Spider Jorgensen, the Oaks' third sacker, when he came in anticipating a bunt, and left his base open.

Portland went 10 innings to down Sacramento, 5-3. Singles by Bob Monis and Granville Gladstone, a walk to Jim Russell and Nippy Jones' error at second base enabled the Beavers to score the final runs of the game.

Joe Brovia doubled two runs across for the Sacs in the third inning but the Beavers nipped Charley Schanz in the fourth as Monis walked, Rip Russell doubled and Gladstone and Ed Basinski singled.

Seattle walked to victory over San Diego, 8-2. The Padres used four pitchers and they gave up eleven walks. Cagey Steve Nagy of Seattle gave up nine hits but he was helped by three fast double plays.

Medford Beats 'B' Cindermen

The Klamath 'B' track and field team won just one of 12 events yesterday on Modoc Field in losing a 33-63 decision to the Medford freshmen and junior high tracksters in a meet patterned after the Hayward Relays.
