NAVY BEAUT - Janice Vaughn, WAIVE at San Diego, Calif. Naval Air Station, is believed to be only member of Armed Forces in Miss America contest. She's finalist in Miss San Diego race.

Slayer Gets Life Term

COQUILLE (AP) - Florencio Martes Fuentes, 38, an assistant cook on a lumber freighter, Wednesday pleaded guilty to two charges of second degree murder.

Circuit Judge Dal M. King sentenced him to life in prison on each count.

Fuentes, a Puerto Rican, pleaded guilty to shooting to death Mrs. Mayra Alice Prensall, 25, North Bend, and her escort, Harold Carter, 25, Hauser, Ore. The shooting occurred after Mrs. Prensall refused to dance with Fuentes at a Coos Bay night spot March 28.

Five other persons were wounded before Fuentes was subdued.

Fuentes, whose ship was tied up at Coos Bay at the time, was indicted on two charges of first degree murder, but was permitted to plead guilty to the lesser charges when his trial opened Wednesday.

Wild Horse Case Heard

PORTLAND (AP) - A $4,000 damage suit involving the round-up of wild horses in Lake County has been moved to federal court here.

The suit was first filed in Lake County Circuit Court by Clarence and Eugene Miller, owner of the horses, against Theodore C. Barber and Newell B. Morgan, an employee of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The Millers complain that Barber and Morgan rounded up more than 100 of their colts and horses and are holding them unlawfully.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Maurice Engelsau said Oregon law provides that wild horses on the public domain be rounded up and the owners notified. The owners may claim the horses by paying a $25 fee for each.

The Millers object to paying the fee.

Ellsworth Asks Flood Work Change

WASHINGTON (AP) - Modification of three proposed Oregon flood control projects so they could produce power was recommended Tuesday by Rep. Harris Ellsworth (R-Ore.).

He said the Cougar Reservoir on the South Fork of the McKenzie River could produce 25,000 kilowatts; Green Peter, 81,000, and White Bridge, 15,000. The last two are on the Middle Fork of the Santiam.

The modifications are needed to relieve a power shortage in the area, he said.

Pinball Game Bill Killed

SALEM (AP) - The House-passed bill to legalize "free play" pinball games died Wednesday in a subcommittee of the Joint Ways and Means Committee.

John Steelhammer, Salem lawyer and speaker of the House in 1951, told the subcommittee that the bill would enable the state to collect more taxes from the games.

He said the "free play" machines are operating in many counties, anyway, despite an attorney general's opinion of several years ago holding the games are illegal.

Football Great Planning Film On Game's Highlights

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) - If a picture now being filmed here doesn't please the football crowd, there's no hope, it's being made by former grid greats.

The producer is Aaron Rosenberg, rugged running guard of Southern California in the early '30s. The director is another Trojan, Jesse Hibbs, tackle who also starred with the Chicago Bears.

Type-cast as a coach is hulking Herman Hickman, Tennessee lineman and head man at Yale until he quit for a TV future. Speaking parts are held by Frank Glifford, of SC and New York Giants; Don Moomaw, UCLA's All - America linebacker of last year; and Elmer Willbolte, another SC star. Tom Harmon, Michigan hero, will play his real-life role as radio-TV announcer.

Other players include Trojans Jim Sears, Earl Audet, Ed Demirian, Al Carmichael (Green Bay Packers), Jim Psaltis (Chicago Cardinals), Jim Hardy (Detroit Lions) and Uelan Leon McLaughlin (New York Giants).

Put them all together and you have a picture that portrays football as it is played. At least that's what the filmmakers hope.

The picture is called "All-American," and it is partly designed to offset the debunking-type films like "Saturday's Hero."

Says producer Rosenberg: "Football gave me a chance to get a college education. I'm not going to knock it."

Director Hibbs agrees. "Most of the directors who make football pictures don't know the first thing about the game," he commented. "They go overboard in the dramatic scenes in the locker rooms and the action on the football field."

"We have the advantage of having football portrayed by men that have lived the game. If they can't put realism in the picture, nobody can."

Hibbs said that he was straining for realism in the picture. The football stuff, which was filmed at the Rose Bowl and SC's practice field, will be hard-hitting. The story concerns a football star, played by Tony Curtis, who transfers from a big university to a small college.

The time will be next fall, when the two-platoon system will virtually be dead. Drama is evoked from speculation over whether he can play defense, since he has been merely an offensive player before.

Curtis admits he is a tyro at football.
