Indians Observe Spring Festival

THE DALLIES (P)—Hundreds of Pacific Northwest Indians observed the annual spring salmon festival at Celilo Falls Sunday. Leaders of the Northwest tribes exchanged greetings, and the assembled Indians then engaged in the ceremony of "facing the eastern sky" in thanks for the coming of the salmon. Roots and berries also were blessed in ceremonies before the serving of the traditional salmon feast.

Next On Program

By Geo. N. Taylor
The Bible says it 322 times. The return of Christ is the next event of God's program for this world. Christ is to return in flames of fire to take vengeance on all who do not obey the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ —

2nd Thess 1:8. They who receive Christ as their Lord and Saviour have the gift of eternal life. Until Christ returns, the saved are under orders to spread the Message of God's love and his gift of eternal life. Spread the Message and pray to God to convict the lost of their need of a Saviour. No man can be saved until he first knows himself to be lost — So which for you? God's wrath or his eternal love? Which for you? This message sponsored by a Portland Lumberman and wife.

FHA Girls Keep Busy

MERRILL—Merrill FHA Girls have been very busy during the past year, according to Marjorie Flaugh, who has prepared the following summary of work accomplished during the current year.

The first project was the redecorating and remodeling of the old sewing room at school into a lounge and club room for the students. Members of FHA painted the woodwork, sewed curtains, and varnished a desk for the room.

Boxes were sent to all graduates of Merrill High now in the service. At Christmas each member brought something from home to make up boxes for needy families in the area.

A hobo party was held at the Leland Reeves home for the 15 new members initiated during the year. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Reeves and Helen Rambo were the host and hostesses. Members of the basketball team were honored with a banquet at the recreation hall.

The district meeting was held at Rogue River, and 15 Merrill girls attended. After the meeting they visited the House of Mystery. Appreciation is expressed to Leland Reeves and to Johnny O'Neil for the use of their cars to transport the girls.

FHA officers for the current year were Yvonne Conner, president; Carol Poe, vice president; Nancy Dewey, secretary; Mary Lou Quinn, treasurer; Betty Joseph, historian; Janet Dierdorff, parliamentarian; Marjorie Flaugh, news reporter, and Claudette Shuck, song leader.

lunch will be served. All co-workers are to wear formal, if possible. Members of Loyal Order of Moose also invited.

Meets Tomorrow—Maranatha Missionary Society of the Bible Baptist Church will meet April 21, at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Bonnie Rhoads, 2311 Vine. Mrs. Verona Rhoads will assist as co-hostess.

Correction—A building permit for construction of a home on Eldorado, granted by the City Council to Melvin Miller, was listed erroneously last week at $20,000. The figure should have been $26,000.

GILCHRIST—At a luncheon for the presidents of the district and several state officers at the home of Mrs. Ben Evick in Madras the district board was conducted and during the business results of the recent conservation essays and poster contests were announced. Out of thirteen Garden Clubs represented two prizes in the essay division and one in the poster division were taken by Gilchrist Garden Club sponsored students. Essays: First Bessie James, Second, Margie Evans both Gilchrist. Third, Elaine Wood, Prineville. Crook County Garden Club; fourth, Judy Duval, Redmond, from the Redmond Garden Club. Posters: First Allan Dearborn, Culver, sponsored by Green Thumb Garden Club; Second, Jane Brader, Gilchrist Garden Club; third Tommie Kessler of Redmond, Redmond Garden Club; fourth, Juanita Brownfield, Prineville, Crook County Garden Club. During the afternoon Mrs. Dorothy Franks told of the work she and Mrs. Henderson are doing and of their trip planned on the Shasta Daylight for the National Convention in San Francisco.

Mrs. Francis Stokesberry was a guest entertainer at the April meeting of the Gilchrist Garden Club, Wednesday evening, April 15. She showed several state slides of flower arrangements and her own lovely slides on Oregon scenery and sunsets from all over the nation. Mrs. Percy Madden, president of the Bend Garden Club announced the spring flower show to be held at the Thompson school May 16 in Bend. The Gilchrist Garden Club has sent a large box of craft materials and patterns and magazines to the Women's Warden of the Oregon State Prison as part of the garden therapy work.

Election of officers for the Gilchrist Garden Club for the coming year 1953-54 were as follows: Miss Ann Dolesal, president; Mrs. R. D. Caswell, vice-president; Mrs. C. C. Long, secretary; Mrs. J. E. Snider, treasurer and Mrs. V. I. Brader, correspondence secretary. Refreshments were served the group by the hostesses, Mrs. Oren Moulton, Mrs. J. E. Snider and Mrs.

Crater Weather Fair And Clear

It was fair and clear at Crater Lake National Park this morning, park officials reported, after 434 persons in 136 automobiles visited the park over the weekend. Snow depth measures 131 inches now with all roads into the park open. But skiing conditions are poor, it was announced. Chains are not required for travel into the park.

Theft Leads To Rocky Butte Stay

Raymond Price has been sentenced to eight months in the Rocky Butte jail for stealing and selling a packet of small hand tools here Thursday afternoon. Sentence was passed by District Judge D. E. Van Vactor.

Price admitted taking the electrician's tools from a pickup parked behind East Side Electric Company. He sold the tools to a patron of a nearby tavern. The purchaser notified the police and Price was arrested within 15 minutes after the theft.

The tools were the property of Hollis Anderson.
