WALL STREET
NEW YORK (AP) — With only a moderate amount of business developing, the stock market Tuesday advanced in a timid manner. The great majority of gains and losses were in the small fractions. Occasional plus signs exceeded a point. For the most part, however, the emphasis was on the upside.

Volume came to an estimated million and a third shares as compared with a little better than a million and a half shares traded Monday.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO (AP) — Price changes were small and without much significance on the board of trade Tuesday.

May and July beans sank around 2 cents at times following overnight announcement the Commodity Credit Corporation had lowered the price at which it would sell soybean meal. This influenced soybean meal, which sold at $64 a ton, off $1 from Monday.

Corn and oats moved ahead. These feed grains were helped by a continued rise in live hog prices.

Wheat closed 1/4 lower, May $2.17 1/2, corn 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, May $1.15 1/2, oats unchanged to 1/4 higher, May 75 1/2, rye 1 to 1 1/2 higher, May $1.64 1/2, soybeans 1 1/2 lower to 1 1/4 higher, May $3.04-3.04 1/2, and lard unchanged to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $10.55.

CHILOQUIN

By DARLENE WOLFF
Mrs. Pearl Nygren's brother, Clyde Barrows, lost his life in Rogue River near Gold Beach early Sunday morning. He and two brothers had some fishing, and the boat capsized and Barrows struck his head on a rock. He was in the water less than five minutes but could not be revived. Mrs. Nygren, her grandson, Benny Nygren, and Jack Wolff left Monday morning to attend funeral services.

Deborah Diane Mack, who tipped the scales at 9 pounds, 1 ounce, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mack of Williamson River at Klamath Valley Hospital Thursday, April 9. The baby's grandparents live in Alabama and in Ohio. Debbie and her mother came home Monday afternoon.

A number of Chiloquin people went to Klamath Falls Saturday night to attend the Parade of Barbershop quartets and the performance of the Klamath Barbershop chorus.

Up from Redding for the program were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren and here from Glenbrook were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hamilton. Bob's partners were guests here in town.

Mrs. E. E. Evans of Jacksonville is visiting in Chiloquin this week, first at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman and then with the Guy Stakers. Mrs. Evans chose this week to revisit her former home as the Eastern Star chapter is having a special celebration this Wednesday evening.

Jack Winkle and Albert Rasal made a trip early this week to Willow Ranch Calif., to see how soon logging jobs would be open for them where they worked last season.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Greear and family drove to Medford to spend Saturday with friends who will soon move to Los Angeles. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kranshewer of Klamath Falls were guests of Greears.

Mr. Paul Herron began working part time at Naval's Golden Rule this week. She will work each afternoon.

Lewis Pohl left recently after spending a week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pohl, and with other relatives. He is the Bob Wampler, and in Klamath Falls with a brother and family, the George Pohls. Here for part of the time was Bill Pohl, who teaches high school in Big Loxia lives in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pohl spent a recent weekend visiting in Eugene with his 85-year-old mother and with other relatives.

Harry Pearson underwent major surgery in Klamath Valley Hospital last week. For several days he had special day and night nurses and was unable to have visitors, but by Tuesday of this week he is reported much improved.

Bob David quit school last month. He is a freshman at Oregon State College but received an invitation from Uncle Sam. He is to Portland last weekend for a physical examination and expects to be called sometime next month. Wayne DuBois who earlier this year was attending Open Bible Standard Institute in Eugene, was also called and both boys passed their physical exams.

Claudette Parazo returned to Arcata, Calif., after Easter and then decided to quit her job there and return to Chiloquin. She has not decided definitely what she will do next.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doty and children spent last weekend in Sweet Home visiting with former Chiloquin residents, Mr. and Mrs. Reece Curry.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mezger are parents of a third child and second daughter, Donna Lee who weighed less than six pounds, was born at Klamath Valley Hospital early Thursday morning, April 9. By the time Mrs. Mezger was ready to come home the older children, Allen and Peggy, had broken out with measles so Mezger took a leave from his job as forester and is home helping his recuperating family. At a shower given recently for Mrs. Mezger, guests guessed the exact arrival of the infant. Mrs. Lloyd Peters Chiloquin won, missing time by only eight hours.

Fort Rock
By ROBERTA McGEE
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Warren of Canyon City, Ore. are the proud parents of Catherine Marie, who arrived April 8, and weighed 8 pounds and 2 1/2 ounces. The proud grandfather is Ralph Webber who became grandpa for the first time, and also Laura Webber who became a great-grandmother for the first time. Mrs. Warren is the former Beverly Webber. Doc Schaub received delivery of a 1953 Green 3/4 ton Ford pickup on Friday April 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morehouse and children of Grants Pass, arrived Saturday, April 11, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morehouse and family for a few days.

Mrs. Jo Gilder, Fort Rock 4-H leader, took two of her girls, Joan Perry and Teresa Ward to Lakeview April 10, to attend the 4-H Judging school.

Mrs. Charles Bailey, Floyd Branch and Richard Brown were obligated into the Fort Rock Grange, Saturday night.

Mrs. Anita Gates and Mrs. Anne Sloan had a birthday party for Ray Gates who was four years old April 13. The party took place at the school house during recess Monday afternoon. There were two very attractive birthday cakes. There were 26 persons present at the gathering.

MARY LOU QUALLS

Merrill Girl On Trip List

MERRILL (AP)—A Merrill girl, Mary Lou Qualls, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Qualls of the Merrill Highway, will join the "Pilgrimage for Youth" group that will visit the United Nations Assembly in New York City, July 3.

The nationwide pilgrimage will take several hundred boys and girls of the United States for a first hand view of the procedure of international affairs.

Mary Lou, a junior in high school is the only delegate from the Southern Oregon district. She won from 14 candidates. Two entered from Merrill.

Her trip was won on choice of her 1000 word essay, "Why I Would Like to See the United Nations in Action."

The Oregon group will go first to Canada, to pick up delegates being prepared to leave for the East by chartered bus.

Mary Lou's honor was announced at a dinner, April 17, in the cafeteria of the Medford high school, attended by candidates and their parents.

The local contest was sponsored by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Lodges.

Brief Case In Car Said Stolen

Mrs. A. M. (Vi) Taylor, 205 Arthur, has reported to City Police theft of a brief case from a car sometime Saturday night.

Mrs. Taylor said the theft occurred either while the car was parked at Shady Pine between 8 and 10 p.m. or at the S. 6th Street Tavern between 11 p.m. and midnight.

She described the case as tan horsehide. It contains insurance papers and an insurance license, she said.

Warren OK's Extradition

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Warren said Tuesday he has approved Oregon's request for the extradition of Joseph Baker, 19, for escape from the penitentiary.

Baker is being held in San Francisco.

Warren said Oregon authorities have given him information showing "that he has been in trouble ever since he was 14 years old."

Although he noted that "Mr. Baker has been portrayed in some news stories as a young man who has been in no difficulty other than the rather minor burglary of a laundry," he said "there is very little in his record to indicate rehabilitation."

Warren said he has sympathy for Baker's wife and baby but he is sure Oregon will be considered of the best interests of all concerned.

SHUTS DOWN
PORTLAND (AP)—Another of Oregon's low electric railroad lines will be closed down Tuesday.

The Pacific Northwest Electric Railway Association said it is converting its electric line serving Gresham and Boring to a diesel operation and Boring to a diesel. The last electric train is to leave Portland at midnight Tuesday.

Rec Banquet Said Success

The food was excellent, the program was excellent and prospects are bright for a bigger, better recreation program in Klamath Falls next year after Monday night's second annual Klamath Sports and Recreational Council turkey banquet and meeting at the Armory. Places were marked for nearly 200.

All phases of sports, bowling, basketball, fly casting, baseball, swimming, that come under the newly organized and growing council were recognized. Awards were presented by Bob McVey, KFIJ announcer.

Rev. Lloyd Holloway was the speaker, using as his topic, "Balance in the Recreation Program," pointing out the trend toward family participation in sports.

Other speakers included John McGinnis, Pelican coach, Al Kirkland and Skeet O'Connell, OTC coaches. Mayor G. E. Van, Commander of Klamath Falls American Legion Post, Red Hurd, sportswriter for the Herald and News and Mary Mills, newly elected president of the Women's Bowling Association. Floyd Wampler, sportscaster for KFLW, emceed the program.

Blanche Petros and Bernadette Mathis were in charge of arrangements.

The dinner for 200 persons was served by women of the Reorganized church of Latter Day Saints.

FBI Arrests Wanted Man

WASHINGTON (AP)—FBI men have picked up Lawson Earl Shirk Butler, described as the "West Coast's" most notorious bandit and currently listed among the bureau's "ten most wanted."

The arrest at Los Angeles, announced Tuesday at FBI headquarters.

Butler, with a long criminal record, has been sought for 14 months after an escape from the Oregon State Penitentiary in 1952, under cover of a $100,000 ransom for a hand-made ladder and a $100,000 ransom for a hand-made ladder and a $100,000 ransom for a hand-made ladder.

Butler went on the "most wanted" list in January of 1952.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said Butler at various times has been charged with bank robbery, armed robbery, assault and battery, violation of federal law, and possession of a handgun.

The FBI said Butler had been using the name "Robert Gale."

Reward Up For Flier

KALISPELL, Mont. (AP)—Negotors of four missing Montana boys have chipped in a $1,425 reward to spur the search for the plane in which the four took off April 17.

Depositing of the reward at Kalispell bank was announced Thursday.

The missing four are Forrest Wright, 30, his sister, Mrs. B. Wilbur, and her two children, Leonard, 2, and Katherine, 1 year old. All lived in the Kalispell area. Wright is a Swan Lake rancher.

They have not been reported since they embarked April 17 from Crescent City, Calif. Extensive searches have been made their flight route through California and Oregon.

Funeral

Funeral services for James Ferguson Leggett, 56, who died here April 19, will be held at 2:30 p.m. at the C. E. Elders Funeral Home. Interment took place in the Forest Klamath Cemetery. Mrs. Blanche Leggett is in charge of the arrangements.

New Mill in Production

TOLEDO, Ore. (AP)—Castro Lumber Company's Mill B, under construction a mile south of here for the past year, started production Monday.

The firm's Mill A is at Sweet Home and company headquarters is at Portland.

The mill is designed for a capacity of 125,000 board feet in an eight-hour shift. It will have between 85 and 100 employees.

Emmett Cruson, who supervised construction, will remain until operation is well established. He has been superintendent of the Sweet Home mill for 10 years.

Realtors Name Out By Accident

The name of Maroon S. Jacks was inadvertently omitted from the list of members of the Klamath Board of Realtors which was printed in connection with the Kenneth Evans survey last Saturday.

The Klamath Board of Realtors points out that Jacks is a member in good standing. He moved here last year from Grants Pass, and maintains his office in the lobby of the Willard Hotel.

Oil Lease Filing Booms

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—An oil lease filing flurry is under way in this northern territory.

Following a recent rush in which filings were made on 200,000 acres in a single day, six Los Angeles residents filed on 90,000 acres Monday.

At the same time, C. F. Shield and his associates in the Kiska Oil and Gas Development Co. reported drilling was starting this week at a site along the Glenn Highway in the interior.

The Shell Oil Co. also announced the opening of a Seattle exploration division office because of its interest in the Alaska prospects. The announcement said four mapping parties will go into the field in mid-May.

The surge of interest in Alaska oil prospects has developed since the Department of the Interior signed with the Phillips Oil Co. for test drilling this summer in the Katala region along Alaska's southern coast, east of here.
