SCORES 11TH KILL: Capt. Manuel J. Fernandez Jr., Miami, Fla., scored his 11th MIG kill over Korea without firing a shot. He got on the tail of a Communist pilot and the latter dove, then bailed out of his plane.

In The Day's News

After this diatribe, I'd like to add that the California bug inspections are now carried on so courteously by the inspectors that you leave all the border stations with wholly unruffled feathers. In fact, you're usually made to feel that you're really being welcomed to California.

It wasn't always that way. Some of them used to be rugged. Especially the one at Yuma, I can remember boiling over and putting out the fire for hours after passing through the Yuma station and having all my personal luggage pawed over and scattered around for me to repack. But that's a thing of the past.

Living Costs Show Gains

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government reported Wednesday that living costs edged up fractionally between mid-February and mid-March. This revised a three-month downward trend.

The Bureau of Labor statistics said its consumer price index rose two-tenths of one per cent over the month. This brought the index to 113.6.

The index uses average prices of 1047-49 as a base of 100.

The living cost level is presently only about one-half of one per cent off the record established last November when the index was 114.3.

Actually living costs have remained stable and changed very little since last fall.

Moreover, the bureau reported Wednesday that removal of government price and wage controls has had "little effect on retail prices into April."

Summing up the price situation, the bureau said:

"There were sizable increases (after controls were ended) in the retail prices of cigarettes, coffee, gasoline and fuel oil, but no other important cost of living items were affected at that time. The groups which are predominantly service groups have continued to edge upward, but food, apparel and house furnishings are generally lower than a year ago."

Winnie Raps Policy Critics

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill Wednesday heatedly slapped down Laborite critics who accused him of letting the United States call all the turns in dealing with the Soviet wooing of the West.

The 78-year-old Premier indignantly refuted Socialist opposition insinuations in the House of Commons that he was taking a back seat in the East-West developments and declared:

"I do not think, looking back over a long period in peace and war, I have ever, so far as I had anything to say in the matters, been willing to accept complete initiative from the United States."

Churchill emphasized, however, "I am most anxious to work with them and it is vital to the survival of the free world that we should."

Churchill has already voiced his "resolute and wholehearted" support of the peace plan put forward by President Eisenhower.

Debate Rule Change OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rules Committee Wednesday approved a change in the Senate rules which would make it easier to shut off debate.

The change would make it possible to put on cloture—limitation of talk—by a two-thirds vote of the senators present and voting.

The requirement now is for the votes of two-thirds of all the Senate members—or 64 senators.

There has been talk of trying to impose cloture during the present lengthy debate on the submerged lands bill. However, the rules change approved by the committee Wednesday would not become effective until approved by the full Senate.

Free POWs Still Held

TOKYO (AP) — Some of the American prisoners returned by the Communists still have not achieved real freedom.

The gay, bright city of Tokyo is completely beyond their reach.

An officer at a hospital where 33 of the 65 repatriated Americans are confined explained:

"Until they are completely processed, they are held incommunicado."

Can the returned prisoners get a 24-hour pass if they feel well enough to see the city?

"Not a chance," he answered.

Col. James B. Stapleton of Dothan, Ala., hospital commander, said the men are undergoing physical examination "from the top of their heads to the tips of their toes."

"They are being examined by specialists (of all kinds) . . . It will be several days before such examinations are completed."

HOME

LONDON (AP) — Six Britons and an Irish priest released after long internment in North Korea completed their journey to England Wednesday.

They came from Moscow by way of Berlin, in a special British plane.

Days Of Plush and Mink May Be Out In Movies

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jolly Robert Welch, who escaped to TV from producing Hope and Crosby pictures, comes forth with the theory that video should be aimed at the balcony audience.

Welch, who is now originating new shows for NBC, believes that entertainment has been directed at the mink and ermine crowd too long.

"A few years ago in pictures," he said, "the usual plot was to have Fred MacMurray a millionaire and Carole Lombard the secretary who marries the boss. Everything had to be plush and luxurious.

"But I think people have become more realistic now. They don't mind seeing characters who have trouble making the rent and grocery bills. Everything doesn't have to be glamorous.

"That was the theory I used in making pictures like 'Paleface,' 'Son of Paleface' and 'Sorrowful Jones.' I wasn't aiming at the orchestra seats or the mezzanine. I wanted to please the folks in the balcony. There's more of 'em up there anyway."

Welch has a unique position with the network. His contract reads that he must have no title.

"If they gave me a title, people could find me," he explained. "Then I'd have to attend meetings and sit around while decisions were made. That was all I did at Paramount. There were so many meetings I don't know how they got anything done."

The producer is dreaming up two shows in keeping with his theory of aiming at the balcony trade. One is a hymn to the state of Texas. It is called "I and Claudie" and is based on the stories written by Dillon Anderson, Houston attorney.

"Anyone who has been in the service has feelings about Texans," said Welch, who produced armies forces radio shows during the war. "I've always wanted to do something that kidded Texas. I found these stories by Anderson were perfect for the job."

The story concerns a carefree vagabond—"sort of a young W. C. Fields"—and a friend who own a house trailer. No car, just the trailer. They hitch rides all over the state of Texas and get into adventures on the way.

Another Welch project is "Decent Citizen." The main character insists on fixing everything. Instead of hiring a plumber, he works on a leaky pipe himself and floods the house. His two young daughters supply the romantic interest.

The producer has strong ideas about what TV does and does not need. Most filmed shows are too tied down to a few interior sets. The shows he is planning will have 80 per cent outdoor shots.

One of his pet peeves is the fake laughter on the sound tracks of the comedy programs.

"Producers think their shows aren't any good unless they dub in a lot of uproarious laughter," he said. "That doesn't make shows any funnier and it antagonizes the audience. shows will have no laughter they're funny, the home audie will laugh."

Casualties In Korea Mount
