4-H County Fair Slated To Get Under Way On Thursday

Exhibits except cooking are being received today at the Klamath County Fairgrounds for the three-day annual 4-H County Fair that gets into full swing Thursday, April 23, continuing through Saturday, April 25.

Membership in 4-H ranges from boys and girls, nine years to 21 years. These young people, according to Hope Holbrook, Klamath County 4-H agent, keep themselves out of mischief by learning many phases of homemaking.

Exhibits are entered by both boys and girls in clothing, cooking, homemaking, woodworking, knitting, arts and crafts and forestry. Numerous contests between individuals and teams will be on the three-day program.

The Talent Night program, Friday, April 24, 7:30 p.m., will include dance, vocal, instrumental numbers and a one act play.

A fashion show and style revue, "April Symphony" will be presented at the exhibit building Saturday, 7:30 p.m.

No admission will be charged the public at any time during the fair.

The schedule for Thursday follows: 8 a.m. to 12 noon, receiving exhibits; 12 noon to 1 p.m., judging of exhibits; 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., judging of exhibits; 5 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., judging of exhibits; 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., dollar dinner contests.
