

Sweets Are Perfect Gift Mother's Day

Remember the day May 10 is the day of the mother. And the day of the mother is the day of the sweets. We are passing along the message to help you celebrate the day of the mother.

Everybody loves brownies. Everybody loves malted milk. Team these two favorites together and what do you have? A new treat—Malted Milk Danishes—that are so downright delicious they're bound to make a hit at first try.

The chocolate flavor malted milk can be said to even improve old-fashioned brownies. In fact, they're such a scrumptious surprise, we wonder why it took this long to discover them.

They're even easier to make than ordinary brownies. Instead of melting chocolate you just add chocolate flavored malted milk and mix it with the other dry ingredients. What's more, you use 50 per cent less sugar than called for in the usual brownie recipe. And they come out just the way you like them—good and chewy.

Serve them in regular squares or finger-fashion. But if you really want to show off—cut them out finger-sized, top with ice cream or fluffy whipped cream and serve them as a tempting treat just for a change, why not spring this surprise on the family today!

MALTED MILK DANISHES
(Yield: About 2 dozen squares)
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
2 tbsp. all-purpose flour
1/2 cup chocolate malted milk
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp. salt
2 eggs, well beaten
2/3 cup sugar
1 cup coconut
1 cup chopped nuts
Cut 1 cup flour, the shortening

MALIN
Election and installation of new officers of the Malin Home Extension Unit was held on Tuesday evening, April 7 at the High School Home Economics Room.

In a candlelight ceremony conducted by Miss Dolores Bracken, County Demonstration Agent, the following officers were installed: president, Mildred Rajnos; vice president, Gladys Halonsek; and secretary-treasurer, Betty Lou.

FILLER-UPPER
A hearty lima bean soup never goes begging, especially if it is made with the California large dry limas. Such a soup and a dessert is all that a truly good luncheon requires. A few thin slices of leftover frankfurters floating on top of the soup like sailboats give added interest and eating pleasure.

Glady Halonsek to the following:
Violeta Kunz, Virginia Blohm, Patsy Ottomian, Mildred Rajnos, Mildred Doherty, Emma Morelock, Anna Lahoda, Ann Payge, Mrs. O. T. Storli, Sybil Hall, Helen Rajnos.

TRY THIS
This Sunday brunch is a special treat we like to serve chilled. It's a grapefruit salad with a fresh, tangy, zesty, with chopped apples, raisins, and orange juice. Our guests say it's like to be invited to a brunch engagement.

SUMMER SIZZLER
The Olives in a Bun are one of our favorite potluck snacks. Split buns or hamburger rolls in half. Cover with good-sized wedges of olives which have been cut in half. Top with a generous amount of mayonnaise mixed with onion and curry. Place in a pan and broil until bubbling.

USE RAISINS FREELY
Quick breads and coffee cakes—baking powder variety—are a hit in the home. Add raisins to these preparations and they take on a new look and definitely superior taste. Try cookies with raisin "faces" that the young try.
