

Pels Tri-meet Victors

Owls Lose Two in Marathon

Gilmore, Dougherty Double Up

The Pelican clubmen have selected today. They are to meet the Klamath County League in a three-way battle in the afternoon at Hayward Field in Klamath Falls.

The Pelicans scored two runs in the first inning, but the Klamath County League batters were more than a match for them. Gilmore and Dougherty were the only Pelican batters to get on base, both in the first inning. Gilmore's double in the first inning was the only Pelican hit in the first inning. Dougherty's double in the first inning was the only Pelican hit in the first inning.

THREE VETERANS WHO will handle dogs Sunday in the main event of the Shasta-Cascade Retriever Trials, highlight of the three-day run, are (l to r) Cliff Brassfield, Boise, Ida., Pat Montgomery, Klamath Falls; and Snuffy Bellevue, Brassfield, who won a year ago with Snake River Dilly, is shown here with Sambo of Klamath, Giggers Koschnick's dog; Montgomery has FIC Sal in tow; Bellevue stands with Traveler Swift, another field trial champion. Bellevue steered Black Panther to victory here in the fall of 1950.

Ty, Son Place In Trials

Two local dogs edged into the select circle in the opening events of the Shasta-Cascade Retriever Trials yesterday. Ty, a black and white pointer, and his son, a black and white pointer, were the only local dogs to place in the trials.

A father and son came through yesterday to salvage some honors for Klamath Falls. Ty, a black and white pointer, and his son, a black and white pointer, were the only local dogs to place in the trials.

Champion in the Amateur Stakes is Havenhurst Cliff's Pride, male Labrador owned and handled by Late Utter of Los Angeles.

Other winners in the Amateur Stakes: Splish, male Labrador owned and handled by Edward L. Minog, Jr., Beaverton, third; Trievet Point, male Labrador owned by Mabel McKay, Balboa, Calif., handled by Hugh Bowen, fourth; certificates of merit to Jibodad Dandy, male Labrador owned and handled by James W. Bryan, Jr., Bremerton, Wash., and Jibodad Minx, female Labrador owned by Adolph Ibrahim, Dayton, Ore., handled by Ward Hudson.

Friday's Fights: By The Associated Press. Boston - Jimmy Carter, 134 1/2, New York, stopped Tommy Collins, 133 1/2, Boston, 4 (title). Tampa, Fla. - Jimmy Byrns, 182 1/2, Cleveland, outpointed Claude Rolfe, 187 1/2, Tampa, 10.

Beavers Cuff Solons Twice; 2nd Overtime. By The Associated Press. Portland took a doubleheader from the Sacramento Solons, 2-1 and 4-3. Fred Sanford beat Ken Gables in a tight hurling duel in the opener. Both Portland ballers came in the first inning as Jim Russell walked, scored on Grammy Gladstone's triple, and a bad throw from the outfield went into the Portland dugout and allowed Gladstone to score. Sacramento's run was unearned, also.

Yanks Lead American League by 2 Games

By BEN PHILGAR, AP Sports Writer. Just how good are the 1953 New York Yankees? Nobody knows yet, but off the first 10 games they appear to be finding the task of winning their fifth straight pennant the easiest of the lot.

Field Trial Champion Oak-creek's Sir Dorchester placed third in the Amateur stakes and his son, Oakcreek's Fremont, grabbed second place in the Derby Stakes for pups.

Winner of the Derby Stakes was Mount Joy's Mallard, a male Chesapeake owned and handled by E. C. Fleischmann of Sebastopol, Calif.

Raiders Win Pair; HSC Next

By RED HURD. Thunder and error took center field yesterday at Recreation Park in a doubleheader that saw Southern Oregon win 2-5 and 12-19 decisions over Oregon Tech.

The first game (both were seven innings) lasted three of the five hours in a battle accented with flaring tempers and strange goings-on that had the small crowd interested just for its absurdity.

The Raiders pounded three Oregon Tech pitchers—Bill Kelley for 3 2/3 innings, John Flack for 1 2/3 innings and Len Genetin for the same distance—for 18 hits. At that Genetin, a regular third baseman, did better than his predecessors, when he gave up just one hit during his stint on the mound and struck out three but walked in two runs in the wild sixth before he settled down.

But it made little difference. The Raiders combined their 18 hits with 14 Orectch errors.

Leftfielder Bob Smith smacked a two-run triple for the Owls in the second inning while the third scored on catcher Dick Schaefer's long fly to center field.

One more run came in the sixth, three in the seventh but it wasn't enough.

The fifth inning uprising was featured by Smith's home run, a punt hit that cleared the right field fence. Smith, a powerful hitter but just mediocre in the field, swatted his four-bagger after Genetin poled a triple and scored on Walt Butler's single. Both Odie Canada, on base via a walk, and Butler scored on Dan Barnes' single.

Line scores: FIRST GAME: SOC 412 396 0-22 18 4 OTI 031 010 0-5 6 14 Hennebeck, Kimura 6 and Smith; Kelsey, Flack 4, Genetin 6 and Schaefer.

SECOND GAME: SOC 402 330 0-12 10 4 OTI 100 051 3-10 9 6 Kimura, Hennebeck 5 and Smith; Jeter and Geddes.

Chiloquin, Merrill In Showdown

Barring some unexpected upset May 1 when the Klamath County League runs through its last round of baseball games, Monday's Chiloquin-Merrill game has the title hanging on the outcome.

Chiloquin whipped Bly yesterday, 6-0, when Jo Jo George pitched hitless ball for the last two innings to save the victory for starter Champ Hatcher, who gave up seven hits in five innings.

The victory gave the Panthers a 2-0 record, the same mark held by the Merrill Huskies after their win over Malin Thursday. Monday's game is a make-up that didn't go on schedule April 3.

Merrill is expected to get over Bly, winner once in four starts, and Chiloquin is heavily favored to dump Bonanza, cellar team with a 6-4 record, in May 1 games.

So Monday's winner will likely walk off with the title with no argument. Danny Cavan gave up nine hits in Bly's loss to Chiloquin, Monday's crucial at Merrill is scheduled for a 2 p.m. start.

Friday's Results: Philadelphia 5, Pittsburgh 3; St. Louis at Chicago, postponed; Cincinnati at Milwaukee postponed.

Friday's Results: Philadelphia 7, Boston 2; New York 4, Washington 1; Chicago 3, St. Louis 1; Cleveland 4, Detroit 1.

Friday's Results: Los Angeles 8, San Francisco 6; Seattle 11, San Diego 3; Hollywood 18, Oakland 3; Portland 24, Sacramento 1-3 (2nd game 11 innings).

Friday's Results: Calgary 5-6, Salem 4-5 (second game 10 innings); Edmonton 5, Tri-City 6 (13 innings); Victoria 5, Spokane 4; Lewiston 5, Vancouver 4.

Friday's Results: Chicago White Sox, allowed only three hits and no runs in 8 2/3 innings on relief against St. Louis after coming in with bases loaded in first inning.

MANAGER HI HATFIELD'S nomination for pitching duty goes to Andy Anderson (left) when the Klamath Merchants travel to Lakeview tomorrow in the opener for the local semi-pro club, a non-league game. Anderson's most recent hurling stint was with the Mayville, N. D., semi-pro team that won the state title year before last.

Pel Netmen Lose, 1-6

There's one thing about the Klamath netmen—they're consistent. They lost twice to Ashland this year by 4-3 scores. Yesterday they lost to Medford, 6-1, the same score the Tornados won by earlier in the season.

Bill Bechen won the only match for the Pels yesterday; he spotted Don Robinson one set, 7-5, then went on to win two straight by 6-1, 6-2 scores.

Denny Todd lost to Stan Kalapus, 6-4, 4-6, 4-6; Doug Pence was defeated by Jerry Kalapus, 7-9, 1-6; Mike Hayden was the loser to Ron Singler, 1-6, 3-6; and Jerry Flochini finished behind Don West, 4-6, 2-6.

In doubles play, Todd and Pence lost to the Kalapus brothers, 2-0, 2-6, and Flochini and Bechen were downed by Singler and Robinson, 0-6, 5-7.

Portland, Seattle Split Twin Bill. PORTLAND (AP) — Portland and Seattle Universities split a baseball twin bill here Friday, the hometown Pilots taking the opener, 6-5, and the visiting Chieftains the nightcap, 6-1.

Jim Collier unloaded two home runs for Seattle in the second game. Bob Jagelski's bases-loaded triple was the big blow for Portland in the curtain raiser.

GOLF. Pinehurst, N.C.—Former champions Neal Galletta and Bill Campbell gained the title of North and South Amateur Golf Champions.

Hatfield Team To Lakeview

The Klamath Merchants make their first official baseball start of the season Sunday, 2 p.m., on the Lakeview diamond.

Both teams are members of the Oregon-California Border League, a new semi-pro horseshoe family, but Sunday's game won't count in the standings.

Klamath Falls and Lakeview, along with Burns and Alturas, open league play May 17 with Lakeview here and Alturas going to Burns.

Hi Hatfield, who has organized a team despite less than little local cooperation, yesterday said Andy Anderson would get the mound assignment against the Lakeview club. Anderson is an ex-Mayville State Teachers pitcher of North Dakota.

Bobby Long, the lad who almost beat the Giants of the now-defunct Class D Far West League in 1951 and since has dabbled in the Class C Pioneer League, will probably be on the mound for Lakeview.

Manager-player, Hatfield will catch for the Merchants with ex-Pelican Kenny Young being held in reserve.

TIME OUT!

By The Associated Press. A good fisherman is patient, quiet and concentrates on his fishing. Fortunately I'm a busy fisherman!

By The Associated Press. In his prime Bob was one of the curve ball pitchers. He had to be for 69 games for the 1913 St. Louis Browns from 1913-19, now, at 27, he's still regarded as one of the Pacific Coast League's better relievers.

By The Associated Press. His hard luck streak continued today night as Los Angeles made the victim again, knocking him out three runs after two were out in the eighth inning. Los Angeles won, 5-6.

By The Associated Press. It was Mueller's third defeat in five days.

By The Associated Press. Steve Nacy, Seattle's slick left-hander, pitched to five hits and four runs in the first inning, but the Padres, 11-3, as his mates pounded Bill Thumacher for 12 safeties, including five doubles, Thumacher, Seattle got seven of its runs in the seventh and eighth.
