Gets OK On Lock Switch

WASHINGTON — Relief is in sight for Washington's confused bus watchers and travelers. The House and Senate yesterday agreed on a bill allowing the District of Columbia commissioners to delay light saving time for the city. Since Sunday, when most Eastern cities went on fast time, the TV radio and newspaper schedules have been out of sync.

Union Asks TC Meeting

PORTLAND, Ore. — CIO Woodmen Monday asked the Federal Labor Relations Board to arrange a meeting to negotiate the Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. contract.

Prince Charles On Salute

PORTLAND, England (AP) — Four-day Prince Charles had a day practicing his salute. At some time the manner in which he saluted the other has been the best apparent to the king. Monday, Tuesday he had a chance to give his right arm salute in the best military style.

Odd Fellows Hold Merrill Meet; Portland Unit Here

Odd Fellows from Southern Oregon and Northern California gathered in the Merrill 1007 Hall on Saturday evening, April 28, to witness the second and third degrees of Odd Fellowship conferred on a large class of candidates. The degrees were conferred by a 34-man drill and degree team from City View Lodge No. 291 of Portland, who not only performed very intricate drills, adding a great deal of showmanship to the team, but were most proficient in their dramatic characterizations and other phases of the degree work.

Grand officers introduced at the meeting were Lynn Gram of Medford, grand master of the grand lodge of Oregon; Herbert Munsell of Klamath Falls, grand senior warden of the grand encampment of Oregon; Joseph T. Ekeley, of Portland, past grand master; Arthur W. Foster of Portland, past grand patriarch; L. J. Fitzsimmons, Klamath Falls, special district deputy grand master of district No. 19; and district deputy grand master, Tom Grubb of Klamath Lodge; J. A. Barrett of Bonanza Lodge; and Archie Glose of Alturas.

Candidates receiving the degrees were Roland West, North Heston, Bob Heston, Homer Tamm of Merrill Lodge 187; Gordon Dunn, Arthur A. Myers of Klamath Lodge 137; Calvin Davis, Eldon Dorton, Howard Biner, Lester Wilson of Modoc Lodge 278 of Alturas, California.

This fine gathering of Odd Fellows from lodges in Merrill, Klamath Falls, Lakeview, Bonanza, Paisley, Medford, Portland, Ore., and Alturas, Calif., and the excellent degree work of the City View Lodge degree team was a fitting tribute to the one hundred thirty-fourth anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States, which was established in the city of Baltimore, Maryland on April 25, 1819.

A turkey dinner was enjoyed by all attending the meeting at six thirty, preceding the degree work, and a cowboy breakfast served on Sunday morning at the Klamath Falls Odd Fellow Hall to all guests from the other lodges. Host lodges for this meeting, financing and arranging for the degree team from Portland, were Klamath Lodge 137, Merrill Lodge 187, Lakeview Lodge 163, and Modoc Lodge 278 of Alturas.
