

FORT KLAMATH

By MYRTLE WIDMER

Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Varney spent last weekend at home in Klamath Falls, and Mr. D. D. Varney, who is now in the hospital, is expected to be discharged in a few days. Mr. Varney is now in the hospital, and is expected to be discharged in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wise are back for the season from Hollister, Calif., and have moved for the season into their home at the Hawk Creek Cattle Co. ranch in the south end of the valley. They report some improvement in the condition of their son, who was injured two years ago while surf diving at Santa Monica, the accident leaving the youth completely paralyzed from which condition he is slowly and gradually recovering.

Starting Monday, May 4, Vern Bergel, Chilquien, is acting mail carrier on the route between Chilquien, Port Klamath and Crystal, in the absence of the regular mailman, Don Potter, who is enroute to Detroit, Mich. he has to bring back his new Plymouth Suburban car which he will use on his mail route.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strahan, Canyonville, were here over the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strahan. The family night gathering sponsored by the local Methodist church in the CI clubhouse on Sunday evening was a decided success, a fine crowd being present for the 6 p.m. potluck dinner, and subsequent showing of a film, "South of the Clouds" by the Rev. C. Elbert Ekin.

A similar gathering will be held on Sunday evening, May 31, also in the CI clubhouse, and all are invited to attend.

After having been closed for a week, the old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco Room were opened again last Saturday. The interior of the establishment was renovated and redecorated, and a new entrance porch has replaced the former one. Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas own and operate the business.

More than 515,000 cases of scabies were reported in Oregon in 1952 according to a report from American Can Company. The figure represents more than 20 per cent of the total U.S. pack. Diced carrots are reported to be the most popular style of pork. Next in consumer choice come sliced carrots, followed in order by French style, cut, whole and quartered.
