

MADEON ADLER (right) is to offer a piano concert May 19 in Mills Auditorium as a benefit for the First Presbyterian Church building fund. The event is being sponsored by the church's Mariners Club. The Rev. David Barrett Jr. (left) spent the gifted young pianist a model of the new church prepared by Architects Morrison and Howard. The right wing educational unit is now under construction. The present church occupies most of the area shown as a courtyard on the model plan.

Psychiatric Association To Survey Oregon Hospital

THE American Psychiatric Association will survey Oregon state hospitals next fall, the State Board of Control said today.

The survey will be made at the request of the board, which wants to know what improvements should be made at the hospitals.

The board discussed the new building program for state institutions, but the start of the program is being delayed until the board works out a policy of employing architects.
