The next time you find yourself alongside a new Cadillac at the traffic light—take a good look at the gentleman behind the wheel.

The odds are overwhelming that you'll see a man relaxed and at ease.

For serenity is part and parcel of the great experience of driving a 1953 Cadillac. In fact, owners frequently take to the highway just for the relaxation the car provides.

And well they might. For here, beyond all question, is one of the surest therapeutics for the tension of work-a-day life!

Just sitting there in the driver's seat is enough to put a man at ease. The cushions are deep and luxurious and restful... the wheel is perfectly positioned for the driver's hands... and beauty and comfort and spaciousness are in every direction.

And driving a Cadillac is as restful as sitting in a Cadillac.

That great, powerful engine responds as if by magic... carrying the car in and out of traffic almost as quickly and as easily as the driver makes his decision to do so. Steering is feather-light and effortless... and braking calls only for the slightest pressure from the daintiest foot.

Of course, if the driver has chosen a Cadillac Air Conditioner for his car, he refreshes as he relaxes. With a simple adjustment of a single lever, he can lower the car's interior to any normal temperature he desires—even in the warmest weather.

Yes, it's little wonder that the man in the Cadillac always looks so comfortable and happy and relaxed. In plain fact—he is!

Wouldn't it be wonderful to find such satisfaction in your own motoring? Of course it would—and that's why we suggest that you come in for a personal demonstration.

We'll gladly put you behind the wheel—for the most relaxing hour you ever spent on the highway.

BE SURE TO HEAR THE CADILLAC CHORAL SYMPHONY EVERY SUNDAY AT 7:15 P.M. OVER KFLW

Marjorie Rambeau Tells Of Finding Real Faith

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — Marjorie Rambeau, vivacious star of 50 years on the stage and screen, today told how she found faith after a highway accident that nearly cost her life.

A chance meeting with Western stars Roy Rogers and Dale Gribble changed the course of her life, said the actress, who will be 51 next month.

The story begins in 1949, when the successful character actress was driving home from work with her sister. A truck smashed into their car, then drove away. The sister was killed. Miss Rambeau's face was smashed and her leg was crushed. The driver of the truck was never identified.

...surgically restored her ravaged face. Many months later, she managed to return to acting with the aid of a cane. But she had no big break, and her leg began to ache. She began a series of three operations to arrest the condition, during one seven-hour session, she was on the operating table so long that the surgeon fainted.

...was feeling pretty low after one operation, she recalled. "I was in a wheelchair in a ordinary place at Jack Oakies house. I was in bed, and I ate no food, I gained 45 lbs. I started to lose weight, and they took me to a hospital and sent for my doctor. After the doctor left, Roy and Dale came in. I had just met them. They said, 'We've heard of you. Why don't you come to a meeting of the Hollywood Christian Group. I'll be there.' I had always been assured before the accident, I had always been a church member. But I said I would come."

The Hollywood Christian Group is composed of film workers like the Rogers, Jane Russell, Colleen Cowell, Ann Hines and Porter Hall. They meet each Monday night to discuss religion and to sing hymns. Miss Rambeau said she had never missed a meeting since she first started attending.

"I never had time for much religious training," she said. "When I was 13, I was playing 'Camille' in Portland, Ore—the youngest leading woman in the American theater. I never had time to go to church, because I always had a matinee and evening performance on Sunday. I was not a believer, but when I talked to God I was usually angry about something."

"But now I have found that Christ is my guide. It has brought me a spiritual happiness that I have never known before in my life. If I had to go through the agony of the last eight years again in order to find God, I would gladly go so—and I'm not being a Pollyanna about this."

Miss Rambeau was a typical Hollywood quirk, she said, just after she stepped off an operating table for a scene in "Scalpel." She joked to surgeon Charlton Heston: "I just want you to remove some of the bad parts. I've had in my lifetime."

The actress, whose natural beauty has a soft quality with the attitude among film workers.

"I have never seen so much receptivity to faith among show people," she remarked. "You don't even hear so much as 'damn' on a movie set. The people show
