No Previous Experience Needed To Prepare For Career In Big Opportunity Field

CHICAGO (Special)—"Young men need no previous experience to prepare for a profitable, exciting career in television," declared E. B. DeVry, President of DeVry's Training, Inc., one of America's foremost television training centers located here.

Launching a national drive to enroll ambitious young men, DeVry explained, "Now that the TV station limit has been increased from 108 to 2033, television's biggest opportunities lie ahead. Young men anxious to break into this wonderfully promising field may be trained in our million-dollar training center in Chicago or in the privacy of their own homes."

"For more than 21 years we have been training men for profitable positions and businesses of their own. The ambitious young man who prepares to enter television now will be getting started in one of the nation's fastest growing industries."

"We will be glad," said DeVry, "to give any interested person full facts about our fascinating program without any obligation whatever. Simply send a postal card to E. B. DeVry, President, Dept.
