Three Sent To Prison

Three men were sentenced to state prison yesterday and today by Circuit Judge David Vandenberg.

Robert J. Dailey was sentenced to seven years for car theft. While under parole for a 1951 burglary here, Dailey was arrested in Hood River, March 16, in possession of a car stolen here March 11 from an E. Main used car lot.

Robert C. Lamont received a 3-year sentence on a bad check charge.

This morning, Lloyd Dunlap was sentenced to one year for non-support. His divorced wife took the stand in court this morning and testified Dunlap had not paid the monthly amount set in divorce court for support of their children. Judge Vandenberg sternly rebuked Dunlap and said in passing sentence he was "sorry I can't give you more" than one year.

Schweitzer Rites Friday

TULELAKE — Funeral services for Edward C. Schweitzer, 63, who died May 11 at an Oregon City Clinic after a short illness will be held Friday, 2 p.m. May 15 at the Everhart and Kent Funeral Home, Canby, Oregon. The Rev. Alger Fitch, pastor of the Milwaukie Christian Church will officiate. Interment will follow in Zion Memorial Park, Canby.

Mr. Schweitzer was born Dec. 12, 1889 at Chicago, and prior to moving to Tulelake had been a resident of the Needy district in Clackamas County where he was engaged in farming. At Tulelake he operated a seed cleaning business and a farm he homesteaded in 1938.

He was married in 1918 at Portland to Bertha Yoder who with a son, Harold E. Schweitzer, Tulelake; a daughter, Mrs. Robert (Evelyn) Morrison, Milwaukie; two sisters, Mrs. Freda Johnston, Boring and Mrs. Irene Pottratz, Hillsboro; and three grandchildren survive him.
