

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

HELEN SUTY APRIL BRIDE IN ST. AUGUSTINE'S Catholic Vows Unite Prominent Families

THE CEREMONY . . . for the wedding of Helen Suty to Robert Cahill in St. Augustine's, Merrill, was an impressive and solemn Nuptial Mass on April 16 at 10 a. m. After the service, a festive air prevailed during the reception for some 200 invited friends and relatives.

Upper left, the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Suty, Merrill, in her bridal dress of imported Chantilly lace, tulle and satin. Top circle, the flower girl, 4 year old Jean Thompson; below, bride dancing with her father; next circle, bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fern Bellotti; bottom circle, Mrs. Suty, bride's mother, escorted by son-in-law, Robert K. Thompson.

Upper right, at the reception, Mrs. Ellen Cahill, bridegroom's mother; bride, in her travel clothes; bridegroom's brother, Hugh Cahill, Mrs. Steve Takacs, sister of the bride; Terry Cahill, also brother of the bridegroom; seated, Robert K. (Bob) Thompson; and Mrs. Rudy Paygr, who was organist for the wedding. Bride and bridegroom with the Rev. Patrick Lunham who officiated; lower right, the new Mrs. Cahill with Mrs. Vonnie Glynn and Mrs. Ivan Kandra. In the oval lower left, with attendants, Mrs. George Marsan, left, and Mrs. John Lane adjust bride's veil. With them, Mrs. Robert K. Thompson. All are wearing pearl necklaces, gifts from the bride.

— Photos by Guderian

AN "ALOHA FOR LOIS" PARTY . . . Tuesday May 12 . . . Mrs. George Hillis entertained at an informal luncheon at her home, 810 Eldorado, for Mrs. Louis E. Serruys who is sailing today on the Lurline with her husband for a three weeks' vacation in the Hawaiian Islands. They are going as members of the Islam Temple, Oakland, annual Shrine Club cruise, but will also spend considerable time with friends who are island residents. At the table during the 1 p. m. luncheon, Mrs. Clara (Shazie) Shaw, left; Mrs. Hillis, standing; and the guest of honor, Mrs. Serruys. Mrs. Shaw and several other guests had visited the islands and were a source of many valuable tips on what to see.

— Photo by Kettler

VACATIONING IN HAWAIIAN ISLANDS