HAPPY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Saturday expressed his pleasure at the release of Associated Press Correspondent William Oatis by the Communists in Czechoslovakia.

The President said through Press Secretary James Hagerty he was "highly pleased" about the news of Oatis' release.

Eisenhower commented while en route to Norfolk, Va., on the presidential yacht.

Plane Hits Texas Wood 19 Killed

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP)—A DC3 twin-engine transport plane tumbled "over and over" into a storm-lashed East Texas piney woods yesterday, killing 19 persons.

One woman survived.

The crash of the Delta - Chicago — Southern airliner 13 miles east of here happened moments after the pilot, Douglas Volk, 33, Atlanta, had asked the Shreveport, La., airport control tower for routine landing instructions. He indicated no difficulty.

Mrs. J. W. Cox of Panama City, Fla., was the only one to live. She did not know how.

"We ran into a terrific rainstorm, and I dozed off," she said in the Marshall Hospital last night. "When I woke up, the plane was turning over and over and every one was screaming. The next thing I remember was coming to in a puddle of water with a dying man beside me."

Mrs. Cox was in a semiconscious condition with a serious head injury, a broken leg and shock. Doctors said she had a good chance to live. She was reported resting well late last night. Her husband arrived here.

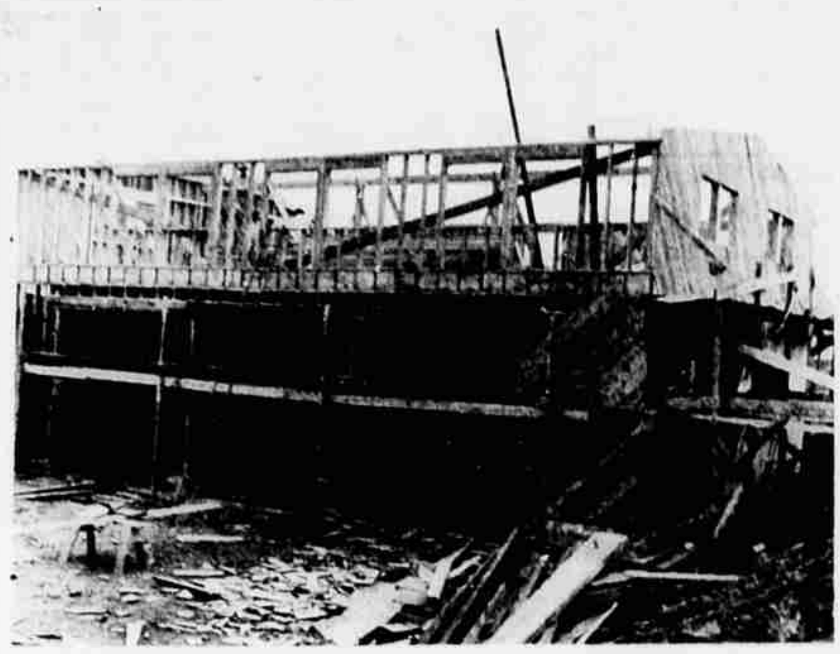
Searchers found two other women alive. The stewardess, Jo Anne Carlson, 25, Chicago, died on her way to the hospital. A young mother died a short time later.

"I don't see how anyone survived," said Millard Cope, publisher of the Marshall News Messenger.

Only a short section of fuselage near the tail was intact. The plane went down near the Texas-Louisiana border one mile south of U. S. Highway 80.

Mrs. Cox was on her way from Albuquerque, N. M., to Jackson, Miss., to join her husband. She said the two planned to take a vacation in Florida before he was sent overseas for Air Force Duty.

Among the dead were Mrs. R. H. Fincher, 19, of near Atlanta, Ga., and her son Jesse David, about 2 months old. Mother and son were flying eastward from Abilene, Tex. Mrs. Fincher's husband is in military service in India. She died in the hospital here.



NEW FIRE FIGHTING facilities will soon be ready at OTI. Pictured above is the new dormitory and garage for the OTI fire station which will be completed soon. Three garages will be located on the ground floor. The second floor will be used for sleeping quarters.

BOOT CAMP days are over for Jack Larue Palmer of Klamath Falls. He has completed training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer, 1951 Ogden St.

US Officials Face Mob

TEHRAN (AP) — A U. S. Information Service official was struck in the face and a U. S. Point Four vehicle was rushed by angry leftist crowds in the latest anti-American incidents reported here Monday.

Jim Cook, director of the films section of the U. S. Information Service, was hit in the face by members of a youthful group Sunday. Cook was on his way to church and had stopped his car at a busy corner. The crowd set up a, "Yankee, go home," chant.

This morning members and sympathizers of the Tudeh (Communist) party rushed a Point Four station wagon as it passed the Justice Ministry. Some persons struck at two Americans in the vehicle, but the Iranian driver forced the car through the crowd before anyone was injured, eye witnesses said. Point Four headquarters said it had no report of the incident and could not identify the Americans.

The crowd had gathered at the ministry for the trial of a leftist editor accused of insulting the monarchy. Tempers flared when the trial was postponed because a juror was absent.

Editor Raps McCarthy Quiz

WASHINGTON (AP)—Editor James A. Wechsler of the New York Post says Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) "has for many months . . . taken the view that you could cut down the amount of press criticism if you threaten editors."

Wechsler's paper has repeatedly criticized McCarthy editorially. Twice within the past month he has been questioned by McCarthy, as chairman of the Senate Investigations Subcommittee.

Appearing on an NBC television panel Sunday, Wechsler said the questioning was a pointless inquisition aimed at scaring other editors. He said:

"He was thinking of many papers in other parts of the country where perhaps the publishers aren't so tough and where perhaps they scare more easily."

McCarthy has maintained he questioned Wechsler not as a newspaperman but as an author whose writings are in U. S. information libraries abroad. Wechsler is a former member of the Young Communist League, but he contends his record since he quit it in 1937, at the age of 22, is vigorously anti-Communist. McCarthy disputes that, and says Wechsler has criticized those who, in McCarthy's view, are fighting Communism.

Movie Industry Moving Closer To All Color Film

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Movies are looking rosier in Hollywood these days, but that doesn't mean that business is on the upswing. It's just that the film industry is moving closer to an all-color output.

All signs point to color. Observers noted that there will be a paltry nine feature films shooting in town next week. That's the lowest figure since anyone can remember. Production will doubtless pick up a bit, but Hollywood may never again see the fat shooting schedules of lush days.

The new - dimensional pictures appear to have more staying power than the flatties. Cinerama may have a two - year run in New York. "House of Wax" is playing extra weeks in all locations. Films like "The Robe" will probably have runs of many months.

Since pictures can be played longer, fewer will be made. And it is logical that most if not all of those will be in color.

Color advocates argue this way: TV is the movie industry's biggest competitor for the public's interest. Since TV cannot yet offer color the films should give it to the public.

The new techniques are most effective in color. The aim of 3-D pictures is the illusion of reality. The stereo effect makes the screen have depth, but color is also necessary—so the viewers will seem to see life as it really is.

The wide-screen methods also aim at reality, for which color is necessary. They also feature scenes of great scope, action and beauty. Color is an essential element in the kind of spectacle which the wide screens will offer.

We may yet see the day when the black-and-white movie is as outdated as the silent film.

Theater men are getting worried about the low state of film production in Hollywood, and well they should. At the present rate, there won't be enough films to supply the current demands for new product. At least one company is unloading its "flat" pictures, having previewed six in the last two weeks.

The pinch will probably come in early fall. Theater men are beginning to fear they will have to play reissues entirely or close up, unless they have converted to the new process.

They are also beginning to prove that the studios are pulling a squeeze play on them—to force them to get ready for the new dimensional pictures.

TV Puts Comediennes Up In Top Entertainment Spot

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—One of the remarkable things about television has been the rise of comediennes.

Funny women have long been a stock in trade of show business. But until TV, they were always overshadowed by the popularity of the male laugh-getters. TV has changed all that.

The title role in the home screen's top show—"I Love Lucy"—belongs to a woman. Among the others who have amassed nice ratings are Imogene Coca, Eve Arden, Joan Davis, Ann Sothern, Marie Wilson, Gracie Allen, Martha Raye, Tallulah, etc. Most of them were in radio, too, but have never had the immense success they enjoy now.

How come—I asked Joan Davis—is it because women's voices are not as recognizable on radio?

"No," she replied, "It isn't hard to recognize my voice, or Eve Arden's, or Gracie Allen's."

Is it because male comics excel in audible humor while the gals rely on sight for laughs?

"Nope, I don't think so."

Then why is it?

"I think it's because of that nasty old thing called sex," Miss Davis replied, "and sex is more visible than audible."

"All of us girls try to look the best we possibly can," the comedienne continued. "I always have a smart outfit on, unless I've just fallen in a mud puddle or something. This makes it hard on the wardrobe mistress, because I sometimes have six or eight changes. I don't have time for fittings; the dresses are tried on a dummy. They figure if the dummy can wear them, I can."

Joan admitted that TV was the biggest thing that ever happened to her.

"I became better known in six weeks on TV than I did in all those years on radio and in pictures," she remarked. "Anybody with a TV show gets that same reaction."

Joan is making her 38th telefilm today. After three more, she'll take off for the summer. She owns the TV series herself, so it's like having an annuity.

"I stayed out of TV until I could make the deal I wanted," she explained. "I wanted to leave my daughter Beverly something besides a cracked voice."

ARRESTED

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Arturo Frondizi, defeated opposition candidate for vice-president in the last election, was arrested by federal police around midnight for questioning about a series of 14 bomb blasts that have shaken Buenos Aires since March. The government of president Juan D. Peron charges the explosions are a plot of his political enemies.

Redmen Slate Weed Meet

WEED—A grand parade to include floats and a gala evening of dancing will feature the District Meeting of Redmen when the Winema Tribe hosts the gathering in Weed on Saturday, May 23.

All local organizations as well as those from near by towns have been invited to enter floats. Three awards will be given in the Children's Division for the best floats and appropriate awards for other entries. The parade will start to move down the streets of Weed at 2:30 o'clock.

A banquet will be held in the St. Michael's Hall beginning at 6:30 to be followed with special entertainment for members' wives and other non-member guests of the tribe until time for the dance starting at 9:30 p.m. when the band will strike up in the Weed Hippodrome for the first dance with dancing continuing until the wee small hours. During dance intermissions special events will be staged and refreshments be served. The dance will be strictly an invitational affair.

Attending the meeting will be visitors from all parts of the state and some out of state guests. Scheduled to participate in the District Meeting which will follow the banquet are Grand Prophet of the United States, Bill Farrenjroph, of San Francisco and other grand officers; Great Sachem Alfred Ryno of Sacramento and a number of state notables in the organization.

Degree Team of the Winema Tribe will confer degrees on a large class of candidates at the meeting. Sachem of the Winema Tribe, 184 of weed is R.D. Riley.

Britain Says Red Hold In Malaya Off

LONDON (AP)—Britain has broken the back of the Communist rebellion in Malaya, High Commissioner Sir Gerald Templer said today.

He told a news conference, "We have got the Communists down but they are not finished yet. . . They still retain a dangerous armed potential."

He said Britain must redouble her Malayan war effort and force the Communists to choose between "surrender or death."

The top British official in Malaya said, "Food denial to the Communist terrorists is the basis for all our successful operations at present." So far, he said, 1,050 Communists have surrendered to British forces in the Asian peninsula. The British in the past usually have estimated that the Communist guerrillas total about 5,000, almost all of them Chinese.

He said Britain is organizing a special volunteer anti-Communist force from terrorists who surrendered other than on the battlefield. Present plans call for a 180-man initial group, with 12 platoons of 15 men apiece, he explained.

He described the Malayan struggle as "more and more an underground campaign and less and less a shooting war."

He said the Communist "hard core" has been "shaken a bit" and now is "withdrawing into really deep jungle where they think they will not be trapped."

Britain, he added, has already scrapped the power of mass detention and deportation and cut down curfews.

Forgery Case Tossed Out

Michael Dennis Kelley, charged with forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses, was freed here Saturday when Circuit Judge David Vandenberg upheld a demurrer by Defense Atty. George Proctor that the indictment was faulty in that it charged Kelley with two crimes, forgery and passing a bad check.

Kelley was indicted here in 1949, charged with a no good check for $247 to Hardy's Men's Store. Later, Kelley was sentenced to a California prison for another crime. When he was paroled in California recently he was brought here to face the 1949 charge.

3-Flags Road To Be Paved

PENDLETON (AP) — An eight-mile stretch of the Three Flags Highway will be paved starting June 15 and when it's done, the highway will be surfaced through Oregon.

Les Swarthout of Burns, near which the paving is to be done, made that report Friday at a meeting of the Three Flags Highway Association, formed to improve the route which runs from Mexico to Canada. Communities from Burns to Walla Walla were represented at the meeting.

Swarthout said the Harney County Chamber of Commerce was planning a formal dedication when the final paving is completed.

Winnie Tells Truce Setup

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill told the House of Commons Monday Britain and the United States are having "constant exchanges of view" on the Korean truce talks.

Churchill said under questioning he still holds the view that the United States should continue negotiations with the Reds at Panmunjom on behalf of the United Nations, although Britain reserves the right to express its opinion "frankly and plainly."

He declared:

"As a matter of general policy I am not prepared to say whether or not there were specific consultations on any particular occasion. I should like in this connection to repeat what I said last Monday. I said 'I must remind the House, as I have done several times, that the United States is mandatory to the United Nations and has borne nineteen-twentieths of the burden of blood and treasure.

" 'The matter is not one in which we have either the right or responsibility to decide. But it is our duty without separating ourselves from our great ally to express our opinion frankly and plainly to them as occasional offers.' "

Opposition leaders — especially followers of leftwing leader Aneurin Bevan—have in recent weeks made frequent demands for closer British participation in the Panmunjom talks. The Bevanites claim the negotiations have reached a stage in which military voices at the conference table should be supplanted by those of skilled political men.

DIET MEET

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's newly-elected Diet (parliament) meets Monday to pick a prime minister and Shigeru Yoshida, the little man who has led Japan on a pro-American course since 1948, is making a strong bid to head his fifth cabinet. His huge Liberal Party won 42 per cent of the 466 seats in the recent national election for the powerful house of representatives and rolled up a good showing in upper house balloting.
