HE KNOWS — Sensing tragedy, Lobo, pet dog of Ronald Bivens, 15, keeps a mournful vigil beside his young masters clothes as police grapple for the boy's body. The youngster drowned in a pond near Weymouth, Mass., while experimenting with a home-made underwater breathing device.

Olive Cornett Home Again

Mrs. Marshall Cornett, National Republican Committeewoman from Oregon is home after an extended visit to Washington D. C., the Midwest and South. She was accompanied here by her brother, W. H. Byram, who visited in Missouri while Mrs. Cornett was in Washington.

April 9-10 she attended meetings of the Republican National Committee and on April 23-24 was present for the Republican Women's Spring Conference, when 1200 women from all the states converged in the capitol to hear President Dwight D. Eisenhower and members of the cabinet speak.

She visited New York, in Kentucky, capitols of several states enroute home and sat in on a Senate Committee meeting in Springfield, Ill., when truck legislation was under consideration.

Several embassies, the Japanese, Portugeese and Iceland were visited.

Mrs. Cornett shortened her visit in California to arrive here to time to attend the coffee hour at the Balsiger Show room and the dinner in the Willard Hotel, honoring Governor and Mrs. Paul Patterson, Saturday.

The Governor's speech is expected to be non-political and although the banquet is being sponsored by Republican groups, an invitation is extended to everyone interested to attend the dinner.

Reservations for the dinner may still be made by calling Roy Murphy, 5471 or Mrs. Henry Nicol, 7263.

Fred Meyer Faces Strike

PORTLAND (AP) — Food and drug clerks employed by the Fred Meyer group of stores here have authority to strike at midnight Thursday but a mediator has called the two sides into an evening conference.

Elmer Williams, who speaks for the Food Employers, Inc., said that if Fred Meyers is struck, all association members would send their clerks home.

That would mean that Portlanders would be dependent in the event of a strike on the independent stores. There are many of them

Harry H. Lewis, regional director of the mediation service in Seattle, was at a meeting at Eugene Wednesday night when he heard about it. He called on the union and Fred Meyer management to meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in Portland. He will name a mediator to handle the conference.

The Portland Central Labor Council cleared the way for the strike by acting, through its executive board Wednesday, to put the Meyers stores on the unfair list if agreement is not reached.

Two Killed As Train Smacks Car

CANBY, Ore. (AP) — A Southern Pacific freight train struck a stalled automobile on a grade crossing Wednesday night and killed two grandparents in the car.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown, route 1, Canby. Their grandson, Paul Carroll, about 28, Canby, who was driving, suffered shock. He was taken to the Hutchinson Hospital at Oregon City.

The car stalled on a crossing at the county fairgrounds just north of Canby.

Immigrant Quota Boost Asked Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith Thursday urged Congress to enact emergency legislation admitting 240,000 immigrants in the next two years to relieve population pressures in Western Europe.

Smith said Europe's basic overpopulation and the postwar refugee problem were of most serious concern to the United States because of their "impact upon the health and stability of friendly countries."

Smith testified before a House judiciary subcommittee considering the administration program for immediate admission of special quota immigrants and refugees from Communism President Eisenhower asked on April 22 for such action.

The administration proposes admission of 110,000 refugees now living in the Western zones of Berlin, Western Germany and Austria.

Another 15,000 special quota visas would be available to escapees from Communism in the European territory of NATO nations, including Turkey, and in Trieste.

The remaining quotas would go to Italy, The Netherlands and Greece.

Counties Lose O&C Land Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Western Oregon counties Wednesday lost their court suit to gain a favorable settlement of the O & C timberlands dispute.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff of U. S. District Court dismissed a suit to declare 472,000 acres of land to be under jurisdiction of the Department of Interior rather than the Department of Agriculture.

The judge said the suit was an action in which the government would be a defendant. The government did not consent to the suit so the judge granted a motion by the Justice Department for dismissal.

The suit was filed by Clackamas County in behalf of the 18 Western Oregon counties in which lie the disputed lands.

Richard L. Merrick, Washington attorney for the county, gave notice of appeal. He said, however, that he did not expect the case to come up in the Circuit Court of Appeals before June, 1954.

The county claimed the 472,000 acres should be administered by the Interior Department as part of the grant to the Oregon and California Railroad shortly after the Civil War. The government later took back the land

As O & C lands the 18 Oregon counties would get 75 per cent of timber sale receipts. If the land is under the Forest Service, an agency of the Agriculture Department, the counties would get only 25 per cent of sale receipts.

Disputed receipts, totalling about six million dollars, have been held in a special fund since 1942.

Merrick argued that it was not a suit against the government. He said it was not government money in the special fund. He asserted the fund was not subject to congressional appropriations as it would be if in the general treasury.

Frank Sever, attorney for the Association of O & C Counties, said he interpreted the decision as meaning that the counties' only court remedy was through the U. S. Court of Claims.

He said the association would take such action if Congress does not legislate a solution at this session.

Legislation on the matter has been drafted but not yet introduced by Sen. Cordon and Rep. Ellsworth, Oregon Republicans.

Red Rock Branding Held

MACDOEL—At daybreak, Sunday morning, May 17, horses and riders converged at the L. D. Parson cattle ranch for the annual branding in Red Rock valley.

Guests at the annual barbecue dinner numbered 250 this year. Serving the crowd were Mrs. John Parsons, Mrs. Jess Craddock, Mrs. Paul Cavener, Mrs. June Parsons, Mrs. Ray Laird, Mrs. Tom Cavener and Ervin Bond and the Parsons.

Many oldtimers and the younger generation took part in the day. Cameras were much in evidence. Stanley Miller, with Crater Lake Machinery Company of Klamath Falls got some especially good shots.

Scorekeeper was Ora Garey who was kept busy while the buckaroos brought in the calves after they were roped. He reported 236 calves branded.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller and family, Lyle Mills, Olive McCain, Robbie Barrett, Mrs. Maude Holmes and Iris Goods of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Laird, Mrs. Ray Laird Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dayton of Tulelake; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Stratton, Mr and Mrs. Victor Shuck and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stukel of Merrill; Walter Smith and son of Langell Valley; Raymond Garey of Gazelle, Calif; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stevenson of Montague and their grandson, Mike Stevenson, and Butch Wilson of Dorris; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clover of Gold Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dumbeck of Portland.

Western Swing Band Slated

Billy Jack Wills and his western swing band will make their first appearance in the Klamath Basin country when they play Wednesday night, May 27, at the Red Barn at Dorris, according to Dick Fenwick.

BILLY JACK WILLS

Wills is one of four brothers, Bob, Johnny, Luke and Billy, each of whom has a well known western band. Billy's aggregation has been playing to crowded houses for the past three years at Wills Point ballroom, near Sacramento.

With Bob Wills, Billy wrote "Rockabye Baby Blues," their recording of which made history as a top western seller.

Dancing at the Red Barn will be from 10 p.m. to 2 p.m. daylight time, 9 to 1 Pacific standard time.

We would much rather tell you that you are covered than that we are sorry. Insure your car and home with Hans Norland now. 627 Pine St.
