MARY GEALES GILCHRIST WEDS WAYNE ERNST

In Impressive Garden Ceremony at Noon

A POPULAR Klamath Basin couple joined the ranks of "young marrieds" on Mothers Day, when Jean Selby and Charles Wagner exchanged vows in Klamath Lutheran Church, May 10, in a 2 p. m. double-ring ceremony. Bride is the daughter of Mrs. John D. Selby, Ashland, former resident who was prominent in club and social life in this vicinity. Bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oral B. Wagner, Ingleswood, Calif., also well known here as former Bonanza residents.

In the large circle, top left, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagner, after the wedding service. Upper right, bridal party, from the left, Mrs. Douglas Westrom (Phyllis Whytall), San Francisco; Marjorie Zwanziger, Marianne Wagner, sister of bridegroom, Ingleswood; and Cleo Cadwell, bridesmaids. Mary Jane Howard, maid of honor; bride and bridegroom; Jim Doerfler, best man; Jerry Edinger, Len Genetin, Floyd Printz and John Henslee, ushers.

The two ring-bearers, 3-year-old nephews of the bride, are, left, Mitchell Selby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Selby, Medford; and Jay Selby, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Selby, also Medford.

The couple is now at home, 431 Washington, after a wedding trip to San Francisco and California-coastal points.

MR. AND MRS. WAYNE HOWARD ERNST . . . married at high noon, Saturday, May 9. They exchanged vows in the presence of some 500 guests grouped on the lawn of the family home in the picturesque village which bears the family name. Bride is the daughter of Frank W. Gilchrist and the late Mrs. Gilchrist. The bridegroom, who is purchasing agent for the Gilchrist Timber Company, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Allingham, Bond.

A story-book setting of blue skies, a crystal lake, pine trees and myriads of flowers was the background for the impressive service, read by the Rev. W. N. Byers on a platform by the water, where the bridal couple and attendants assembled for the wedding ceremony.
