23 Years Ago

Monday, May 26, 1930—Sedate Klamath business men and a number of the dignified city officials, have agreed to loosen their pent-up mirth and humor for one of the clever features of the play "Aunt Lucia." Those cast in the play as college flippers are: Mayor Tom Watters, Lloyd Low, Andy Collier, Elbert Veatch, Doug Puckett, Elmer Balsiger, Marion Barnes, Walter Foster and Arthur Schoupp.

Tuesday, May 27, 1930—A meeting of the forestry committee of the chamber of commerce will be held this evening. The forestry committee is composed of J. F. Kimball, chairman; M. S. West and W. O. Smith. Glenn Hout is the director in charge.

Wednesday, May 28, 1930—Much interest is being manifested among Klamath Falls tennis fans in the first inter-city match of the season, which will be played at Medford. The team, which has been working out daily on the courts at Moore park, is composed of Harold "Robby" Robertson, Clifford "Rich" Richmond, R. W. "Ray" Hall, Bryant "Slim" Sheehorn, L. Z. "Nick" Carter, Gordon "Dick" Dixon and Douglas "Doug" Ballentine.

Thursday, May 29, 1930—Mrs. Jennie Hurn is among those who returned recently from Portland after attending the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs grand lodge convention sessions held in the northern city. Mrs. Hurn is a prominent member of the local Rebekahs.

Friday, May 30, 1930—A number of law officers and officials of Klamath Falls are leaving this evening for Eugene to attend a meeting of the Southern Oregon Law Enforcement association. Among those who plan to attend from here are Louis Mueller, Lloyd Low, T. R. Gillenwaters, Jack Almeter and George McNob. The last two are Chiloquin officers.

Saturday, May 31, 1930—Mr. and Mrs. Bogue Dale are expected to return about the first of the month from Southern California where they have been visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Dale is a member of the realty firm of Dale and Hosking and is also secretary of the Klamath Realty Board.
