Bonanza Baccalaureate Services

BONANZA—The lovely baccalaureate services for the seniors of Bonanza High School was held May 24, 2:30 p.m., at the Lorella Full Gospel Church. The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli, asters and other summer flowers.

Mrs. Lloyd Sparks played the processional for the following seniors: Edna Fitzhugh, Leah Dye, Marianna Helleson, Marilee Keyser, Sandra Lindsay, Shirley New-lun, Charlotte Passolt, Paulene Noble, Patsy Toell, Donald Welch, William Butts, Warren Dick, Pat Givan, Kenneth Hriclesse, Howard Koertje, Mervin Stalnaker, Charles Roberts and Arthur Peterson.

Bill House soloist, sang "Your Roses May Have Thorns." He was accompanied by Mrs. Willard Noble. The invocation was given by Rev. Francis Olp followed by another song by Bill House "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

The baccalaureate address was then given by the Rev. Francis E. Olp, followed by Bill House singing "The Lord's Prayer." The recessional was also played by Mrs. Lloyd Sparks.

Following the services Mrs. Willard Noble served cake and coffee to the graduates and their parents, and the teachers. A beautiful cake with the senior motto "The Horizon Widens as We Climb" centered the refreshment table.
