Assembly 49 Rainbow Girls Malin Installation Ceremony

MALIN — At open installation ceremonies of Malin Rainbow Assembly 49, May 15, 8 p.m., Patti Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Smith, was installed as Worthy Advisor.

The ceremonies were in the new Masco Hall before a host of friends and relatives. The assembly room was attractively decorated with large pleated paper fans of many colors, which were placed on the walls in the East and various places throughout the room. Adding interest also were artificial trees holding large paper flowers; all forming an attractive backdrop for the tiny, blonde, new Worthy Advisor and her lovely officers.

An impressive welcoming address was given by Thelma Clugston, hostess, after which the new officers entered the room and were, in turn, installed. Conducting installation ceremonies was Installing Worthy Advisor Elizabeth McVey, assisted by installing officers, Linda Williams, Kathleen Wilson, Martha Beasley, Betty Bunnell and Mother Advisor, Hazel Bowman.

First to be installed was the new Worthy Advisor, Patti Smith. Following in order, and seated in their respective stations were: Worthy Associate Advisor, Darla Sarutski; Charities, Martha Beasley; Hope, Pearl Ottoman; Faith, Barbara Bunnell; Treasurer, Roxanne Wilson; Secretary, Janet Elmore; Chaplain, Barbara Salyers; Drill Leader, Jean Lowness; Choir Director, Joyce James; Inner Observer, Lou Ann Kendra; Outer Observer, Ardie Micka; Musician, Dianne Micka; Love, Lucile Weber; Religion, Lynette Lyon; Nature, Shirley Mock; Immortality, Carolyn Fargo; Fidelity, Gerald Hendricks; Patriotism, Sandra Fields and Service, Marie Rogers.

After being seated in the East, Patti welcomed her new officers and announced that her theme would be "Religion and Fidelity" and stressed the importance of religion in the home and in everyday living.

Proposed project for her term will be the selling of candy, which is to be provided by Phil's Candyland in Klamath Falls. The proceeds from these sales will be placed in the assembly funds to be used wherever most needed. Other projects during the summer months will be the annual Rainbow Dance May 27, a camping trip to Medicine Lake, and helping the Eastern Star and Masons serve meals to several hundred Boy Scouts in July. The Bible to her father, was carried out by Patti in regular ceremony.

Honoring their new Worthy Advisor, the officers, each carrying colorful wands, executed an intricate drill for her, which ended with a presentation of flowers picked from the garden of "Love, Fidelity, Religion, Nature, Immortality, Patriotism and Service."

Following the address for Patti outgoing Worthy Advisor, Betty McVey was honored. Gloria Nandie entered the room singing "Over the Rainbow" then, approaching the East, she presented Betty with her Past Worthy Advisor's jewel. Betty, when giving her farewell address, told of the successful completion of her projects. During her term the girls had given a party at the Smith home and held a food sale, that netted them enough to purchase a punch bowl, which they presented to the Eastern Star. Enough money was left over to buy material to re-cover the five occasional chairs used in the assembly room.

Betty also announced that the Memory Book, which will hold pictures of all the girls, is nearly completed and has been given to the Rainbow Assembly by Betty's mother, Mrs. Earl McVey.

Honored guests seated in the East during installation ceremonies were: Ethel Hamilton, Rainbow District Deputy; Eva Bowman, Worthy Matron of Prosperity Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star; Linda Williams, Worthy Advisor of Klamath Falls Rainbow Assembly; Hazel Bowman, Malin Mother Advisor; and Thelma Clugston, hostess. Each were called upon for a few words and Mrs. Bowman presented Patti with a gift from the Chapter.

Awards received on the Point System were given the girls by the Mother Advisor to: Esther Beasley.
