Herald & News Free Want-Ad

Hey kids!

You can still get in on the free want ad offer by the Herald and News this week to all Klamath Falls boys and girls under 16 years of age.

It works like this. If you've got something you want to sell or swap to pick up vacation funds, just visit the classified advertising department of the Herald and News. Your classified ad will appear in six issues of the newspaper.

The deadline for placing ads is 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

Want ads also may be mailed to the Herald and News before the deadline but must be signed by the parents of the advertiser. The Herald and News reserves the right to limit, edit or refuse want ads.

SIMPLE AND BEST HAZEBROUCK, France — A French court Tuesday sentenced 11 men and women to jail terms in one of the strangest liquor hijacking cases in French history. For 19 years, the gang siphoned thousands of gallons of French brandy out of huge distillery vats by the simple method of underground pipelines.

Teacher Changes At Chiloquin

CHILOQUIN—There have been three resignations on the local school faculty to be effective for next year.

Joseph Mercer, principal for the past four years, is leaving the teaching field and will soon move to Klamath Falls where he will sell insurance. Margaret Molltor, who has the longest in service record on the local faculty, will transfer to Merrill. She will spend the summer in Dakota on the family ranch. Mary Dacey, who has been on the high school staff during the current year, will spend the summer working in the county clerk's office in Bend, and may teach someplace else next year.

Two other local teachers at least will change jobs on the local staff. Mrs. George Hobbs, 2nd and 3rd grade teacher this year, will transfer to the 7th grade home room and girls' physical education for high school. Mrs. Henry Spicer, 8th grade home room and physical education teacher this year, will do some junior high work and teach home economics. Mrs. Hobbs and her husband plan to attend summer school at Oregon State College and Mrs. Spicer will stay at home on the family ranch near Modoc Point.

Two ex-Chiloquin teachers will return next year. Charles Hale to his position as 8th grade home room teacher and Mrs. Gail Ridenour of Modoc Point, to primary work. The vacancy for principal is reported as filled but the announcement will be made later from the county office.

Teachers remaining in the community for most of the summer will be Mrs. Harry Whiting, Mrs. James Paisley, Mrs. A. A. Montgomery (in Klamath Falls), Mrs. Les Hoback and Mrs. Sam Rife (at Modoc Point), Fran DiUlio, Euwill attend summer school at the University of Oregon. Melvin Ray, grade school principal, will attend school at the University of Alabama. Mrs. Roser plans to spend part of the summer in Grants Pass where her older daughter will move after the son-in-law graduates from dental school in Portland in June. Mrs. Frank Bell will spend the summer in Great Falls, Montana. Mrs. Rohlin Pfeiffer of Sprague River has the most unusual plans. She and her husband will operate a Chuck Wagon in modern style and call it a Chuckmobile. They have a bus fitted for short order service and have 15 rodents and fairs lined up where they will work. They begin this past weekend at Beatty.
