

Outdoor Notes...

By PELICAN PETE

Man and bird I've roved these hills and streams since they've been beelie, but ain't never heard the fishing and the weather prospects than this year. Unless maybe it was last year. Then it was high water. Now it's cold and high water both. Three years ago it was about the same plus bum roads.

Fishermen just aren't ever happy. But in flying over the country it seems that there is some fishing. Spotty is the best you can say for it and you gotta be there to catch onto a fair catch.

A bunch of the boys left yesterday for East and Paulina but reports from up that way would indicate that it is cold and wet and plenty snow left on the ground. The Sprague has given up some pretty fair fish if you happened to catch it right, usually midday fishing there, although some of the streams to the north have been hotter just before quitting time than any other.

The catfish lovers seem to be doing pretty well along the banks of Lost River and the other spots where the spiny denizens live, but no record catches have turned up to date.

Up around the Williamson and some of the streams there the boys seem to have luck on both spinners and flies. All in what the fish want at the time.

You see a lot more spinning outfits this year than you did last. All kinds of 'em and all kinds of theories as to how to use 'em. But it'll be many a long moon before the old fly pole is laid away to rest.

No report from anyone at Lake of the Woods and we couldn't get a line through to Jack Dutcher up thataway to find out. Will try and dig up some information on that for next week. Heck, by then the fishing ought to be better, anyhow.

As I mentioned some weeks ago the gopher shooting is just about prime now. Lots of the little diggers around with their short tails popping in the breeze as they dash for cover. Real sport putting 'em.

And talking about pot shooting, all the handgun boys in town are waiting with much curiosity to see what the new Ruger Single Six will look like and perform like. From the pictures it looks like a real ol' timer and should hang pretty well. Dealers tell us at least another month before delivery of the new handgun.

Brooklyn Cuts Sudsville Lead

By BEN PHLEGAR

AP Sports Writer
The Detroit Tigers have an outstanding candidate for the American League's rookie of the year, one of the loop's leading hitters and a reasonable chance of finishing the season with the worst record in modern baseball history.

As spring training ended Manager Freddie Hutchinson looked over his Tigers, who had finished 45 games behind the winning New York Yankees last year, and declared:

"We're not a last place outfit."

In Hutchinson's favor have been Shortstop Harvey Kuenn, one of the most promising first-year men in either league, and a heavy hitting lineup paced by Bob Neuman at 312.

Yet today, with less than a third of the season gone, the Tigers have lost 34 out of 44 contests and are 21½ games out of first place.

Detroit lost twice yesterday to the Athletics, 11-2, and 9-6, running its winless streak to 12.

The second game was decided on a homer by Cass Michaels in the 10th and marked the 12th time this year that Detroit has been beaten in the last inning.

At the other end of the league the Yankees continued their winning streak at the expense of the Chicago White Sox with a 9-5 decision in 10 innings. The Yanks now have taken seven in a row, equalling their best 1952 winning string.

Cleveland whipped the Boston Red Sox, 8-1, and Washington mopped up on the St. Louis Browns, 10-1.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, who hadn't hit a home run in two games, broke out with four yesterday against Milwaukee and defeated the Braves, 10-5. The loss cut the Braves' league lead to a half game over the Dodgers.

TIGHTENING
Philadelphia tightened its hold on third place by turning back the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-5, in 10 innings.

Pittsburgh won its third straight over Chicago, 6-1, and the New York Giants scored seven times in the eighth inning to wallop Cincinnati, 11-3.

The White Sox gave a much better account of themselves against the Yankees than on the previous day, coming from five runs behind to tie the score in the eighth. But a single by Mickey Mantle followed by Gil MacDougald's home run produced the first two New York runs in the 10th.

Larry Doby contributed a grand slam home run in Cleveland's triumph over Boston, Mel Parnell of the Red Sox, a six time loser to the Indians since April, 1950, tried to break his jinx but lasted only for his second inning.

INTO TIE
Washington moved into a third place tie with Chicago by whipping the Browns. The Senators lashed three St. Louis pitchers for 15 hits including a homer and a single for Mickey Vernon.

Brooklyn got its long ball attack going against Milwaukee as seven of the 11 hits went for extra bases. Max Surkont, who had won six straight, was tagged with his first loss.

Bobby Morgan, Duke Snider, Gil Hodges and Carl Furillo hit Brooklyn homers.

Johnny Wyrostek singled home Richie Ashburn with the winning run to give the Phils their third victory in a four game series with the Cardinals.

WINS FIRST
Bob Hall, who said he was through with the majors when the Pirates tried to ship him to the Pacific Coast League two weeks ago, won his first big league game in Pittsburgh's triumph over Chicago.

Ralph Kiner, playing his first game for the Cubs, got a double. Seven hits and a walk, climaxed by Ray Noble's three run homer, enabled the Cubs to score seven times in the eighth inning against Cincinnati. Hoyt Wilhelm made his 23rd relief appearance for New York and picked up his fourth victory. All of Cincinnati's runs were homers—two by Ted Kluszewski and one by Roy McMillan.

Salem Skein Sliced at 7

By The Associated Press

The Victoria Tyres pushed three runs across in the top of the ninth Thursday night to down Salem, 7-5, and snap the Senators' Western International League win streak at seven games.

An overthrow to first by Salem Pitcher Bob Collins and Herman Charles' two-run triple gave the Tyres all the runs they needed.

At Wenatchee the Spokane Indians scored twice in the top of the ninth to edge the Chiefs, 5-3, with both runs crossing the plate on Eddie Murphy's bases-loaded single.

Art Worth doused a Wenatchee rally in the last of the ninth by fanning the last batter with the bases loaded.

In other games Thursday night, the last-place Tri-City Braves whipped Vancouver's Capilanos, 5-1, and the Edmonton Eskimos split a doubleheader with Calgary, the Stampedeers winning the opener, 4-3, and the Eskimos prevailing in the nightcap, 5-1.

Charlie Mead's three-run homer in the fifth clinched the opening game win for the Stampedeers. Andy Skurski and Whitey Thompson each homered to give Edmonton its two runs. In the nightcap, the Eskimos bunched three hits to get two runs and their margin of victory. Leon Day went the distance for Edmonton in the second game, giving up nine hits.

Don Robertson, recent acquisition from Toronto of the International League, went the route and issued only four hits in getting credit for Tri-City's win over the Capilanos. Frank Mascaro's single after two had walked in the eighth gave the Caps their only run. The Braves pounded out 12 hits off two Vancouver pitchers, including six safeties in the seventh which accounted for four runs.

Ike Host to Sports Figures

By ED CREAUGH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, a golfer and fisherman himself, plays host today to 44 celebrities of the sports world.

Heavyweight Boxing Champion Rocky Marciano and Joe DiMaggio of baseball fame are among the topflight athletes invited to a White House buffet luncheon.

Some ladies are on the invitation list—tennis greats Pauline Betz Addie and Helen Hull Jacobs, figure skater Carol Ann Peters and channel swimmer Florence Chadwick. So Mrs. Eisenhower arranged to be on hand.

The visiting sports stars are here for tonight's benefit baseball game between Republican and Democratic members of Congress. Eisenhower will throw out the first ball.

Baseball figures dominate the guest list at the luncheon. Besides DiMaggio, the lineup includes Jimmy Foss and Lefty Grove as well as two members of earlier baseball generations, Tris Speaker and Clark Griffith.

Only one golfer is on the list—Gene Sarazen.

FIGHTS
DETROIT — Harold Lyons, 145 ½, Detroit, outpointed Walde Fursaro, 144 ½, Milan, Italy, 8.
NEWARK, N.J. — Felix Redondo, 134, Bayonne, stopped Terry Young, 134, New York, 8.

Three well-known footballers are included—Dick and Ed Mdelewski and Jack Scarbath, all of the University of Maryland.

Eisenhower plans to remain at the congressional ball game from 7:10 p. m. (EST) until 9:30 p. m. (EST), assuming any legislators are still able to pick up a bat at that late hour.

Sixty-eight members of Congress have signed up for the game, an annual event put on by the Washington Evening Star to raise money for sending needy children to summer camp.

The rival managers, Raps, Bishop (R.H.) and Herlong (D-Fla.), both forecast victory today, but ring possible filibusters by the opposition.

Eisenhower himself promised to remain neutral. But he told a Star reporter he would stand up for the Republicans in the seventh inning stretch.
